

SHORT, DAILY MESSAGES

To Spark Revival
In the Body of Christ

by The Revival Guy

INTRODUCTION

In the mid 1800's, two major events took place which have completely changed both the world and biblical Christianity: 1) the beginning of feminism, and 2) the mass migration of Catholics into the United States. From the very beginning, feminism started the widespread masculinization of girls and women in the name of "equal rights," beginning with, but not limited to, the clothing, which continues until this day; and Catholicism brought us idols and pagan celebrations in the name of so-called "Christianity" grounded in Baal worship. Since then, both feminism and Catholicism have brought about not only the defiling of the United States and the rest of the world, but also the defiling of the body of Christ (which is made up of those who have been born again and washed in the blood of Jesus).

As God's people have continually given in to the values of feminism and Catholicism (both of which they claim to disagree with) over the space of nearly 200 years now, they have become conditioned and hardened like the rest of the world, and stubbornly refuse to return to the old fashioned values and absolute standards of their Christian ancestors. For this reason a great number of my messages focus on educating those who belong to Christ about the evils of feminism and Catholic paganism. But the embracing of these two evils by the body of Christ for nearly 200 years has brought about an apathetic spirit of compromise that has spilled over and contaminated many other areas of Christian life as well, which I will also cover. In addition, I have included a number of inspirational messages.

There was a time, long ago, when our born again churches taught the old fashioned Christian values that I now teach; however, most of that ended long ago when they got tired of resisting the ever-changing sinful philosophies of the world. As a result, in an attempt to please both God and the world at the same time (to avoid the world's ridicule), God's people have become lukewarm, modifying virtually all of the world's sinful philosophies and sugar coating them with politeness, while excusing it all in the name of liberty in Christ to justify themselves before God. Consequently, as a whole, our churches no longer preach against these sinful philosophies in the body of Christ, but instead pat everyone on the back, and, ironically, preach against the world, from whom they adopted these sinful philosophies. And that carnal Christian attitude is what I confront in my messages, and with much repetition, I might add...over and over and over again, because repetition is one of the most effective ways by which we learn (See Deuteronomy 6:7, 11:19).

Much of what I say will challenge the traditions that you have been brought up with all your life, but I assure you my challenge is 100% scriptural. And although many of my messages might seem unpleasant, they are designed to bring God's people, as a whole, to repentance and back to the old fashioned Christian values which we once cherished, but now ridicule. Many of my messages will strike your conscience; and you will either scoff, be offended, and angered, or you will repent; hopefully the latter. Jesus continually commanded us to give our all for Him. So my question to you is, how much are you willing to give up for Jesus? And as you think over the answer to that question, I will now begin. Please read each message carefully and prayerfully each day, asking for God's guidance. Then obey Him.

Day 1

Who are Christians giving thanks to in these last days?

"Beloved, do not imitate what is evil, but what is good." (3 John 1:11)

Who are we thanking, and who are we praising? Years ago, even unbelievers would say "Thank God," or "I am thankful to God." As a result, our God would receive glory. But not anymore! In this day and age, in which it has become politically correct to not mention the name of God, people now say, "I am thankful," or "I am grateful." The name of God is not mentioned at all. As a result, God gets zero credit, and zero glory. But this is not the worst part. The worst thing about this is that those who say that they love Christ are imitating the world, doing exactly the same thing. Like unbelievers, Christians are saying, "I am thankful." Most of them very rarely say, "I thank God," or "I am thankful to God." As a result, God gets absolutely no credit or glory whatsoever! If somebody gave you gifts all the time, and you kept telling everyone, "I am thankful that somebody keeps giving me gifts," do you think that the person who keeps giving you gifts would be offended because you failed to mention that he was the one who keeps giving you gifts? You bet he would! And God gets offended every time we say, "I am thankful" instead of saying "I am thankful to God" or "I am thankful to Jesus!" It really annoys me that Christians of today claim to be different from the world, yet they keep imitating everything that the world does. How on earth can we keep imitating the world, and actually be different from the world at the same time? It's impossible. We are deceiving ourselves!

And when we are gathered together as believers, who are we actually praising? Is it really God? When I was saved years ago, the Sunday school teachers would ask if anyone had a "testimony" (Today they call it a "praise."). They would point out to everyone to be sure to mention God's name, giving Him credit. Christians would stand up, then say "I praise God because..." Then they would tell about their experience, and explain how God did something special for them. They always said "I praise God for..." His name was never left out. These days are quite different, though. Now, in small groups (formerly called "Sunday school classes"), whenever the teacher asks if anyone has "a praise," typically someone will tell the class about a wonderful event that happened to them during the week and leave it at that. The name of God is rarely, if ever, mentioned during this time of "praise"! For all practical purposes, these are no more than inspirational stories to make us feel good. Where is the name of God in all this? Do we really believe that we are giving glory to God by failing to mention His name? He's getting zero credit. Are God's children so blinded by carnality that they cannot see how offensive this is to God? Have our tongues become so lazy, and our hearts so lukewarm, that we can't even give glory to the God of creation by mentioning His name? Is it really so hard to do?

I hope that from this moment on you will be very careful not to say "I am thankful," but instead say, "I am thankful to God," "I am thankful to Jesus," "I thank God," etc. And when you have "a praise," I beg you for Jesus' sake, to say, "I praise God because..." or "I praise Jesus for..." This is good, pleasing in His sight, and brings honor to His name.

Day 3

"The Bible tells women to do THAT??? And it tells women NOT to do THIS??? But what about my feminist rights? And what about liberty in Christ? Besides...if I follow those old-fashioned Bible commandments, what will my friends think?"

GOD'S WORD IS THE FINAL AUTHORITY. SO STOP MAKING EXCUSES, STOP COMPLAINING, AND JUST DO WHAT IT SAYS. AND DO IT CHEERFULLY.

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad."—2 Corinthians 5:10

Day 4

The Christian Roots of Thanksgiving

As more and more Christians are becoming increasingly aware of the pagan roots of many of our so-called "Christian" holidays, some have become overzealous and have added Thanksgiving to their list of pagan holidays over little more reason than the fact that the holiday is not in the Bible. Since Thanksgiving history is not my strong suit, I would simply like to share an article with you that I found on the internet which should assure you that Thanksgiving is indeed not a pagan holiday, but is truly a holiday founded by Christians. While I do not agree with the writer's apparent belief in Replacement Theology, nevertheless, the article makes a really good case for the celebration of Thanksgiving. Please click on the link below to read the article.

Day 5

It's not really Thanksgiving If God doesn't get credit!

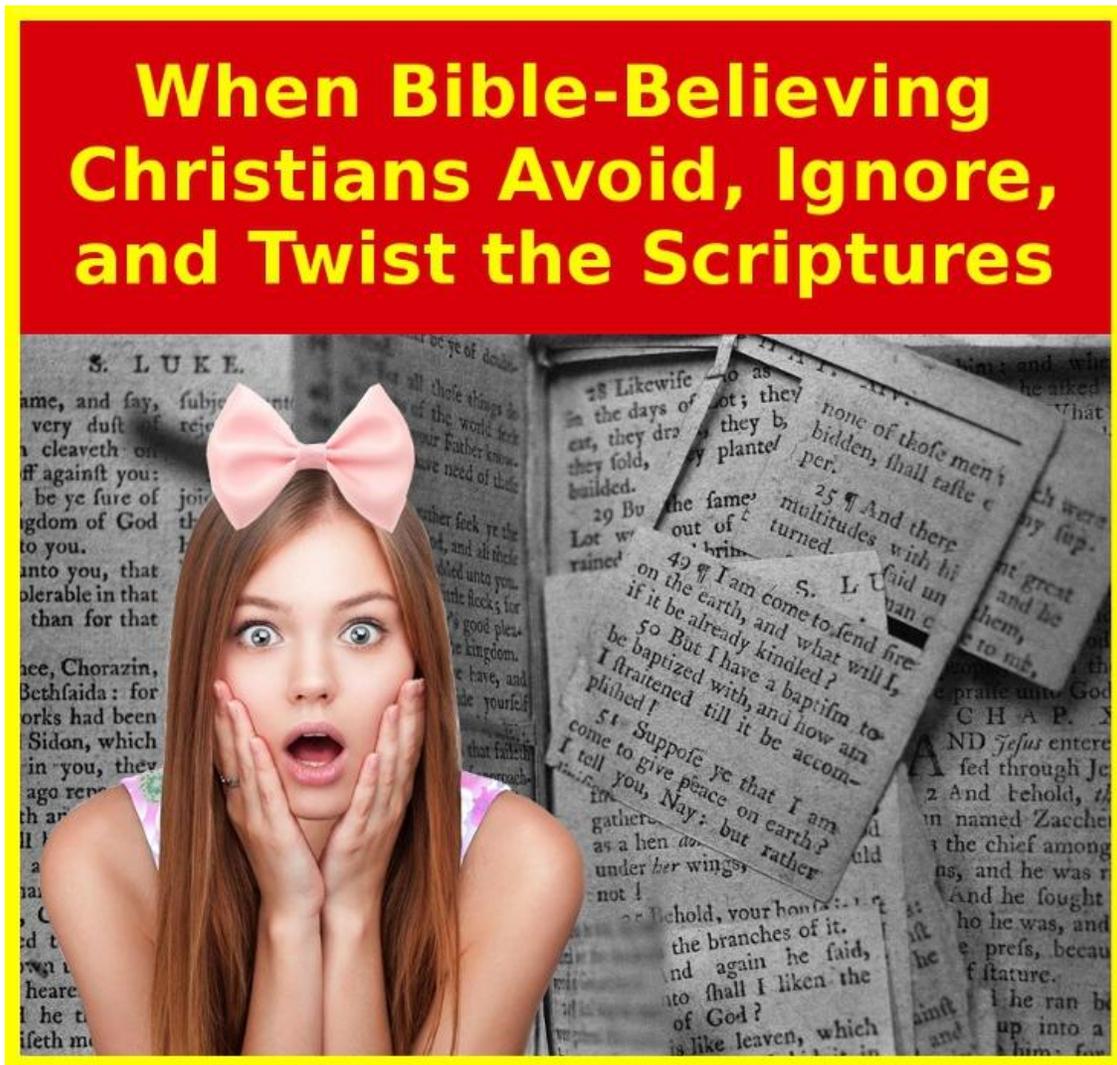

The world no longer wants to recognize God; therefore, they no longer say to other people, "I am thankful to God." Instead, they simply tell each other, "I am thankful." These are meaningless words which give zero credit to God, while leaving room for "the universe," "Mother Earth," and a multitude of other politically correct, pagan idols to receive the credit due to the one true God. Sadly, those who belong to Christ have followed the world's example, using the same words, and leaving God out. This does not honor Him.

God is highly insulted by our disregard for His name. We cannot keep pretending that He doesn't care simply because "He knows our heart." This is self-deception. If our hearts were truly as pure as we believe, we wouldn't treat Him like this!

God's people need to turn back, and honor God publicly, as they did before, acknowledging His name. Please remember this, and do it, not only on Thanksgiving, but every day of the year!

In addition, while the world is accustomed to using this holiday as an opportunity to indulge in gluttony, let those of us who name the name of Christ behave like His true servants, committing ourselves to eat in moderation, avoiding gluttony, and saving the leftovers for another day.

Day 6

When Bible-Believing Christians Avoid, Ignore, and Twist the Scriptures

After studying for four years at Bible college so that I could go into the ministry, I was somewhat disillusioned. I wanted to serve Christ on a higher level, but by the time I got out of Bible college, I was really confused—and with good reason: Over the years I've come to the frightening conclusion that a lot of what is taught by our revered Bible college professors, seminary teachers, and church leaders today is not even in the Bible, but is taken from philosophies which are adopted from the world, excused, Christianized, and then justified by scriptures which are taken completely out of context, while scriptures which actually contradict and condemn these worldly philosophies are quickly dismissed or ignored by them.

While our church leaders are pretty much on target with the basic doctrines of Christianity like the nature of God, the sinful condition of mankind, the reality of heaven and hell, the blood atonement of Christ for our sins, etc., they are extremely lacking when it comes to defining the kind of lifestyles that God commands throughout the scriptures. It wasn't always this way. There was a time when born again Bible-believing Christians strictly followed the scriptures; but once the Bible-hating feminist movement began (over 170 years ago), our church leaders started reinterpreting scripture to accommodate the fine sounding philosophies of that ungodly movement, along with the philosophies of other ungodly groups. Now, almost two centuries later, the body of Christ is literally consumed with feminism. Well...everything except their philosophy on abortion, of course. Is that one thing alone supposed to justify us in God's eyes? Don't count on it! We follow every other feminist practice to the letter....And God is not pleased!

Another abominable change that came about in our culture since then is the practice of pagan holidays which were adopted from Catholicism (a Christianized Roman form of Baal worship). These, too, have been incorporated into the body of Christ, and we now enthusiastically celebrate and very loudly defend these holidays with our life in order to "honor" Jesus Christ, even though they are totally immersed in paganism, Satanism, and witchcraft. If you're like the typical Christian, you probably didn't know about that—until now (Do some research online. You'll be shocked!), but many (not all) of our church leaders do know. So how come they never told you? This too has been justified by our church leaders, who have trivialized and reinterpreted key scriptures in order to accommodate these abominations as well.

The founding of the feminist movement over 170 years ago was a defining point in history; and the acceptance and Christianizing of its philosophies by God's people started a domino effect which has led to the apostasy and current carnal state of the body of Christ ever since. Literally hundreds of other abominable philosophies and ideas have been adopted by God's people since the founding of the feminist movement; but our churches no longer resist them; in fact, they sanctify them, and have reinterpreted scripture to make room for them. As a result, the lifestyles of God's people have changed drastically—and not for the better—at least not in God's eyes. Today's twisted version of liberty in Christ is the ultimate church-approved excuse for carnality.

As those infamous 170-plus years have passed by, hundreds of ungodly philosophies have been passed down to us by tradition through our culture, our friends, our well-meaning families, and even our churches (along with the Bible colleges and seminaries which have educated them). And because we value those relationships and the traditions that they have brought to us, we have unconsciously lost the ability to accurately discern between that which is holy and that which is impure. Anything and everything that makes us feel good or comfortable is considered approved by the Holy Spirit, and is then incorporated into the body of Christ in the name of "liberty in Christ," regardless of how abominable the practices are, and regardless of the fact that they violate scripture, and even nature at times. As a result, after over 170 years, God's people have a huge, ever-growing list of abominations that have been approved by our churches through "liberty in Christ."

The Bible clearly exposes all of the filthy traditions, philosophies, and lifestyles which we have learned to value; including, but not limited to feminism. We know it in our hearts, but we are terrified to let go of them because they are dear to us, they make us feel good, and we don't want to be ridiculed by our friends, families, and even other Christians. So we skip over the scriptures that expose the filthy philosophies that we have adopted from the world. But it's not just average Christians who do it. My wife and I have both seen respectable pastors do it as well. And they do it time and time again. They read long passages of scripture, going into great detail over the verses that they like, but they skip over the verses that condemn the traditions that Christians have been following all their lives. Either that, or they find some way to trivialize the importance of the scriptures which they ignore, and rationalize by saying something like, "We don't have to follow that because we have liberty in Christ," or "That was for the old days," or "That was just cultural," or "That was just for the Old Testament," or "That's old fashioned and Puritanical," or "Nobody expects us to do that anymore"... and on and on and on and on the excuses go, which are literally endless.

Please don't think that I'm trying to blame everything on pastors. I am not. We all do the same thing. However, the fact that pastors are also a part of this shows the seriousness of the problem, plus the fact that they are supposed to be exposing this filth, not promoting it. The thing is, when we committed our lives to Jesus Christ, we made a solemn commitment to surrender all—not just the things that we don't mind giving up. This endless game of skipping, ignoring, and twisting the scriptures that require Christians to return to the old-fashioned values, standards, and lifestyles that our Christian ancestors practiced years ago infuriates God.

Being born again means a whole lot more than simply praising Jesus. It means stripping away all the filthy traditions, customs, and philosophies from our lives that we have grown up with and imitated from those around us—whether it be the culture, friends, family, and yes—even our Bible-believing churches. It's time to start putting every word of the Bible into practice. That means reading all of it from beginning to end—over and over again, taking it at face value, and putting an end to the holy sounding excuses that we use to justify ignoring the parts that we don't like. And I would not advise you to go running off to your church for loop hole excuses either, because in the carnal state that our Bible-believing churches are in today, it is almost guaranteed that they will provide you with as many fine sounding excuses as you would like to hear, all wrapped up with a pretty little bow and an attractive tag attached that says "Liberty in Christ." And when you stand before Christ to give an account, you will stand alone.

Day 7

"WIVES, SUBMIT TO YOUR OWN HUSBANDS, AS TO THE LORD. FOR THE HUSBAND IS HEAD OF THE WIFE, AS ALSO CHRIST IS HEAD OF THE CHURCH..." (Ephesians 5:22-23) This is one of the most important marriage verses in the Bible. As a result of nearly 200 years of feminist indoctrination, it is also one of the most ignored scriptures in born again Christian marriages.

"We as believers...don't really care...from God's perspective, about what He desires from us...At the end of the day, we want what we want. We're comfortable with our...traditions that are man-made in every way."—Pastor Jim Staley

"Christian feminism" is the greatest hoax, and the most all-consuming sin in the body of Christ today. It is also the greatest destructive force in Christian marriages—which is why the divorce rate among Christians is as high as the divorce rate among unbelievers. It's time for every born again Christian woman to repent and strip away every trace of feminism from her life—including her marriage. Obey the scriptures—Submit to your husband.

Day 8

Every generation of born again Christians condemns the latest teachings and practices of feminism, while at the same time promoting and defending virtually all of the teachings, practices, and values of feminism that they condemned in previous generations. Talk about hypocrisy! Is it any wonder that it is almost impossible to still find a truly feminine girl or woman in our born again churches?

I'm so glad feminists won my right to dress like a guy.* I can't stand those ruffly blouses and skirts! They're so girly! Besides, I have feminine shoes. That PROVES I'm feminine. Hmm...I wonder if my brother will let me borrow his clothes tonight.

Let's see...when I graduate, should I be a general in the army or a CEO of a big company? I guess it doesn't matter, as long as I'm the boss. I'll have big muscles and fire whoever won't listen! Tee hee!

Get out of my head, Satan! Stop telling me that I'm acting like a guy! I have liberty in Christ!

May God have mercy on His daughters... and mercy on their pastors, husbands, and fathers who refuse to correct them! There will be great embarrassment when they stand before Christ!

* "A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man...for all who do so are an abomination to the LORD your God."—Deuteronomy 22:5

Day 9

Today's twisted version of "liberty in Christ," which is approved by most of our Bible-believing churches today, bears little or no resemblance to Paul's scriptural teaching. Instead, it is simply an excuse for every Bible-believing Christian to do what is right in their own eyes without any feelings of guilt.

Because of this spirit of compromise, our Bible-believing churches, just like the world, have abandoned virtually all of the old-fashioned, time-tested, absolute standards which our Christian ancestors held dear, leaving the body of Christ in a continual state of ever-increasing carnality and apostasy.

VISIBLE PROOF THAT WOMEN SEE ABSOLUTELY
NOTHING WRONG WITH DRESSING LIKE MEN

Don't tell me that's women's clothing, daughter of God. No matter what the label says, and no matter what your pastor says, anybody with honest eyes can see that feminism has duped females into dressing like guys. Don't continue to be deceived. It's time to return to dresses only, ladies.

A plain dress on a woman is infinitely better than the finest shirt or finest pants, because they are products of men's clothing, imported through the filth of feminism.

"A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man. . . for all who do so are an abomination to the Lord your God."—Deuteronomy 22:5

"The fact is, Christians are more to blame for not being revived, than sinners are for not being converted. And if they are not awakened, they may know assuredly that God will visit them with His judgments."

Day 13

You know something's wrong when you see two men holding hands. That's what homosexuality has done to the world.

You also know that something's wrong when you see two men holding hands, but after close inspection, you realize that one of them is actually a woman who is dressed like a man. That's what feminism has done to women (The image above is a perfect example. One of these is actually a woman.).

And lastly, you know something's wrong when you walk into any one of our born again churches and see entire congregations full of women who are dressed that way too—just like men. That's what so-called "Christian feminism" does to the daughters of God. How long will you harden your hearts, women of God? You can keep lying to yourself, claiming that you're wearing women's clothing, just because the label says so; but you can't deceive God. Is this how you honor the Lord Jesus Christ—by dressing like men, just like the Godless women of the world do? He is NOT pleased. You should know better. Repent now, and get back to DRESSES ONLY—or you will give a strict account for it when you stand before Christ.

Day 17

Do people cease to exist in hell?

"Also from among yourselves men will rise up, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after themselves." (Acts 20:30) "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers...." (2 Tim. 4:3)

We live in a time when Christians, just like unbelievers, listen to and consider every idea conceivable to the human mind. One of the latest teachings that has found its way into the body of Christ is the idea that people who aren't saved go to hell, only to be instantly burned up and then cease to exist. This teaching is simply not scriptural. Jesus described hell several times as a place of everlasting burning and torment. If hell is simply a place where God wipes out the unbeliever's existence, then what is to fear about hell? The terrors and suffering that exist in this life are far worse than that! Imagine someone who has their entire body burned in a building fire and then ends up suffering with the pain for the rest of their life. If hell were just a place where unbelievers cease to exist, then it's far worse to be burned in a building fire and survive than to go to hell. So why fear hell? There is absolutely no logic to this view of hell. Furthermore, there are many places in scripture that describe hell as a place of eternal punishment. Daniel 12:2 describes it as a place of "shame and everlasting contempt." Jesus described hell as a place of "everlasting punishment." (Matt.25:46) It can't be everlasting punishment if the unbeliever ceases to exist. He also described it as "everlasting fire." (Matt. 18:8). If unbelievers simply cease to exist in hell, then what was the point of Jesus mentioning that the fire is everlasting? It would be completely irrelevant! Revelation 14:11 describes hell as a place where "the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever; and they have no rest day or night..." In Luke 16:19-31 Jesus spoke of a rich man who died and went to hell. Christ went into great detail describing the rich man's torment in hell, begging for some relief. He didn't just cease to exist. He was suffering, and there was no escape! Hell is real, and it is eternal. Do not be deceived by fine-sounding words!

There's an old saying that rings true: "Fear is a great motivator." Jesus talked about hell more than anyone else. There's a reason for that. He did it so that people would be so terrified that they would repent. What greater fear is there than to suffer in hell for all of eternity? And what greater incentive is there for people to repent? Jesus used this fear to win souls, and you should too!

Day 18

Why My Family and I Stopped Watching TV

Let me be completely honest here. The real reason my family and I stopped watching TV is simply because we couldn't afford it anymore. Having said that, let me make this clear: Having been liberated from the "hellivision" for years now, I can honestly say that if a million dollars were to drop into my lap right now, making it possible to afford TV service again, I would say, "Forget it! I can live without it!"

TV is one of the major reasons for the carnal state of God's people today. The whole idea of paying to have yourself brainwashed and desensitized into imitating behavior that God hates makes no sense at all. Exposing yourself to TV commercials that make your stomach turn until you've become so accustomed to them that they don't bother you anymore is complete madness. Watching TV programs where the main character is applauded for his immorality is just plain stupid! Watching movies in which our God is blasphemed every 5 minutes is detrimental to the soul. And watching the news, where every 9 out of 10 words are lies, designed to distract you from what's really going on in the world, is just downright dangerous!

My suggestion: Get rid of your TV right now. If you simply can't live without some form of entertainment, then buy a few cheap sets of old-fashioned TV series on DVD from the internet (Be sure to throw away any DVD's that you have which are displeasing to the Lord). Today's a great day to say goodbye to your TV! You can save yourself a whole lot of spiritual grief.

Day 19

God's people are continually complaining about the homosexual agenda—or, as they call it, the "gay" agenda. Our born again Bible-believing churches are continually worried about what the "gays" will do next to promote persecution of Christians. Many of our church leaders continually condemn the "gay" lifestyle. None of these Christians stop to think for a moment that every time the word "gay" comes out of their mouth to condemn them, they are actually giving them what they want, are unwittingly strengthening their movement, and are grieving the Holy Spirit all at the same time. You heard me—every time the word "gay" comes out of their mouth.

Let me assure you that you will never ever hear me refer to a homosexual person as "gay." If you ever catch me calling a homosexual "gay," I invite each and every man among you to rebuke me in Jesus' name. Without exception, I always call them "homosexual," which basically means "same sex." This is the lifestyle that they have chosen. However, they want you to call them "gay." This is what is pleasing to their ears, the word that they chose for themselves decades ago. For those of you who haven't been around very long, the word "gay" actually means "happy;" and this is how they want to be perceived. By calling themselves "gay," they expect everyone to believe that being homosexual is the key to happiness. And I can guarantee you that God in heaven sharply disagrees.

Now then, as I was saying, every time you refer to homosexuals as "gay," you are giving them exactly what they want; and by doing so, you are strengthening their movement. And I dare say that you are making God extremely angry in the process. Maybe you were unaware of this before, but now you know; and God will hold you accountable from this point on. So the next time you are talking about homosexuals and you are tempted to call them "gay," bite your tongue before the word escapes your lips—because Jesus is no liar; and He assured us: "Every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment." (Matthew 12:36) That applies to unbelievers and believers alike.

Day 20

HOW GODLY BIBLE-BELIEVING CHURCHES OF THE PAST ENVISIONED WOMEN OF GOD:

ENVISIONED AS FEMININE, BASED ON GOD'S NATURAL DESIGN. "LOVELY AND DELICATE"—JEREMIAH 6:2

HOW CARNAL BIBLE-BELIEVING CHURCHES OF TODAY ENVISION WOMEN OF GOD:

ENVISIONED AS WARRIORS, BECAUSE OF FEMINIST VALUES WHICH HAVE CONTAMINATED AND CONSUMED THE BODY OF CHRIST

Day 21

GODLY CHRISTIAN
FEMALES OF THE PAST

FEMINIST CHRISTIAN
FEMALES OF THE PRESENT

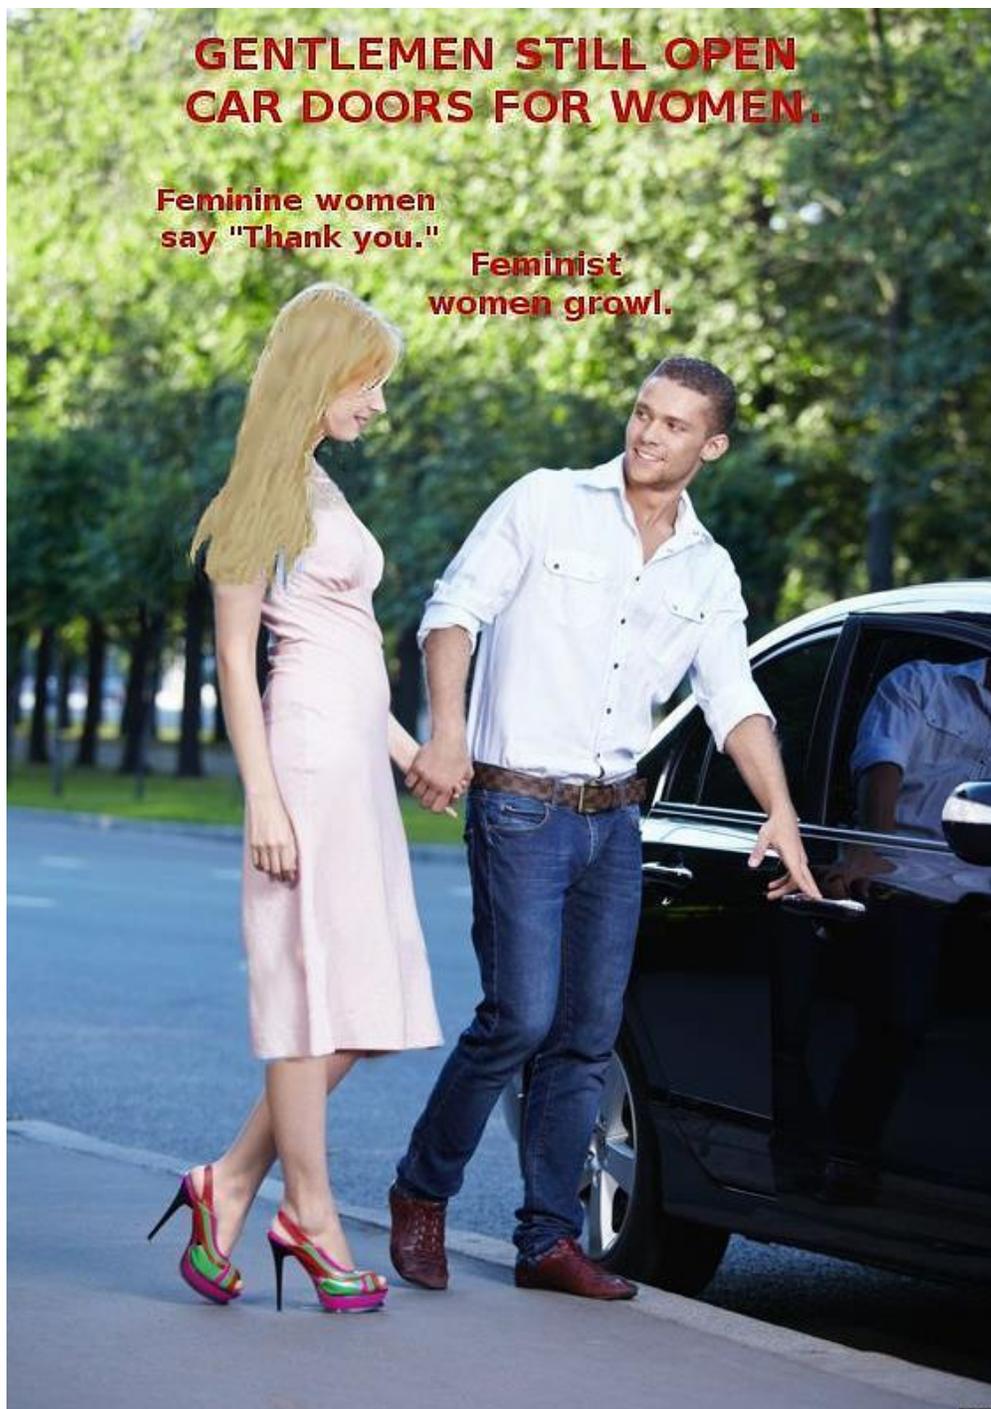

Feminism is the blight of humanity, a nearly 200 year-old pack of lies, cunningly designed to scam females into trading away their feminine qualities for masculine qualities—one piece at a time. Feminism is, and always has been the enemy of femininity—since the very beginning of the movement. "Christian feminism" is simply a euphemism—a church-approved excuse for Christian girls and women to practice feminism. When Christ returns, will He still find femininity in the church? Apparently, very little—sad to say.

Virtually every trace of femininity in the body of Christ has been replaced by feminism. Strip away every detail of feminism from your life, daughter of God—before it's too late, and you lose your heavenly rewards. Those feminist clothes, feminist mentality, feminist lifestyle, and endless feminist excuses will NOT be tolerated in heaven.

Day 22

Day 23

Day 24

HOMOSEXUAL MALES
LIKE TO DRESS AND BEHAVE LIKE GIRLS.
FEMINIST WOMEN AND GIRLS LIKE TO DRESS
AND BEHAVE LIKE
GUYS. HOMOSEXUALITY AND FEMINISM ARE TWO SIDES OF THE
SAME COIN. THEY ARE VIRTUALLY IDENTICAL.
WHEN WILL GOD'S PEOPLE WAKE UP TO THIS FACT???

There is no such thing as "Christian feminism." It is an invention of the apostate church. Woman of God, when you stand before Jesus Christ, and He asks you why you abandoned your God-given femininity in exchange for feminist clothing and a feminist lifestyle, what will your excuse be? It's time for you to return to the old fashioned feminine standards that were followed by Christian women of the past. If not, be prepared to watch your works burn up into a pile of ashes as you enter heaven's gates. And that will NOT be pleasant. WAKE UP! "If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire."—1 Corinthians 3:15

Day 25

NOBODY WANTS TO LIVE LIKE A COMMONER, WITH JUST THE BARE ESSENTIALS.

WE WOULD ALL LIKE TO LIVE LIKE THIS:

So when I hear born again Christians say "I don't care what I receive when I get to heaven, as long as I get there," I just shake my head. Do you really believe that when you get to heaven, your desire for the best will just disappear? Imagine the deep regret that Christians who live only for themselves (rather than submitting to God) will feel when they stand before Christ and all their works are burned up, resulting in a loss of eternal rewards as they enter heaven's gates. "If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire."—1 Cor. 3:15

Stop listening to your lukewarm pastors who use liberty in Christ as an excuse for their members to imitate the world's values and lifestyles. Such pastors will give a TERRIFYING account before God, AS WILL EACH OF US, if we continue to follow their worldly advice. Unless each person in our born again churches gets back to the OLD FASHIONED Christian standards and lifestyles of the past, instead of continuing to ignore the scriptures that we don't like, this is going to be the fate that awaits each of us—a terrifying account before God, followed by a great loss of rewards in heaven. I advise you to read the New Testament completely, but this time obey all the verses that your pastors said that you can ignore. Do this and you WILL receive rewards for heaven when you stand before Christ. God be with you.

Day 26

"CHRISTIAN" FEMINISM? THERE ISN'T ANY SUCH THING. DON'T BE DECEIVED. THERE IS NO FEMINISM IN HEAVEN.

YOU CAN SERVE THE GOD OF THE BIBLE OR THE GODDESS OF FEMINISM. YOU CAN'T SERVE BOTH. YOU ARE EITHER A CHRISTIAN OR A FEMINIST. "HOW LONG HALT YE BETWEEN TWO OPINIONS?" (1 KINGS 18:21) IT'S TIME FOR YOU TO CHOOSE—JESUS OR FEMINISM.

Day 27

"CHRISTIAN FEMINISM" IS ONE OF THE MOST ABSURD CONTRADICTIONS IN TERMS EVER CREATED.

For over 170 years, those who run the feminist movement have rejected the Bible, despised our Lord Jesus Christ, targeted marriage for destruction, and duped girls and women everywhere into dressing and behaving like guys—all in the name of "equality." The practice of Christianizing feminism, incorporating virtually every feminist ideal into the body of Christ, then excusing it by twisting scripture, as our churches have done, is outrageous. Feminism is without a doubt the most all-consuming, universal sin in the body of Christ today, and keeps the church in a constant state of carnality.

Day 28

"...[I]f My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land."

—2 Chronicles 7:14

2 Chronicles 7:14 (above) is one of the most misquoted Bible passages of modern times. Pastors, Bible college professors, and famous televangelists everywhere quote this verse often to motivate born again Christians to cry out for national revival, so that unbelievers will turn to Jesus Christ and be saved. Then as a result, they will hopefully stop making fun of us so that we won't feel silly, and hopefully they won't remove the tax-exempt status of our churches. Forgive my annoyed tone, I beg you; but isn't this pretty much what it's all about—so that God's people can continue to have lives that are as comfortable as possible? Let's be honest with ourselves. Doesn't that pretty much cover it—at least in a general sense?

Although the scripture passage is directed towards Israel, the principles can still be applied to born again believers today, since we are God's people. Okay, let's back up, and look at that verse again: "If my people (In New Testament terms that's us, "born again believers," whether Jew or Gentile) who are called by My name (In New Testament terms that would be Jesus Christ) will humble themselves (Okay, we're sometimes making an effort on that one), and pray (We pretty much do that whenever we want something from God) and seek My face (Whenever we need something)...

... and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land."

"AND TURN FROM THEIR WICKED WAYS"? Wait a minute! That's talking about the world, isn't it??? Nope! And that is the problem. We always zip on through this verse as though it's speaking to God's people (and it is), but as soon as we get to the words "and turn from their wicked ways," all of a sudden we think that God is talking about the unbelievers in our nation; but He isn't. Yet this is exactly how the preachers of today always present it! But God is talking about His people—those who belong to Him. In New Testament terms that means born again, Bible believing, Holy Spirit indwelt, saved, bound for heaven Christians! National revival and the healing of our land is dependent upon God's people repenting! After that happens, then the world will start to listen to our message and repent—not before!

Wow! That's certainly not a message you hear in church these days, is it? Nope. Most preachers today focus their sermons on the sins of the world, while the majority of born again churches everywhere have adopted the world's ways, down to almost the exact details—with very little exceptions—you know, the few sins that we continually beat the world over the head with. As long as we can find two or three sins that the world practices that we don't, we can still feel holy. Forget the other 98% of the sins that we have imitated from the world and literally Christianized, with the full approval and support of our churches. After all, we reason, those were sins long ago, but not now. We don't consider those to be sins anymore—not since we've been "enlightened" to the true potential of "liberty in Christ" ("After all, liberty in Christ is in the Bible, right?"). Now we can ignore our sins and consider ourselves holy in God's eyes at the same time! This is the carnal mentality of our churches today. It starts with the church leadership, trickles all the way down to the lowliest of the low, and consumes the entire body of Christ, as we all sing praises to our great God and King, so that we can drown out the sound of our ear-piercing consciences and pretend that we are pure in the eyes of God, simply because we belong to Christ.

Jesus said in Matthew 5:13: "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men." There was a time when we were the salt of the earth. The culture was shaped by biblical values. Now things are quite different. We are no longer the salt of the earth. The world is now the salt of God's people. Now we are shaped by their values—not by force, but willingly, because we have allowed the culture to brainwash us into their way of thinking. Most of what even the world correctly recognized as sin in times past isn't even recognized as sin by God's people anymore. How is that for tragic irony? We've allowed the world to thoroughly contaminate us, and we haven't even noticed!

Do we really want revival? Then we need to start focusing on cleaning up the church, not cleaning up the world. Our churches and our lives are completely saturated with the filth that we have copied from the world, and yet we expect the world to act like saints! Give me a break! Talk about hypocrisy! If we really believe that we are going to achieve revival by lecturing the world about their sins while our churches continue to praise Jesus and promote the world's values at the same time, then we are going to be waiting for revival for all eternity, because it's NEVER going to happen!

Every single trace of the garbage and filth that we as the body of Christ have allowed to creep into our lives for more than 170 years (since the beginning of the feminist movement) needs to be completely renounced and stripped bare, starting with all the man-inspired clothing, short hair, and lifestyles that our girls and women have adopted from Bible-hating feminists; all the Christianized pagan holidays which we celebrate in Jesus' name; and all the effeminate fashions (earrings, pink clothing, long hair, etc.) that the men in our churches have adopted from effeminate men in the very culture that we continually condemn. And those are just the beginning. We've been continually importing filth from the world over the years, and then using liberty in Christ as an excuse to justify and even Christianize it. Enough is enough! God is thoroughly disgusted with the behavior of His children; but we just keep pretending that He doesn't care.

We have been looking for the apostasy—the great falling away—in the wrong place. The world, which is already wicked, cannot fall away from a spirituality that they never had. The apostasy is in our Bible believing churches, and thoroughly contaminates the body of Christ. If you really want revival, I beg you in Jesus' name to get on your knees and implore God to reveal and strip away from you the filth that you have been brought up with all of your life—through the traditions and philosophies passed on through the culture, your well-meaning parents, your friends, and even your Bible believing church. Don't put it off until tomorrow. "While it is said: 'Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.' " (Hebrews 3:15)

Day 29

MEN DON'T GET PREGNANT; WOMEN DO.

SO WHY DO PEOPLE CONTINUALLY
SPEAK AS IF MEN DO TOO???

In times past, when a woman got pregnant, her husband would say, "My wife is pregnant." When she gave birth, he would say, "My wife gave birth," or "My wife had a baby." These expressions are normal, natural, and biblical. Men do not get pregnant. We all know that. But the LGBT crowd (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgendered) wants us to believe that it is possible; and they are doing everything within their power to violate nature through perverted science, in order to make it a reality. In the meantime, they have successfully invaded the English language with vile expressions to prepare us all for that evil day. As a result, husbands and wives everywhere are now using vile LGBT expressions like “We are pregnant,” “We had a baby,” and “We gave birth,” all expressions which include the man. The couple feels proud, because they have been duped into believing that using such expressions allows the man to compassionately identify with his wife. However, the imagery here is deliberately designed to suggest that it is no longer just the woman who can get pregnant and give birth, but the man as well.

This is LGBT indoctrination. It is filthy, vile, unnatural, and abominable; and it is a stench in the nostrils of God! So why do I continually hear these impure expressions from the mouth of God’s people just as casually as from those who belong to the world? When I go to my born again, Bible-believing church, I hear the same filthy expressions. I hear it from church members. I hear it from the pulpit. And one of our pastors even prayed that a married couple would “get pregnant.” Polluted expressions and concepts like these, which are imitated from the world, are continually on the lips of Bible-believing Christians everywhere. And God is recording it all. Never forget that!

It never ceases to disturb me how easily our churches adopt the filthy language of the world. The world is continually creating language to promote their twisted agenda; and God’s people are more than happy to imitate their words. We praise Jesus out of one side of our mouth, and speak the world’s filth out of the other side of our mouth. When will we ever learn that righteousness and worldliness do not mix? Every time Christians seek to keep up with the world’s latest expressions and concepts, we defile ourselves and grieve the Spirit of God—whether we are aware of it or not.

Men do not get pregnant. Couples do not get pregnant. Women get pregnant. Men do not have babies. Couples do not have babies. Women have babies. Men do not give birth. Couples do not give birth. Women give birth. Keep your mouth pure—for Jesus’ sake, and for your own, because He promised: “Every idle word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment.” (Matthew 12:36)

Day 30

HOW WE DEFILE GOD'S CREATION WITH DEVIANT FASHION IN THE NAME OF TOLERANCE AND COUNTERFEIT LIBERTY IN CHRIST

FACEKINI

UNNATURAL HAIR COLORS

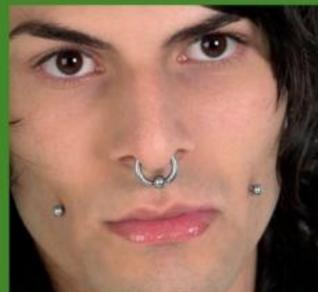

DREADLOCKS

GOTH FASHIONS

TATTOOS

FACE AND BODY PIERCING

One of the biggest lies that God's people adopted from the world a long time ago is the mistaken idea that God does not care how we dress. "God is only interested in the heart, not the outward appearance," they say. The world continually uses this excuse to defile their appearance in any way that they desire, under the guise of expressing their individuality, when in truth it expresses the darkness of their heart, and their rebellion against God's natural design. They couldn't care less that God created them to be a certain way. They do not consider it a big deal to tamper with God's creation, turning themselves into something that God never intended. They delight in distorting their appearance, and God forbid that anyone should "judge" them! "Tolerance" is the key word today. "Leave me alone, or else..."

Once again, God's people have adopted the same attitude from the world. Our born again Bible churches are filled with men and women who insist that God permits us to dress however we want, because "He is only interested in the heart." One of their favorite Bible verses to support this philosophy (with the full approval of our born again Bible churches, I might add) is 1 Samuel 16:7: "But the Lord said to Samuel, 'Do not look at his appearance or at his physical stature, because I have refused him. For the Lord does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart.'" The problem with using this scripture to "prove" that God doesn't care how we dress is that God was clearly referring to David's brother Eliab's handsome features, not his clothing. We cannot change whether we are good looking or not. That is why God doesn't care about that. But when it comes to the way that we choose to dress, that is quite a different story, because the way that we choose to dress is an outward expression of our heart condition; and God sees both (By the way, there are a number of scriptures where God addresses the issue of clothing, but His people choose to ignore them under the guise of liberty in Christ).

Sadly, God's people think nothing of imitating the world's dark and twisted fashions, ignoring their consciences, and distorting God's natural design (the way that God created them to be). And it's all approved and excused by our born again Bible churches under the guise of liberty in Christ.

Below is a tiny list of just some of the ways that the world and God's people delight in distorting their appearance in the name of tolerance and liberty in Christ:

.Facekini (See image above) — one of the latest fashions, described by the Daily News as "China's most terrifying swimwear trend." That says it all.

.Unnatural hair colors — Rather than being thankful to God for the natural hair color that He has given them, people continually express their dissatisfaction with God's choice by changing their hair color to a color that pleases themselves rather than submitting themselves to God's natural design—His choice. This has been going on for ages. Today this practice has become so extreme, that even hair colors not found naturally in humans (See image above) are being paraded about to shock and provoke.

.Dreadlocks (See image above) — The word itself, "dread"-locks should be more than enough to convince you that you should have nothing to do with them. Dreadlocks are widespread in Satanism, paganism, and voodoo.

.Goth fashions (See image above) — Goth fashions are designed to convey morbid thoughts such as death and disease, by emphasizing the color black, including black makeup and black fingernail polish. Goth fashions are very popular with Satanists.

.Tattoos (See image above) — Tattoos permanently alter the natural appearance of the body, God's creation. Strictly forbidden in Leviticus 19:28. Origin: demon worship

.Face and body piercing (See image above) — Face and body piercings mar the appearance of the face and body. Face and body piercings originate from pagan cultures, and are part of their worship of idols. Pagans who convert to Christ abandon this practice, because they know it is demonic.

.Mohawks — Created to honor pagan Gods. Mohawk hairstyles violate Leviticus 21:5: "They shall not make any bald place on their heads..."

.Mullets — Mullets are androgynous (promoting gender confusion), blending short hair (which God designed for males—1 Cor. 11:14-15) and long hair (which God designed for females—1 Cor. 11:14-15).

Obviously this list does not cover everything that we can do to defile our appearance. The list is endless. The world no longer has rules or restrictions. Anything goes, as far as they are concerned; and God's people have adopted the same attitude. And God hates it! Anything that is unnatural, or was/is designed to be shocking, scary, or glorify darkness is an insult to God's natural design and is a slap in His face. The world delights in this behavior. They don't care if they are offending God. They think it's "cool." My question is, why do God's people insist on imitating this foul behavior so that they can fit in with the rest of the world, and then excuse themselves in the name of personal freedom, while the leaders of our born again Bible churches defend them in the name of liberty in Christ? This behavior should be confronted, not defended. It's time for God's people to repent!

Day 31

SHIRTS AND PANTS WERE CREATED FOR MALES, WHILE DRESSES WERE CREATED FOR FEMALES. THIS WAS DONE TO MAKE A CLEAR DISTINCTION BETWEEN MALE AND FEMALE, HONORING GOD'S COMMANDMENT (DEUTERONOMY 22:5) AND COMMON SENSE.

MEN'S CLOTHING: SHIRT AND PANTS

WOMEN'S CLOTHING: A DRESS (OR A SKIRT PLUS A BLOUSE OF RUFFLES OR LACE)

BECAUSE OF THE ACCEPTANCE OF HOMOSEXUALITY IN THE CULTURE, MEN ARE NOW BEGINNING TO DRESS LIKE WOMEN, VIOLATING GOD'S COMMANDMENT. SADLY, GIRLS AND WOMEN HAVE BEEN VIOLATING THIS COMMANDMENT FOR 170+ YEARS, SINCE THE FEMINISTS STARTED TELLING FEMALES EVERYWHERE THAT THEY NEED TO DRESS LIKE BOYS AND MEN. YOU MIGHT HAVE FORGOTTEN, BUT GOD HAS NOT. IT'S TIME FOR GOD'S DAUGHTERS TO REPENT— OR GIVE ACCOUNT WHEN THEY STAND BEFORE GOD.

A MAN IN A DRESS— WOMEN'S CLOTHING. THIS IS BEING PUSHED BY THE "TRANSGENDER MOVEMENT."

A WOMAN IN A SHIRT, PANTS, AND A SUIT JACKET/BLAZER —ALL MEN'S CLOTHING. 170+ YEARS OF DISOBEDIENCE AGAINST GOD, AS A RESULT OF FEMINIST CONDITIONING.

"A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all who do so are an abomination to the Lord your God."

—Deuteronomy 22:5

Day 32

Dresses were created for females many centuries ago to make a clear distinction between male and female.

Feminist clothes (shirts, pants, suit jackets, etc.) were created to replace dresses on females in order to imitate male clothing and make females like males—all in the name of "equality."

The entire feminist movement, created over 170 years ago, was built with feminist clothing as its foundation—clothing designed to strip away their femininity. If girls and women everywhere would throw away ALL their feminist clothing, and return to DRESSES ONLY, loud-mouthed feminist activists would lose their power, and their entire movement would eventually crumble, because feminist clothing is a 24-hour-a-day continual reminder of their power, and symbolizes their total rejection of femininity. Whether they realize it or not, every born again Christian girl and woman who wears feminist clothing is helping to strengthen the feminist, unisex, and "transgender" movements, as well as the New World Order, and is weakening her testimony for our Lord Jesus Christ. Please stop.

"It is ironic that many women refuse to openly associate themselves with the radical feminist movement of our day, yet lend their support through the manner in which they dress."—Rev. Tim Hudson

Day 33

STILL WAITING FOR REVIVAL?

GODDESS OF

COUNTERFEIT LIBERTY IN CHRIST

There are two great evils which consume the body of Christ on a worldwide scale, keeping our born again churches in a state of perpetual carnality:

1) CHRISTIAN FEMINISM, a euphemism which was created by the apostate church in order to dupe Christian women into dressing like men and living a feminist lifestyle—all in the name of Jesus.

2) COUNTERFEIT liberty in Christ, which excuses every sin under the sun, allowing Christians to do whatever is right in their own eyes—even when it violates common sense, nature, and the commandments of New Testament scripture.

Once God's people completely purify their lives from these two things, there will finally be hope for true revival. But unless these two things are removed completely, don't hold your breath; because revival will NEVER come! Wake up, church! Wake up, child of God! It's time to repent!

Day 34

Day 35

Sometimes the best way to avoid an argument . . .

is to not respond and just walk away.

Day 36

"The reason born again Christians don't want to give up Christian feminism is because feminism is their religion."

—Mike Thomas

"Jesus First" is the claim of our born again churches. However, since the founding of feminism over 170 years ago, our doctrines, moral values, and lifestyles have been continually modified to accommodate the gender rebellion of feminism. That makes the pagan goddess of feminism first—NOT Jesus! Unless God's people repent individually, and return to ALL of our PRE-feminist Christian standards, the Lord will demand a strict account. That's frightening.

Day 37

WHETHER IT'S INTERNET PORN, A PLAYBOY
MAGAZINE, OR EVEN CLASSIC
NUDE PAINTINGS AND STATUES,
IT'S ALL
PORNOGRAPHY;
AND CHRISTIANS
SHOULD AVOID IT
LIKE THE PLAGUE.

Some years ago, my family and I visited the National Gallery of Art in Washington D.C. The place was huge; and as we walked along the first floor, my family and I were deeply disturbed. Every single "work of art" was an image of somebody naked. I asked one of the attendants why all the paintings and statues were of nude people. He smiled at me and said, "I guess that's what people do when they get bored." My family and I walked by quickly and went up to the second floor, where there were truly amazing works of art (and no nudity); and I thanked God.

When we think of pornography, we usually think of internet porn, Playboy magazines, and the like. But it is not limited to that. In typical fashion, Christians of today have bought into another one of the world's lies; in this case, the lie that classical nude art is not pornography because it was supposedly created "for the glory of God." These are merely deceptive words. Muslim terrorists slaughter people "for the glory of God," and religions all over the world routinely commit all kinds of abominations in the name of their pagan gods. So as Christians, are we somehow expected to believe that nude art is "glorifying to God" just because some "religious" people told us so, and because it's overwhelmingly accepted by the general public, who are continually duped into imitating the world's ungodly values???

If King David were alive today, I wonder how he would feel about Michelangelo's statue "David," depicting him in the nude? Do you think he would look at it in awe and say, "Yep! That's me, alright! Praise God! I dedicate this naked statue of me for the glory of God"? Do you think he would feel honored? I can confidently say that he would be outraged.

Or how about nude paintings of some so-called "Jesus" who has nothing to do with the Jesus of the Bible? These were supposedly done "for the glory of God," to "prove" that Jesus was not only divine when He walked on this earth, but He was also human. Isn't it enough that the Bible says that He got tired, hungry, and thirsty like the rest of us? Why do we need a naked painting of "Jesus," created from the imaginations of somebody's fleshly mind, in order to "prove" His humanity?

A few months after I got saved, I went to an evangelistic crusade. I was so moved and inspired by the message, that I made a pledge to give $240 to help support their ministry. In exchange, they mailed me a giant print Bible which included a number of classic paintings in its pages. One of the paintings was a depiction of King Solomon getting ready to cut a prostitute's baby in half with a sword (from 1 Kings 3: 24-28) to settle a dispute between her and another prostitute. I was completely shocked to see the prostitute off to the side with her breasts fully exposed. Immediately my conscience blared, and I thought to myself, "This Christian organization is putting this kind of art in the Bible???"

When I went to Bible college about four years after that, I was shocked one day when our art teacher showed a presentation of "classic artwork," which included nudes. I was sweating and blushing the whole time. I was thinking to myself, "What kind of a Bible college is this???"

A few years ago I signed up for email alerts from a very prominent, well-respected man of God. His articles routinely expose the anti-Christian sentiments of today's culture. Around the third article that I received, there was an image displayed of a painting of two or three naked "demigods." I immediately went to the main page, and clicked "unsubscribe."

It never ceases to shock me how naïve and gullible God's people can be in today's culture. Any and every excuse that the world uses for their sin is just as easily adopted by God's people in our churches' current carnal state. We believe every excuse that the world creates. Every sin today is examined and analyzed from every angle possible until it can be rationalized and justified with fine sounding words. And God's people continually buy into the same nonsense. Didn't Jesus say, "Take heed what you hear"? Wise advice, of course. Don't believe everything you hear—especially when it comes from the world. Nude art is not for the glory of God. No matter what the world says, and no matter how the world's dictionaries define it, nude art is as much pornography as a Playboy magazine and internet porn; and Christians should avoid it like the plague!

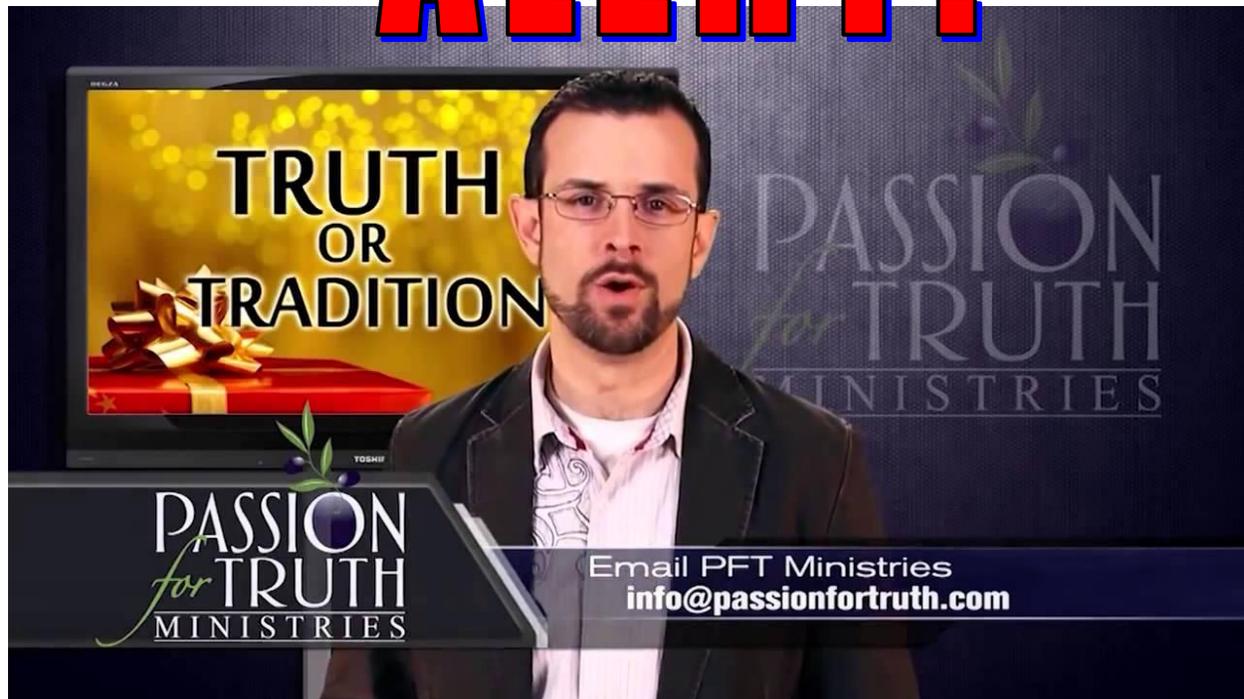

Think about this logically. Who goes to the art museum and looks at a nude "work of art" and says to themselves, "Wow! The glory of God really shines through in this work of art"? Nobody says that, or is even thinking it, unless they are simply trying to silence their blaring conscience. The normal reaction of a person, who hasn't conditioned their conscience to accept such "works of art" as morally praiseworthy, is embarrassment and discomfort—especially when in public.

By the way, if you still think that nude art is "for the glory of God," here's something else for you to consider. There is no way that you can be unaffected by looking at nude art. Whether you're a man looking at a painting of a nude woman, or a woman looking at a painting of a nude man, once you look at it, your mind will record it, and it will stay in your brain for the rest of your life. You might not lust right away, but it will always be there; and Satan can bring it to your mind anytime that he wants, and whenever he thinks that you're the weakest—today, tomorrow, or even ten years from now. And when that happens, you will be tempted; and there's a very real chance that you will give in to lustful thoughts created by that nude "work of art" that you saw long ago. And that's not "for the glory of God"!

There is only one justifiable place for Christians to view nudity—and that's inside a locked bedroom between husband and wife. That's God's design; and that is for the glory of God!

Day 42

The founders of the first North American colony in 1607 outlawed Christmas (originally "Christ-Mass," a Catholic observation) and Easter (named after a pagan goddess) as witchcraft. The Pilgrims, who arrived in 1620, also condemned them as witchcraft, and refused to have anything to do with them. Both of these holidays (under different names), along with a host of others, were created by pagans (for Baal worship) and satanists long before the birth of Christ. Catholicism, which is merely a Roman form of Baal worship, and disguises itself as Christian by using the Bible and Christian names, popularized these pagan celebrations "in the name of Jesus" when they flooded America's population in the mid 1800's.

Since then, born again churches in America have been celebrating these holidays, in direct violation of scripture, which commands us not to honor the God of the Bible with celebrations which were created for pagan gods: "[D]o not inquire after their gods, saying, 'How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise.' You shall not worship the Lord your God in that way...." (Deuteronomy 12:30-31) It's time to repent, Christian. Start obeying God, not your pastor (Acts 5:29). It's time to do some serious research about Christmas, Easter, and other pagan holidays that we celebrate in Jesus' name. Please begin with "Christ-Mass and Other Catholic Holidays Created through Baal Worship." You can find it at:

Day 43

Days 44-45

Should Christians celebrate Christmas?

Should Christians celebrate Christmas? That might seem like a strange and silly question. Christmas is a treasured family and church tradition that goes back for generations; and the reason that Christmas is celebrated is to honor our Lord Jesus Christ. As I was growing up, my family and all of our relatives celebrated Christmas. Since we were not saved at the time, we did the whole Santa Claus version, with the reindeer, hanging up stockings, and all of that. After we surrendered our lives to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, we got rid of all that. We still did the gift exchange thing, put up Christmas trees, and followed the rest of the Christmas traditions, but we determined that all the Santa Claus lies would be strictly condemned, and we wanted nothing to do with that anymore. So we didn't.

Years after I got married, I decided that simply doing what everyone else did to honor Jesus Christ on Christmas was not enough. So I decided that my wife, son, and I, along with anyone else that we celebrated Christmas with were going to buy a cake, put candles on it, and sing happy birthday to Jesus every year. I'll never forget on one occasion when we visited my parents during Christmas. My mother ended up indifferently squashing "Jesus' birthday cake" while it was still in the package. I didn't show it outwardly, but inwardly I was infuriated that my mother would be so careless with something that I had dedicated to the Lord.

Every Christmas we would sing happy birthday to Jesus, my son would blow out the birthday candles, I would pray, then we would eat the cake. Deep down, every year that we did this, I felt like a complete idiot; and every year something inside me was saying, "Why are you doing this? The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal, infinite God. He has no beginning. Why are you treating Him like a finite, mortal human?" I ignored that "inner voice" every year because I convinced myself that I was doing something extra special for Jesus every Christmas. But a few years ago I started wondering about something that I had never thought about my entire life: Why do they call it "Christmas"? What a strange word. Then I realized that it very suspiciously sounded like "Christ Mass"—very Catholic sounding. And that was what woke me up. I just did a few minutes of research and discovered that it was true. The whole idea of Christmas (originally "Christ-Mass") comes from Catholicism, not Christianity. And that's when I knew something was wrong. Shortly after that, I spent three full months doing research on the internet and in the scriptures to determine whether my family and I should continue to celebrate Christmas. I also researched other holidays that Christians celebrate, and was alarmed to find out that they too came from Catholicism, not Christianity—all except for Thanksgiving, which was instituted by the Pilgrims to honor the God of the Bible. But the other holidays all came from Catholicism, and go back even further—long before the birth of Christ.

Most of those who belong to our Lord Jesus Christ would consider it scary (even terrifying) to even entertain the idea of giving up Christmas (despite the fact that there is no place in scripture that tells us to celebrate it). After all, the entire celebration of Christmas is done to honor our Lord Jesus Christ, right? So as long as Santa Claus is left out, isn't God pleased, since He knows what Christmas means to us? That is our reasoning. However, as Pastor Jim Staley continually points out, the real question is not what Christmas means to us, but what Christmas means to God. Does Christmas truly honor our Lord Jesus Christ, or does it dishonor Him? In order to determine that, we need to answer that age-old question, "What is Christmas really all about?" Is there something that we don't know? Yes—quite a bit. So I've detailed some of those things that I learned below (which are actually "just the tip of the iceberg," or "just scratch the surface."). Afterwards, I will provide you with some very important links where you can confirm some of my information. I spent three months prayerfully researching Christmas and other holidays which Christians celebrate. There are many websites which can confirm what I am saying. I beg you to do your own research on the internet as well.

Here's what you probably don't know, but should know:

- Christmas is a Catholic holiday on which a special mass is performed. The word Christmas comes from two words, "Christ," and "Mass." Mass is not the same thing as the Lord's Supper. Mass is a Catholic ritual that was adopted from Baal worship. In Catholic doctrine it is also known as "the unbloody sacrifice of Christ," in which Christ dies over and over again during this ritual, as the round wafer, known as "the host" or "eucharist," is "adored"/worshipped and consumed by the recipients. This essentially denies the finished work of Christ on the cross on which He died once forever for our sins (See Hebrews 9:24-28). The wafer has three raised letters on its face: IHS, in honor of the pagan Egyptian goddess and gods Isis, Horus, and Seb.

- Baal worship began with Nimrod at the tower of Babel. Virtually every major religion (not including true Bible Christianity, of course) of the world is some form of Baal worship, which God continually condemned Israel over in the Old Testament. Catholicism is simply a Roman version of Baal worship which masquerades as Christian by using Bible names and Bible terms. Even "the Queen of Heaven," taken from Baal worship and condemned in the Old Testament, is a title given to the Catholic version of Mary. The Catholic baby Jesus is simply a Catholic version of the sun god Baal "reincarnated" as a baby.
- Christmas is simply the Catholic version of a pagan celebration that began many hundreds of years before the birth of Christ. It comes straight from Baal worship. December 25 is the date that was chosen by the pagans because they considered that day to be the rebirth of the sun god Baal. Christmas is known by many different names in different countries. The pagans celebrate it as Saturnalia, and the Satanists celebrate it as Yule. Those who insist that they can honor Christ by celebrating Christmas (despite its demonic, pagan roots) because "God knows what's in their heart" are violating God's clear command: "[T]ake heed to yourself... that you do not inquire after their gods, saying, 'How did these nations serve their gods? I also will do likewise.' You shall not worship the Lord your God in that way...." (Deuteronomy 12:30-31) This is very clear. The Lord does not permit us to worship Him in the same way that the pagans worship their gods. But our born again churches do it anyway. It's ironic that our born again churches denounce Catholicism because of its pagan roots, but they refuse to give up the pagan holidays which come from the same exact institution. Instead, they have Christianized these holidays and fight with every ounce of their breath to defend them "for the Glory of God."
- Have you ever noticed that virtually all of the Christmas songs that are sung to "honor Christ" are designed to worship Him as a baby (who no longer exists except in Catholic idolatry)? There is even mention of His mother Mary in some of them (Example: "Round yon virgin mother and child—from Silent Night). There's a reason for that. One of the characteristics of Baal worship (from which Catholicism originates, along with Christmas) is the practice of worshipping "the Queen of Heaven" and her baby son. In the case of Catholicism, that is Mary (also known as the "Queen of Heaven") and the baby Jesus. Just like the Catholics, this is what our born again churches do every single Christmas. They sing songs which focus on the worship of "baby Jesus" (who no longer exists, except in Catholic idolatry), instead of the worship of Jesus Christ the King of kings and Lord of lords.
- The Pilgrims, who instituted Thanksgiving as a Christian holiday, rejected Christmas as a Christian holiday because they knew that it is steeped in paganism and Satanism. They recognized it as witchcraft, as did also the early American colonies, who outlawed Christmas, because they too, recognized the pagan/Satanic nature of the holiday, despite attempts to disguise it as Christian. It wasn't until sometime in the mid to late 1800's that America as a whole started to celebrate Christmas, due to an enormous flood of Catholic immigrants into the country, who enticed them into celebrating along with them.

- Everything about Christmas is filled with stress. Haven't you ever wondered why that is? Maybe God is trying to tell you something. The arguing relatives, the expected gift-giving by everyone you know. The insane spending and debt. The hurt feelings and anger of those who don't get gifts from those they expected to receive something from. The gluttony and weight gain. The insane schedule and bad moods. In the meantime, half of the Satanists are mocking us for celebrating their holiday in the name of Jesus, while the other half of them are complaining that we stole their holiday. Again, maybe the Lord is trying to tell you something, like maybe, "Why are you celebrating this insane pagan holiday in My name?"
- Even without the Santa Claus lies, all the other glittery, sparkly things which Satan, the father of lies, uses to continually deceive people are displayed in churches throughout the world. It all makes Christmas feel so "magical" (a word commonly used in witchcraft, but never in reference to God's work)—the wreaths, the Satanic Yule logs, the decorations... It's all symbolic of Satanism, witchcraft, paganism, and unbridled sex (a common theme in paganism, which is why they have temple prostitutes, which is confirmed in scripture.).

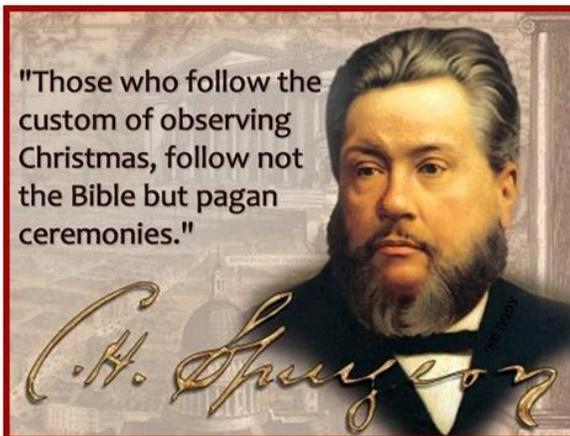

The Christmas tree alone is just a small sampling of the filth that God sees in Christmas. The so-called five-pointed "star" at the top of the tree is actually a pentagram, widely used in satanic rituals. The lights on the tree represent the stars in the sky that the pagans worship. And excuse me for being blunt, but I feel that it is the only way that I can wake you up: The tree itself set up on a stand is a phallic symbol (symbolic of the male sex organ), while the balls that hang on the tree represent the testicles of Baal.

The scriptures themselves directly condemn the "Christmas tree": "Thus says the Lord: 'Do not learn the way of the Gentiles...For the customs of the peoples are futile; for one cuts a tree from the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the ax. They decorate it with silver and gold; they fasten it with nails and hammers so that it will not topple.'" (Jeremiah 10:2-4)

It's clear to me that Christians should have nothing to do with Christmas; so my family and I stopped celebrating it. However, it's time for you to do your own research. Please get started with the link below. You can do this tomorrow.

Christ-Mass and Other Catholic Holidays Created through Baal Worship

Day 46

When your pastor points out that you can't mix the Law with grace, and yet he insists that it is perfectly fine to mix paganism with Christianity, something's wrong! ALL of the holidays below come straight from Baal worship, were modified by Roman Catholicism (a Roman form of Baal worship) in order to appear Christian, and are now excused by our born again pastors:

- Christ-Mass ("Christmas")—nullifies Christ's sacrifice
- New Years Day—created as a sex festival
- Valentine's Day—created as a sex festival
- Saint Patrick's Day—created for a Catholic "saint"
- Easter—created for the pagan goddess of fertility
- Mothers Day—created for Baal's mother/wife
- Fathers Day—created for the sun god, Baal
- Halloween—modified for church use and renamed as a "Harvest Festival" or "Fall Festival" to hide its true origin, so that we can appease our consciences

If you don't believe me, you need to do some serious research!

The REAL reason that most born again Christians refuse to give up these holidays is because they are afraid of what their friends, family, and other Christians will think.

"For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God."—John 12:43

GET YOUR HEAD ON STRAIGHT, CHRISTIAN!

Day 47

Catholicism and all of its holidays (which most born again Christians now celebrate) come straight from Baal worship. The image below is a depiction of the original Saint Nicholas, a Catholic "saint," with his helpers, the Krampus, whose purpose is to torment bad children at Christmas time (The Krampus were replaced with "elves" by the Coca Cola company in the early 1900's to help sell their product.). In Germany, Italy, Austria, and Hungary, they still dress up like this for their Christmas celebrations. The Apostle Paul said, "I do not want you to have fellowship with demons."—1 Corinthians 10:20

The Christ-Mass nullifies the finality of Christ's sacrifice on the cross for our sins. If you have a hard time explaining to unbelievers and other born again Christians why you don't celebrate Christmas, simply tell them "Christ-Mass is a Catholic holiday. I'm a born again Christian."

Day 48

Did you know that as Christians we are continually grieving the Holy Spirit by attempting to honor God with paganism? Allow me to explain. A few hundred years after God destroyed the world with a flood, there was a really wicked man named Nimrod. You can find him in Genesis 10. He and his mother, Semiramis (who also became his wife) created the world's greatest super religion based on the occult, devil worship, paganism, and unrestrained sex. Eventually Nimrod was worshipped as the sun god Baal, and his mother-wife became known as the goddess Asherah. Their religion spread throughout the entire earth and it still exists today. Each country and culture has their own variation of this mother of world religions, but the basic teachings remain intact. Baal and Asherah (who were continually denounced by God throughout the Old Testament) masquerade under different names in each country and culture. Virtually every major false religion in the world today is a form of Baal worship or has ties to Baal worship in some way. Proud modern pagans and Satanists trace their roots all the way back to the tower of Babel (which was located in ancient Babylon) to this “mother of harlots” religion created by Nimrod and his mother-wife Semiramis.

The Romans used their version of this Babylonian religion to create the Catholic “church,” disguised as Christian. Baal and Asherah became the Catholic versions of Jesus and Mary, respectively, in order to deceive the masses into believing that their religion is Christian. The Catholic teaching of salvation by works is not their only problem; and that is an extreme understatement. Their entire religious system is based on the teachings of Baal worship, and is presented as “Christian” to an unsuspecting world. There is nothing Christian about it.

When the apostle John wrote the book of Revelation, he identified “Mystery Babylon the Great, the Mother of Harlots” (Rev. 17:5) as “that great city which reigns [present tense] over the kings of the earth.” (Rev. 17:18) Rome was the city which ruled over the earth when it was written. The pagan religion (Romanized Baal worship) and practices of Rome were so much like that of ancient Babylon that the people of that day nicknamed Rome “New Babylon.” Vatican City, which is situated right in the center of Rome, is the seat of the Catholic church, which carries on that tradition.

As far as holidays go, all of the holidays celebrated by Catholics are pagan in origin, most of which were created by the pagans for Baal worship—up to 2500 years before Christ’s birth. When America was settled in the early 1600’s, these holidays were outlawed as witchcraft, and Satanic. The Puritans and the Pilgrims wanted nothing to do with these holidays. Everything in connection with these holidays is truly immersed in Satanism, paganism, and witchcraft. The beautiful decorations, customs, traditions, and practices (which God’s people now practice universally) are symbolic of unbridled sexual lust, along with other pagan and satanic symbols. It wasn’t until the mid to late 1800’s that these holidays were legalized in America—when the Roman Catholics started pouring into this country in massive numbers. They brought their pagan holidays along with them (invented for Baal worship and repackaged as “Christian” holidays by the Roman popes), and God’s people began to join along with them in their pagan celebrations “in the name of Jesus.” And the greater part of the body of Christ still ignorantly practices this spiritual adultery up until this day—on a worldwide scale. All of these holidays are directly linked to Baal worship through the Catholic church.

Would it shock you to know that modern pagans and Satanists (whose predecessors created these holidays) still celebrate these holidays even today? Some of them complain that Christians have “stolen” their holidays, while some of them mock us for ignorantly celebrating their holidays (under different names) in an attempt to honor Christ. Wow! Isn’t that a great testimony on behalf of our Lord Jesus Christ (Please note the sarcasm.)! And how does God see these holidays? God never forgets. He sees these holidays just as filthy today as He saw them on the day that they were created. The only difference is that today they are simply disguised as “Christian,” or said to be “done in fun.” Christmas, Easter, New Years, Valentine’s Day, Fathers Day, Mothers Day, and more, were adopted by God’s people through the pagan Catholic church, and all of them have roots in Baal worship and unbridled sex. God's people have no idea how deeply they are offending Him! And the very days that we celebrate them on are on the exact same days of the calendar that the pagans appointed long ago. How can we be so blind?

I don't have enough room to discuss all of these holidays, so I'll just talk a little about Christmas (You can, and should, research the other holidays on your own, if you're really serious about knowing what God thinks about them.).

Don't you find it strange that most of the songs that we sing on Christmas to "honor" our Lord Jesus Christ are worded in a way that is designed to worship him as a baby? That's because Christmas (a word created from the Catholic phrase "Christ Mass") is a Catholic holiday imported from Baal worship. In Baal worship there is a mother goddess (Asherah, known as "the Queen of Heaven,") and a baby god known as Baal-Tammuz. And since Catholicism is simply a Roman version of Baal worship, Catholicism also has a mother goddess ("Mother Mary," also known as "the Queen of Heaven") and a baby god, known as "Baby Jesus". And this is exactly who Catholics sing to in worship at Christmas time—"the Baby Jesus," who no longer exists, except as an idol that they regularly pray to. And those who belong to Christ joyfully do the same thing as the Catholics every single year—sing songs to "Baby Jesus"! But don't take my word for it. If you don't believe me, the next time you go to church, just pick up a hymnal and carefully read the lyrics to the Christmas songs! They don't honor Christ as Lord at all! They honor Him as a baby—the same baby that Catholics still pray to! Would you honor your grown up family members by honoring them as a baby? Of course not! They would be insulted (If you don't believe me, go ahead and try!)? So why do we do this to Christ??? It's pure Catholic doctrine, imported from Baal worship!

The Christmas tree itself is the embodiment of the filth that God sees in Christmas. The five-pointed "star" at the top of the tree is a pentagram, widely used in satanic rituals. The lights on the tree represent the stars in the sky that the pagans worship. And excuse me for being blunt, but I feel that it is the only way that I can wake you up: The balls that hang on the tree represent the testicles of Baal.

Let me ask you a question. How would you feel if a friend of yours, an innocent foreigner, "gave you the finger" every time he saw you? Would you be offended? And what if he continued to give you the finger even after you explained to him what it meant, and he refused to stop? Do you think you would be angry? You sure would! Yet this is exactly what we do to God. Bible-believing Christians all over the world have sanctified pagan holidays in the name of Jesus to worship Him! By the way, did you know that the Christmas tree itself was created as a phallic symbol (representing the male sex organ)? Consequently, whether we accept it or not, every time someone sets up a Christmas tree, he is essentially giving God the finger. Do we really do that to God? Yes, we do—out of ignorance; and we somehow believe that our Lord Jesus Christ receives honor!

Every Christian will stand before God and give an account (2 Cor. 5:10). Now that I have given you the basics about Christianized pagan holidays, God will require it of you. You have a choice. You can be willfully ignorant and continue to celebrate

Christianized pagan holidays because “all the other Christians are doing it,” or you can seek out the truth, and stop grieving the Spirit of God. I urge you to prayerfully and thoroughly search the internet to find out what our so-called “Christian” holidays are really about (and it’s not Jesus!). Day 49

It was a holiday created by pagans and Satanists long before Christ was born. The pagans call it SATURNALIA, and the Satanists call it YULE. It was renamed by Catholicism (a Roman form of Baal worship) to APPEAR Christian. They called it CHRIST MASS (renamed "Christmas"), which nullifies the completed sacrifice of Christ on the cross.

Born again Christians have no business celebrating Christmas. It is NOT a Christian holiday! Obey the Bible rather than your pastor: "Do NOT inquire after their gods, saying, 'HOW did these nations serve their gods? I ALSO WILL DO LIKEWISE.' You shall NOT worship the Lord your God IN THAT WAY..." (Deuteronomy 12:30-31)

Day 50

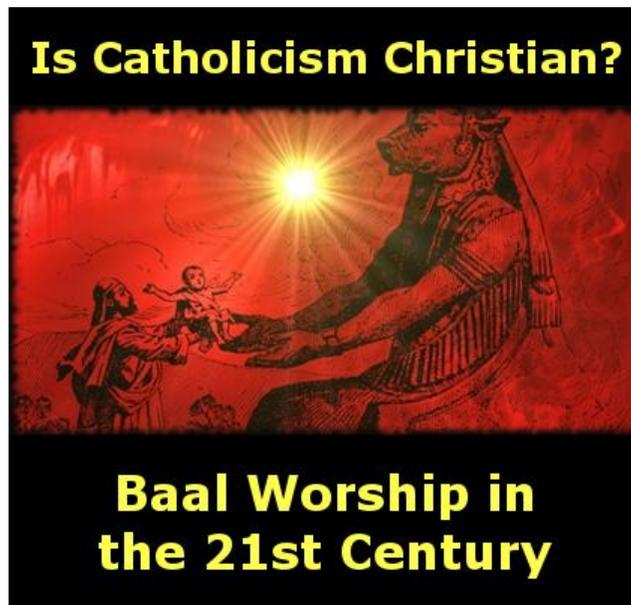

The Blasphemy of Christ (MASS)

- The word Christmas comes from "Cristes Maesse", an early English phrase that means "Mass of Christ."
- Page 537 of the Catholic Encyclopedia, says, "In the Christian law, the supreme sacrifice is that of the Mass."
- The word "Mass" in religious usage means a "death sacrifice." When millions of people are saying, "Merry Christmas", they are literally saying "Merry death of Christ!"
- The word "mass" comes from the latin root "mittere" (to send) and derives from "missa" (to dismiss). In other words, "To merrily dismiss Jesus as Christ."

Day 51

The pagan religion condemned most often in the scriptures, and which greatly contributed to God's judgment upon Old Testament Israel was Baal worship. Shockingly, Baal worship is alive and well today, but most Christians don't recognize it.

The Romans Christianized Baal worship long, long ago. It's everywhere, but its pagan nature is covered up, because it masquerades as Christian. A few true Christians are aware of it, but refuse to acknowledge it, because they don't want to offend their friends and relatives. Most of our so-called "Christian" holidays (celebrations which were created for Baal worship) have been adopted from this pagan institution, and we have convinced ourselves that God is pleased by our celebration of them, but He's not. That institution is known as Catholicism.

The scriptures command us: "Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues." (Rev. 18:4) This is not a game! We need to stop calling this pagan religion "Christian," because it isn't, and we are offending God by saying that it is!

Remnant of God has a web page entitled "Whore of Babylon," which can be found at the link below. The first section of the page cites several Catholic writings and quotations from many Catholic officials that admit that Catholicism comes from paganism. The second section of the page has a 53-point comparison chart between Baal worship and Catholicism. It demonstrates conclusively that Catholicism is simply Baal worship purposely disguised as Christian to an unsuspecting world. You can find this page at the following link:

Day 52

MEN
BOW.

WOMEN CURTSY.

FEMINIST women bow, instead of curtsyng, because they despise femininity, and want to be like men. Stop taking their advice, and stop following their ways, woman of God. You are letting them poison your soul.

Day 53

For over 170 years born again Christian women have been violating nature by stripping away every trace of femininity and female gender norms from their lives—all in the name of "Christian feminism." All this has been done to obtain the promise of feminism's twisted concept of "equality with men." As a result, born again Christian women are more masculine than ever, and it is now almost impossible to distinguish between saved women and unsaved women.

"The fact is, Christians are more to blame for not being revived, than sinners are for not being converted. And if they are not awakened, they may know assuredly that God will visit them with His judgments."—Jack T. Chick Open your eyes, Christian!

Day 55

"MADLY IN LOVE WITH JESUS"???

My fellow Christian friend, do you even have a clue what that means?

Over the last few decades, "to be in love" or "to fall in love" are expressions that have become so abused and twisted by the world, that it has become complete perversion. Now people say that they are in love with their children, in love with their dog, and even in love with their car, candy bar, themselves, and their bodies. Even the church is carried away with this abominable speech.

I was doing an internet search of born again Bible-believing churches of Australia some years ago. After going through a number of them, I came across one church website in particular that caught my attention. The very first thing that I noticed on their home page was this statement: "God is madly in love with us!" I was so disgusted that I didn't bother to read the details about the church. I just exited the website. A few months later, as I was sitting in an American church, the pastor blared out: "God is madly in love with us!"—using the same exact words. It's frightening how quickly carnality spreads from church to church; even from nation to nation. If you are offended by the image above, good. Perhaps it will wake you up. It expresses the same exact sentiment as "being in love with Jesus," the words that modern carnal Christianity has chosen to use to define their relationship with Him. And God is deeply offended when He hears these words from His children's lips!

To "be in love" and to "fall in love" are expressions reserved exclusively for a romantic relationship between a male and a female. Any other usage is perversion, whether you are talking about your dog, your children, or anything else; especially God. God is holy. Let me be clear about this. God's people are commanded: "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind..." (Luke 10:27) We are commanded to love God with all of our being. The scriptures also state that "God is love." (1 John 4:8) But to say that God is "in love with us," or "falling in love with us," or that we are "in love with Him," or that we are "falling in love with Him," is so perverted, that I find myself wondering why I have to explain it to anyone.

Christians think that just because they talk about Jesus, and sing songs about Him, that they can say or sing pretty much anything about Him that stirs their emotions, and that He will be pleased with them. Nothing could be further from the truth. Christians have this mistaken idea that whatever goes on in the church must be holy, and therefore permitted. Do you think God delights in perversion when we talk about Him?—or when we sing about Him?

Because of the increasing moral decay in our culture, even songs have popped up in our churches in the last few decades which have lyrics about "falling in love with Jesus." Recently, I was sitting in church at the beginning of the service, and the choir sang a song that I had never heard before. It was about how God is "in love" with us. After they repeated those words a few more times, I couldn't tolerate it anymore. I got up and left the service. Another song which I have heard Christians sing over the years, which totally creeps me out, is "I keep falling in love with Him over and over and over and over again..." The music is nice, but the words are beyond creepy.

Not only are these types of lyrics inappropriate, but it's downright disgusting. We need to remove these types of filthy songs and speech from our churches immediately. Once again, just because you have become accustomed to it, and it makes you feel good, that doesn't mean that it is pleasing to God. It is not! And again, being "in love" is a phrase reserved exclusively for expressing romantic feelings between a male and female. Anything else is perversion.

"Intimate" and "intimacy" are two other words that have been perverted over the last few decades. Sadly, the church seems to be clueless in this regard as well. Christians today speak of "having an intimate relationship with Jesus and God" or "experiencing intimacy with Jesus and God." To experience "intimacy" or to have an "intimate relationship" goes one step further than the feelings of "being in love." Intimacy refers to heavy kissing, and even sex. Is this the kind of relationship that you want people to think that you imagine having with the Creator of the universe?

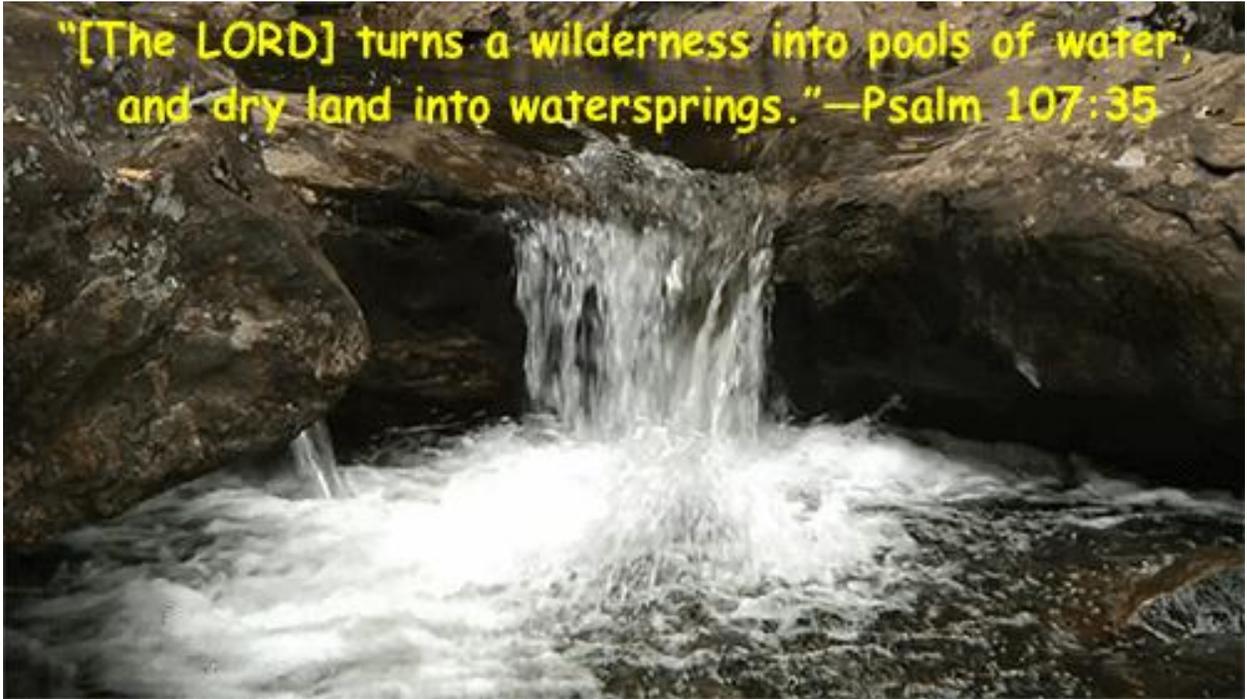

All of the major man-made religions of the world can be traced back to satanic paganism created by Nimrod at the tower of Babel. Even up to this day, most of the rituals and symbols that most religions use are secretly linked to unbridled sex. When we talk about "intimacy with God" we are basically imitating the pagans, which God hates. While you might "feel good" when you say it, because you are accustomed to hearing this kind of talk in church, you have probably never thought about the implications. The only relationship that should be described as being "intimate" is the relationship of a man and his wife in the privacy of their bedroom. Any other usage of this word is perversion, and should be removed from the lips of Christians everywhere.

Day 58

Pastor Billy Crone's

Proof of a Hi-Tech Society Before Noah's Flood!!!

When we think of the days of Noah we usually imagine an uneducated people wandering through the desert on camels. However, in the following YouTube video Pastor Billy Crone demonstrates that it was not like that at all. Instead, he shows archaeological proof that the people of Noah's day actually lived in a society which was at least as technologically advanced as our own before God destroyed the sinful world of that day with a flood. I've suspected for years that the people of Noah's day lived in a high-tech world just like ours. After watching this video, I am now 100% convinced. You've got to see it to believe it! Why is this information important to us today? Because it gives added meaning to Jesus' words "But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be." (Matthew 24:37) Please watch this video on YouTube now at the link below!

Day 59

The scriptures make it clear that there is no life on other planets.

Mankind is the crown of God's creation. We are one of a kind. The scriptures make it clear that the sun, the moon, and even the stars were created by God specifically to give light to the earth: "Then God made two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He made the stars also. God set them in the firmament of the heavens to give light on the earth...." (Genesis 1:16-17) In addition, if there were life on other planets, then Jesus would have to die for sins over and over again on every inhabited planet in the universe, when in fact the Bible makes it clear that Jesus died once for sins forever: "So Christ was offered once to bear the sins of many." (Hebrews 9:28) Earth is special to God. There is no other planet like ours in the entire universe. We are the center of God's attention.

Day 60

The signs are here now—all over the world!

Did Jesus tell us to hide our heads in the sand, or close our eyes when we see the signs of the Last Days appear? No!!! Here's what He said: "What I say to you, I say to ALL: WATCH!" (Mark 13:37) He said this so that we would prepare our hearts before Him, and be ready when He returns. Instead, most of God's people are doing their best to ignore the signs, so that they can calmly continue on with their lives, in a state of carnality, and half asleep. Army of Jesus' YouTube video should wake them up! Day 61

THE FEMINIST AND LGBT GOAL FOR MANKIND IS TO SWITCH GIRLS AND WOMEN FROM FEMALE FASHIONS TO MALE FASHIONS, JUST LIKE THIS...

THIS GOAL WAS REACHED MANY YEARS AGO, AND IS NOW VIGOROUSLY DEFENDED NOT ONLY BY THE WORLD, BUT ALSO BY OUR BORN AGAIN BIBLE CHURCHES.

...AND TO SWITCH BOYS AND MEN FROM MALE FASHIONS TO FEMALE FASHIONS, DOING THE SAME THING TO MALES THAT HAS BEEN DONE TO FEMALES—CONVINCING THEM TO DRESS LIKE THE OPPOSITE SEX, JUST LIKE THIS...

THIS GOAL IS ALREADY IN TRANSITION. OUR BORN AGAIN BIBLE CHURCHES ARE ALREADY DEFENDING MALES WEARING PINK CLOTHING, HAIR BUNS, EARRINGS, ETC.

The feminist and LGBT goal for your country and God's people, is to make females masculine and males feminine.

HERE ARE QUOTES FROM SOME NOTABLE MEN WHO KNOW WHAT FEMINISM IS REALLY ABOUT:

"We are facing a concentrated effort in this nation to try to de-emphasize the difference between the sexes.... I'm opposed to anything that makes a man and a woman act alike, look alike, dress alike, or talk alike."—Pastor Jack Hyles

"The feminist agenda is not about equal rights for women. It is about a socialist, anti-family political movement that encourages women to...become lesbians."—Pat Robertson

"Feminism...masquerades as a movement for women's rights.... Feminism is elite social engineering designed to destroy gender identity by making women masculine and men feminine."—Henry Makow, Ph.D.

"It is ironic that many women refuse to openly associate themselves with the radical feminist movement of our day, yet lend their support through the manner in which they dress."—Rev. Tim Hudson

HERE IS A QUOTE THAT IS A PERFECT REPRESENTATION OF MANY LIBERAL-MINDED MEN TODAY:

"I always figured women won the clothing war seeing as how they could wear skirts OR trousers [pants]...maybe this will encourage more men to adopt skirts and we can even it out a bit."—Marco Vincenzo

What Marco is saying is that since girls have been dressing like guys for so long, guys should be able to dress like girls too. Other men all over the internet are saying the same exact thing. What did you expect, ladies—that the hypocritical feminist double standard that females practice every day would go unnoticed forever? Consequently, Christian women who refuse to give up their feminist clothing—which is patterned after men's clothing—are just as guilty as the men that they condemn for dressing like women.

If that makes you angry, consider this: Feminist clothing is one of the founding pillars of the 170-plus years-old feminist movement, and remains one of its main pillars until today. It is also one of the main pillars of lesbianism, the unisex movement, and the transgender movement, because feminist clothing was intentionally designed to obscure girls' and women's femininity by replacing dresses with clothing resembling boys' and men's clothing (shirts, pants, etc.). God's people have this mistaken idea that just because this has been going on for over 170 years, and they have become accustomed to it, that God is accustomed to it too, and no longer cares. Not so! God is not subject to conditioning like His indifferent people. He never changes. He is just as angry about feminist clothing today as He was when it was created over 170 years ago. Pastors and preachers used to preach about this many years ago, but they stopped, because they don't want to lose their church members, who are the source of their income. As a result, most pastors have bowed to feminism—not only in regards to clothing, but in every other area of life as well.

The feminists have defiled the entire female wardrobe. Feminist clothing was deliberately created over 170 years ago out of contempt for femininity in girls and women. Trying to modify feminist clothing to make it feminine by adding flowers, sparkles, etc. does not make it female clothing. It simply makes it androgynous—unacceptable for male or female usage. The woman's standard of clothing is a dress, which was created to show unmistakable femininity. This is the absolute standard that was followed before the feminist contamination began, and God expects girls and women to return to it. It's as simple as that. At the risk of stating the obvious, a skirt is not a dress. A skirt only covers the lower part of the body, while a dress covers both the top and bottom. Once again, the standard is a dress. The only acceptable substitute for a dress is a skirt with a traditional blouse of ruffles or genuine lace, which are distinctly feminine. It's either a dress, or a skirt PLUS a traditional blouse of ruffles or genuine lace. A skirt plus "whatever" is not acceptable. Pants are unacceptable. Shirts of any kind are also unacceptable. Like pants, shirts are men's clothing—whether they are dress shirts, T shirts, tank tops, polo shirts, or whatever other type of shirt. Girls and women should avoid them like the plague. Shirts are now being deceptively labeled as "blouses," "sweaters," and even "dresses" by the feminist-friendly clothing industry to trick women into buying them. Suit jackets/blazers and ties are also men's clothing. Men's shoes and hats are now labeled and worn as female clothing too; and God hates it all!

One of the greatest complaints of today's born again Bible churches is that the homosexuals will normalize female clothing for men; but they are in extreme denial when it comes to females. Feminists normalized male clothing for females a very long time ago, but our churches refuse to acknowledge this, because the men who run our churches have allowed themselves to be conditioned by feminism just like everyone else. Like the rest of the culture, virtually everything that born again girls and women wear on a daily basis is designed to imitate male clothing. If a man of God mentions that to his pastor, there is a very good chance that the pastor will probably either look at him with eyes glazed over, and come up with some pre-rehearsed excuse that he learned in seminary, or he may go into a rage and scold the man of God, because the pastor has fooled himself into believing that he's pleasing God by condoning and defending feminist clothing in the body of Christ—just like other pastors are now doing.

The most well-known scripture which commands both women and men to dress differently is Deuteronomy 22:5. Before the feminist movement began (over 170 years ago), this plain teaching was universally accepted by everyone as common sense and morally sound, because it honors God's natural design, which makes a clear distinction between male and female. Once the feminist movement began to gain power, everyone cowered and started to rethink their position, making excuses for women to dress like men, in order to accommodate feminism. As a result, even our so-called "Bible experts" have bowed down to feminism, considering females "exempt" from Deuteronomy 22:5, while boys and men are generally (and rightly) expected to obey it. Wake up, and turn back, ladies. Feminism is not Christian by any stretch of the imagination. It's time for you to renounce feminism—ALL of it! You can start by getting back to dresses only. "Today, if you will hear His voice. Do not harden your hearts."—Hebrews 4:7

Feminism is a rejection of GOD'S NATURAL DESIGN of femininity in girls and women.

RENOUNCE FEMINISM:

RETURN TO FEMININITY:

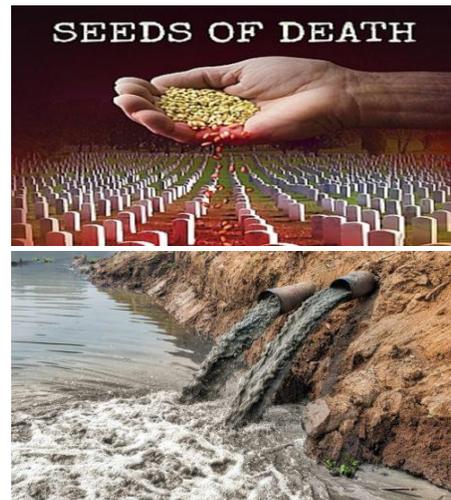

Pursue femininity with all your heart, daughter of God. That's the way God designed you to be. That means giving up your feminist clothing (shirts and pants), and your feminist-approved activities and ambitions. The Lord will hold you accountable when you stand before Him.—2 Corinthians 5:10

Vaccine Pestilences

Food and Water Pestilences

Have you ever wondered why everyone is so sick? Jesus told us in Matthew 24:7 that there would be pestilences in the last days. And that time is now! Who would have thought that the pestilences are manmade? Every man, woman, and child worldwide is now being deliberately poisoned every day in order to control the masses for the New World Order. Simply click on the YouTube video links below to see proof! Jesus said "Watch!"—not "Hide your head in the sand"!

What Feminism is REALLY About-Part 1

(Source: Center for Children's Justice in Denver, CO- Robert Muchnick www.childrensjustice.org)

In Their Own Words:

1. "The simple fact is that every woman must be willing to be identified as a lesbian to be fully feminist." (National NOW Times, Jan.1988).
2. "Since marriage constitutes slavery for women, it is clear that the women's movement must concentrate on attacking this institution. Freedom for women cannot be won without the abolition of marriage."
(feminist leader Sheila Cronan).
3. "Being a housewife is an illegitimate profession... The choice to serve and be protected and plan towards being a family-maker is a choice that shouldn't be. The heart of radical feminism is to change that."
(Vivian Gornick, feminist author, University of Illinois, "The Daily Illini," April 25, 1981.
4. "The most merciful thing a large family can do to one of its infant members is to kill it." (Margaret Sanger, founder of Planned Parenthood, in "Women and the New Rage," p.67.
5. "In order to raise children with equality, we must take them away from families and communally raise them." (Dr. Mary Jo Bane, feminist and assistant professor of education at Wellesley College and associate director of the school's Center for Research on Woman).

There is nothing Christian about feminism.
You are either a feminist or a Christian. You can't be both. It's time for you to choose, ladies.

What Feminism is REALLY About-Part 2

In Their Own Words:

6. "Marriage has existed for the benefit of men; and has been a legally sanctioned method of control over women... We must work to destroy it. The end of the institution of marriage is a necessary condition for the liberation of women. Therefore it is important for us to encourage women to leave their husbands and not to live individually with men... All of history must be re-written in terms of oppression of women. We must go back to ancient female religions like witchcraft." (from "The Declaration of Feminism," November 1971).

7. "Overthrowing capitalism is too small for us. We must overthrow the whole... patriarch!" (Gloria Steinem, feminist leader, editor of 'MS' magazine).

8. In response to a question concerning China's policy of compulsory abortion after the first child, Molly Yard responded, "I consider the Chinese government's policy among the most intelligent in the world." (Gary Bauer, "Abetting Coercion in China," The Washington Times", October 10, 1989).

9. "Let's forget about the mythical Jesus and look for encouragement, solace and inspiration from real women... Two thousand years of patriarchal rule under the shadow of the cross ought to be enough to turn women toward the feminist 'salvation' of this world." (Annie Laurie Gaylor, "Feminist Salvation," "The Humanist", July/August 1988, p.37)

10. "By the year 2000 we will, I hope, raise our children to believe in human potential, not God." (Gloria Steinem, editor of 'MS' magazine.)

There is nothing Christian about feminism.
You are either a feminist or a Christian. You can't be both. It's time for you to choose, ladies.

Day 74

Jesus said in Luke 21:11 that in the last days there would be “fearful sights and great signs from heaven.” AND HERE IS ONE OF THEM:

HOW AGENTS OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER'S DEEP STATE ARE BLOCKING THE SUN AND POISONING MANKIND FROM THE SKIES

What in the world are they spraying on us??? For decades now, globalist politicians around the world, who support the New World Order's deep states, have been telling us that we need to stop “global warming” by giving them our tax dollars. Now that people are beginning to wise up, seeing that there are record cold temperatures as well as hot, these elite globalists have changed their strategy by changing their label of “global warming” to “climate change.”

The typical way that globalists of the New World Order operate is to create chaos and terror, then their allies, globalist politicians, sound the alarm while blaming it on those who oppose their agenda, so that they can win votes and demand to use our tax money for a “solution” to the problem which they themselves deliberately created. The chaotic weather conditions that we are now experiencing throughout the world are no exception. It is their creation. And it includes a deliberate mass poisoning of mankind from the skies. Confirmed by 7000 scientists.

Jesus warned us to watch for the signs of His coming and the end of the age—not to bury our heads in the sand, which modern Christians are now doing: “Take heed, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time is.... And what I say to you, I say to all: Watch!”—Mark 13:33, 37 We are called to expose the darkness while we are waiting for His return: “And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather expose them.”—Ephesians 5:11
WWW.GeoengineeringWatch.Org is an organization dedicated to exposing weather control as a weapon upon mankind. Visit their website. Be sure to watch two or three of their videos at the link below, and prepare to be shocked. Then pray.

Day 75

Dresses were created for females many centuries ago to make a clear distinction between male and female.

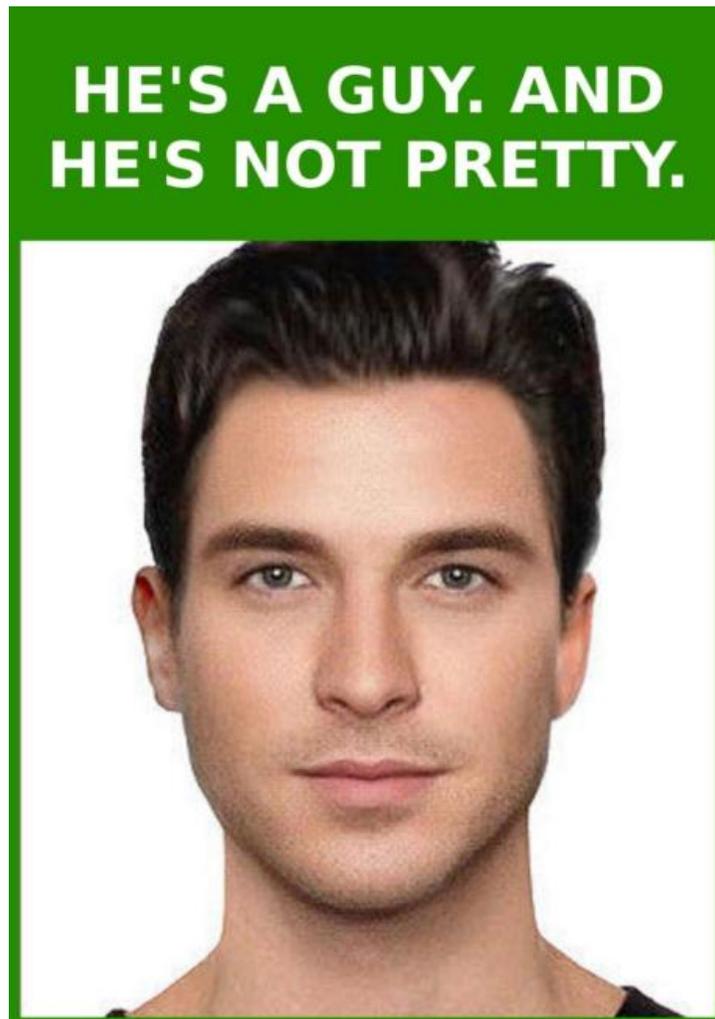

Feminist clothes (shirts, pants, suit jackets, etc.) were created to replace dresses on females in order to imitate male clothing and make females like males—all in the name of "equality."

The entire feminist movement, created over 170 years ago, was built with feminist clothing as its foundation—clothing designed to strip away their femininity. If girls and women everywhere would throw away ALL their feminist clothing, and return to DRESSES ONLY, loud-mouthed feminist activists would lose their power, and their entire movement would eventually crumble, because feminist clothing is a 24-hour-a-day continual reminder of their power, and symbolizes their total rejection of femininity. Whether they realize it or not, every born again Christian girl and woman who wears feminist clothing is helping to strengthen the feminist, unisex, and "transgender" movements, as well as the New World Order, and is weakening her testimony for our Lord Jesus Christ. Please stop.

"It is ironic that many women refuse to openly associate themselves with the radical feminist movement of our day, yet lend their support through the manner in which they dress."—Rev. Tim Hudson

Day 76

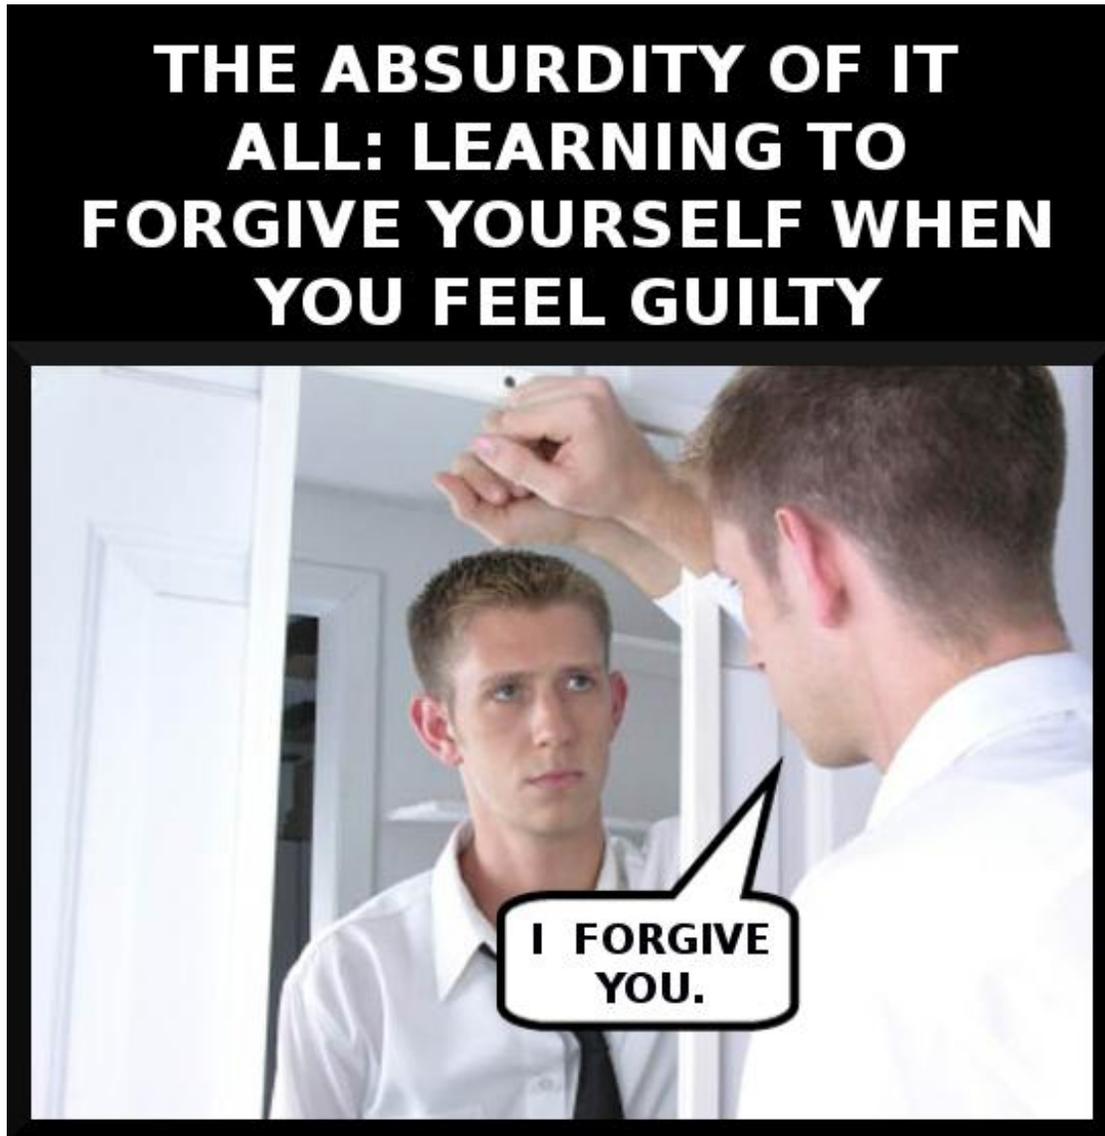

One of the greatest worries of our churches today is that because of the extreme shift in moral values over recent years, homosexuality will become normalized. Well, one thing's for sure: Homosexual fashions are already becoming normalized. Up until recent years, the color pink was universally recognized as a feminine color. Everyone was completely disgusted by boys and men wearing pink—that is, until homosexuality became so acceptable. Once that happened, the homosexuals and their allies pushed the culture over the edge, insisting, "Real men wear pink." (Let's not forget that they also say that real men are homosexual.) And so like a bunch of lemmings, men from every walk of life have decided that wearing pink is now cool, because the homosexuals said so. Even our church leaders have gotten caught up in this perversion, wearing pink as well. Many Christian women are understandably deeply disgusted by this feminizing of men's clothing; but of course they don't dare to say a word, because it would only expose their hypocrisy. After all, even Christian women have been letting the feminists dress them in men's clothing for years.

Before men allowed the homosexuals and homosexual sympathizers to talk them into wearing pink clothing, they first let them dupe them into wearing women's accessories. That's right—I'm talking about earrings. But it doesn't stop there. "Straight" men are now also wearing flowery shoes and clothing, panty hose, tights, leggings, head bands, blouses, and more. Because they now think that homosexuality is cool, they just love to wear their effeminate fashions. And of course it doesn't stop there either. Our language is now being rewritten by the LGBT movement in order to further feminize boys and men, just as feminists have been rewriting our language for years in order to "assist" in masculinizing girls and women.

For years, the world has been imitating the language of the feminists, who use it to help masculinize girls and women; and sadly, our Bible-believing churches have been imitating feminist language as well. Now the world is also imitating the language of the homosexuals/LGBT, who use it to help feminize boys and men. And of course our churches are starting to imitate homosexual language too.

As a result of this deliberate assault on language, boys and men are now being labeled as "pretty," and "beautiful," references that are exclusive to females, while the word "handsome," which is a reference exclusive to males, is being used less and less. I even heard a 6 year-old girl call a boy "doll face," (a female reference) if you can imagine that! This latest trend of using feminine references for boys and men will surely worsen, and will undoubtedly find its way into our Bible-believing churches very soon, spreading like wildfire, since for many years now God's children no longer seem to have the desire to expose or resist most of the world's filth. Instead, they join in, and deceive themselves into believing that they can excuse any and all behavior through liberty in Christ. Keep your eyes and ears open, and beware!

Day 77

There's an old saying that people use to comfort others when they can't get over feelings of guilt. They say, "You need to learn to forgive yourself." How absurd! Whenever I hear someone give this kind of advice, I just roll my eyes. Forgiveness requires at least two or more individuals: the one who sins, and the one(s) who are sinned against. The idea of forgiving oneself simply does not qualify. It is simply a worldly tactic designed to make the person feel better about himself.

When we bring this carnal worldly philosophy into the Christian realm, it is basically the same. It is simply an absurd, nonsensical way of dealing with feelings of guilt. If you belong to Jesus Christ, and you sin, you have a promise: "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." (1 John 1:9) Getting rid of feelings of guilt is not a matter of "forgiving yourself," but a matter of taking God at His word. As long as you have a repentant heart, He will forgive you. But you must believe. "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

Sometimes we feel guilty because we do the same sin over and over again. We fall down and we get up... We fall down and we get up...over and over again. It's frustrating, and we feel guilty. Peter once asked Jesus, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times?" Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven." (Matthew 18:21-22) In other words, there is no limit. If God expects us to forgive others without limit, how much more so will He do for us! Even when we get trapped in the same sin over and over again, He will still forgive us when we confess it—as long as it is done with a repentant heart. Jesus gave us another example in Luke 17:3-4: "If your brother sins against you, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him. And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day returns to you, saying, 'I repent,' you shall forgive him." If God expects this from us mere sinners, how much more is He willing to do it for us! Remember, a repentant heart is key. As long as you confess your sin with a truly repentant heart, there is no limit to His forgiveness.

So the next time you are feeling guilty for sins that you have already confessed before the Lord, and someone tells you, "You need to learn to forgive yourself," tell them, "No. The Bible says, 'If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.'" So all I need to do is believe that, and I will be fine." Then believe it, and get on with your life.

Day 78

One day as I was sitting in the waiting room at Lab Corp, I saw a lady being interviewed on a TV morning show. She proudly displayed a clothing design that she had made, in which the fabric transitioned from blue to pink. She said that she designed it that way to reflect the new "gender fluidity" in today's culture; in other words, to reflect the androgynous gender-blending fashions and attitudes of today. Feminists have already seen to it that females dress like guys on a daily basis; but now it's the homosexuals' turn. They want the guys to dress like girls; so they've been spending the last few decades perfecting their girly fashions. And now that the world sees homosexuality as acceptable, and even "cool," it is becoming easier and easier for the homosexuals to dupe the common male into wearing their effeminate fashions. And as is the custom of God's people today, instead of exposing filth like this (just like they refuse to expose feminist clothing), they typically feel the need to join in with the rest of the world, so that they will fit in with the rest of the world to avoid ridicule for having absolute standards that set them apart from the world's filthy traditions and trends. As a result, "men of God" are now beginning to wear homosexual fashions just like the rest of the world. The next time you go to church, carefully take a look around, and you'll see what I mean.

Homosexual males began publicly wearing feminine fashions decades ago—beginning with earrings. As the years have passed by, other boys and men in the culture have decided that it was “cool” for them to do it too, willfully ignoring the fact that earrings are accessories exclusively for females. Now they've been doing it for so long that nobody seems to care anymore. Even “Christian” men are doing it. It's shocking that God's people become so easily accustomed to perversion, that they feel comfortable imitating it.

Throughout virtually every nation the color pink has been recognized as an exclusively feminine color. The only males that wore pink were homosexuals, bisexuals, transvestites, etc. If you search the internet for images of “gay parades,” “gay protests,” etc., you will find many groups of homosexual men wearing pink clothing, to identify themselves as effeminate (The image that I have included with this post is a perfect example). In recent years, once homosexuality became more acceptable, huge campaigns were created worldwide to convince everyone that boys and men everywhere should feel free to join the homosexuals in crossing the gender line by wearing pink clothing like the girls. Even to this day you can find entire websites devoted to convincing boys and men to wear pink. They sell pink shirts with messages like, “Real men wear pink,” and “Yes, I'm a man, and I wear pink.” (Ironically, that statement accidentally recognizes that men shouldn't be wearing pink.) Pink shirts for men are often sold for as low as $5 each, in an attempt to get as many men as possible to wear pink, deliberately contaminating the culture. All these efforts have been very successful. Boys and men everywhere are now wearing pink, and nobody says a word about it, neither does anyone seem to care anymore—not even our church leaders. Why would they?—they're doing it too! God's people just can't seem to resist every opportunity to imitate the world's filth. And then, of course, it's all excused through “liberty in Christ.”

As a result of all this, effeminate homosexual fashions have been increasing among heterosexual (“straight”) males at an alarming rate. Along with pink clothing, they are also imitating other feminine fashions: earrings, head bands, hair clips, ribbons, feminine hairstyles, tights, leggings, purses, nail polish, makeup, and clothing with feminine designs (Many effeminate fashions have slight variations from women's fashions and are renamed so that they can excuse themselves and say, “This isn't for women. It's for men!”—using the same deceptive tactic that feminists have been using on women for over 170 years). These homosexual fashions are spreading like wildfire. Expect to see these in your church soon, if you haven't already. When will our church leaders learn that God is going to hold them accountable for turning a blind eye to all this filth in their congregations? But hey, what can we expect?—Our church leaders don't forbid feminist fashions, either; and that's been going on for years. Wake up, pastors! Wake up, child of God!

“For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God....”—1 Peter 4:17

God's commandment is common sense, honoring God's natural design, which makes a very clear distinction between male and female:

"A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, nor shall a man put on a woman's garment, for all who do so are an abomination to the Lord your God."

—Deuteronomy 22:5

So STOP. You all know who you are—ladies and men alike. Stop ignoring your conscience just because "all the other Christians are doing it," and church leaders everywhere approve it— because when you stand before God, you will stand alone.
