Day 85

DIVORCE AND FEMINISM

"The feminist agenda is not about equal rights for women. It is about a socialist, anti-family political movement that encourages women to leave their husbands, kill their children, practice witchcraft, destroy capitalism and become lesbians." —Pat Robertson

In their own words: "Since marriage constitutes slavery for women, it is clear that the women's movement must concentrate on attacking this institution. Freedom for women cannot be won without the abolition of marriage."
—feminist leader Sheila Cronan

A Christian marriage which honors feminist principles and values cannot thrive. Christianity and feminism are 100% incompatible. Until God's people and our churches wake up to this fact, and stop twisting scripture to accommodate feminism, the divorce rate among Christians will continue to remain as high as the world's.

Day 87

CHURCH POTLUCK DINNERS??? WHERE DO YOU FIND THOSE IN THE BIBLE???

You don't. Like so many other customs and traditions that God's people have carelessly added to Christianity over the years, eating in the house of God also violates scripture. From potluck dinners to holiday celebrations... to small group refreshments and hallway refreshments, we are continually finding ways to eat and drink in church.

"What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in?"—1 Cor. 11:22

"But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together for judgment."—1 Cor. 11:34

The ONLY thing you should be eating and drinking in church is the Lord's Supper. Anything else is disobedience to God's word.

Day 88

So-called "Christian" or "moderate" feminism is always just one or two steps behind so-called "radical" feminism. Their philosophies are identical. The only significant difference is the violence. Attempting to justify "Christian" feminism because it isn't violent like "radical" feminism is like trying to justify "moderate" Islam because it isn't as violent as "radical" Islam!

Whether you label feminism as "Christian," "moderate," or "radical," there is no place in the scriptures for ANY of these teachings. ALL feminism originates from the same place—Satan, the father of lies.

Do NOT be deceived. No matter what your pastor says, the Lord is NOT pleased with your "Christian" feminism, daughter of God. You can renounce it NOW, and return to an old fashioned feminine lifestyle, or you can give a strict account when you stand before Christ. It's time to choose. Obey the Bible rather than your pastor! (Acts 5:29)

Day 89

WHY EVERYONE SEES HYPOCRISY IN OUR BIBLE BELIEVING CHURCHES

"I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth."

—Jesus Christ, Revelation 3:15-16

When Bible believing churches use scripture to condemn the world's behavior, their leaders get angry and call us "bigots." They don't want to have anything to do with following a list of rules from the Bible. They excuse everything through God's love and "tolerance," which amounts to unrestrained moral freedom in the culture. Everyone does what is right in his own eyes, with the approval of the government.

When men of God use scripture to condemn the behavior of modern born again Bible Christians, our church leaders get angry and call the men of God “judgmental.” Most of our church leaders and their congregations no longer want to follow a list of rules from the Bible either. Like the world, they also excuse everything through God’s love—and a modern, twisted version of “liberty in Christ,” which amounts to unrestrained moral freedom in the body of Christ. Everyone does what is right in his own eyes, with the full approval of our churches.

So what’s the difference between the world and those who belong to Christ? Not a whole lot these days! Both the world and our Bible believing churches continually use God’s love as an excuse to ignore both God’s holiness and His clear commandments which He has given to us through scripture.

For decades now, God’s people have been crying out for Him to bring revival to a culture steeped in sin, while in the meantime our churches unconsciously and continually encourage us to imitate and defend the very philosophies of the culture that they continually condemn. Other than on the issues of abortion and homosexual relationships, God’s people are virtually identical to the culture in every way, because over the years they have given in to all of their philosophies (Feminism is a perfect example, among others.) and have made them a part of their own lives. Think about that for a while, and consider the hypocrisy of God’s people.

Right now, all the world sees in those of us who belong to Christ is a religion full of hypocrites who keep accusing them, rather than first taking a good look at themselves. If we truly want revival, there is only one way that that is ever going to happen: We need to show the world that we really are different than they are. And the only way they’re going to see that is if our churches stop clinging to the world’s values that we’ve imported into our lives over the years through counterfeit liberty in Christ, while hypocritically pointing our finger at them, whom we so casually imitate. Before the Lord decides to vomit us up along with the rest of the culture—and that time is upon us—we need to repent and bring about a strict return to the old-fashioned values that our churches claim to still have, but in truth abandoned many years ago, along with the rest of the culture.

Day 90

THE GREATEST OBSTACLE TO UNDERSTANDING THE BIBLE IS FEAR.

As long as those of us who belong to Christ continue to disregard and ignore scripture passages which make us afraid—because they contradict our family traditions, or because they contradict the things that we have been taught in church, or because they require MAJOR changes in our carnal "Christian" lifestyles which reflect the world's values—we will NEVER fully understand scripture or be able to please Christ to the fullest of our ability. And the Lord will demand a strict account.

Day 91

YOU KNOW A CHURCH IS CARNAL WHEN A HUMBLE
PRAYER IS CONSIDERED
WICKED.

“For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.” —1 Corinthians 15:9

Once when I was in a small groups class at church, the teacher told us that he had heard a man praying to the Lord, saying, “I’m such an evil man!” Then the teacher commented about the man’s prayer in this way: “What a wicked prayer!” The teacher proclaimed it to be a wicked prayer simply because the man, who was a saved Christian, had already been forgiven of his sins. So, basically, he was condemning the man for his humility!

Jesus Himself said, “If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!” (Luke 11:13) It’s clear that He was speaking to believers, because He mentions the Father giving the Holy Spirit to them. On another occasion Jesus said, “So likewise you, when you have done all those things which you are commanded, say, ‘We are unprofitable servants. We have done what was our duty to do.’ ” (Luke 17:10)

Years after his conversion to Christianity, the apostle Paul, who is considered to be one of the greatest Christians of all time, still felt continual remorse for his lifestyle before he was saved: "For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God." (1 Corinthians 15:9) In Romans 7:18-19 he also laments his continual struggle with sin as a Christian: "For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice." He continues on in verse 24, saying, "O wretched man that I am!"

The holy prophet Isaiah had this to say about himself: "Woe is me, for I am undone! Because I am a man of unclean lips..." (Isaiah 6:5) He makes another statement in chapter 64 verse 6: "But we [including himself] are all like an unclean thing, and all our [including himself] righteousnesses are like filthy rags..."

Those who belong to Christ today are basically taught that we need to "forgive ourselves," a nonsensical worldly philosophy that makes no sense whatsoever, since forgiveness involves two or more people: the sinner(s) and the one(s) who is sinned against. We are continually trying to make ourselves feel good by casting out feelings of remorse for past sins. And while it is true that when we confess our sins to God with a repentant heart, the blood of Christ cleanses us from all sin (1 John 1:9), we still need to remember what we are. Even though we are saved by grace, we are still sinners. We can praise God that we are saved, but once we start thinking that we are good, we start becoming arrogant.

The feelings of remorse and regret that we experience from time to time over past sins are not necessarily a curse (as long as we don't let them destroy our faith), but are instead a reminder of what we are and who we are—sinners saved by grace, still capable of committing great sin. Such memories of remorse should keep us humble, reminding us that we need to continually reexamine our lives each and every day, asking God to expose the hidden filth in our lives, so that we can strip it away. Instead, most Christians continually rebuke the devil for the memories, when we should actually be using these memories to purify ourselves all the more.

Way too often Christians deceive themselves into believing that they are so special to God that there is absolutely nothing that they can do to offend Him (Try telling that to Ananias and Sapphira, two Christians that the Lord struck dead on the spot!—See Acts 5:1-11). And make no mistake—We are very special to God. However, our modern born again Bible-believing churches put so much emphasis on God's love, while putting so little emphasis on His holiness, continually justifying sin through counterfeit liberty in Christ, that most believers today view their relationship with God on a level that almost borders on arrogance. A perfect example of this is a Christian post that I saw many times. In it is a drawing of the Incredible Hulk (a giant with super powers) bellowing out to a small teenage boy, "I am the Hulk!!!" The boy yells back with equal fury, "So what??? I'm a son of God!!!" I'm not talking about David and Goliath here. I'm talking about a teenage boy with such arrogance on his face and in his eyes, that if he really were a Christian, he would be an embarrassment to our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Christian man that I mentioned at the beginning of this post, who prayed to God, "I'm such an evil man," had a perfect attitude of humility. He knew that he belonged to Christ, but he still recognized his desperate need to change. In contrast, most of those who belong to Christ these days seem convinced that they are pure in God's sight, simply because they have been given God's free gift of eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ. As a result, they refuse to acknowledge that they need to change in any significant way. They think that God requires nothing more of them as long as they follow the prevalent lukewarm standards of today's typical born again Bible-believing congregations. They believe that the Lord will condone anything that they do simply because "God sees us through the eyes of Christ." I wonder if Ananias and Sapphira had that same carnal attitude before God killed them (Acts 5:1-11)!

If my 40-plus years of being a born again child of God have taught me anything, I've learned that the closer I get to God and ask Him to change me, the more filth I notice in my life and personality that needs to be stripped away. And until the body of Christ as a whole gets to the point where they recognize the same thing about themselves, they will never be capable of noticing the hidden filth which has been imported into their lives through worldly philosophies and traditions—filth which has been excused and covered up by our born again Bible churches in the name of liberty in Christ. It's time for every man, woman, and child who names the name of Christ to do some serious soul-searching and start reevaluating their lives before God every single day—and then change. Like Paul, I die to myself daily (1 Corinthians 15:31). You should too.

Day 92

Dresses were created for females many centuries ago to make a clear distinction between male and female.

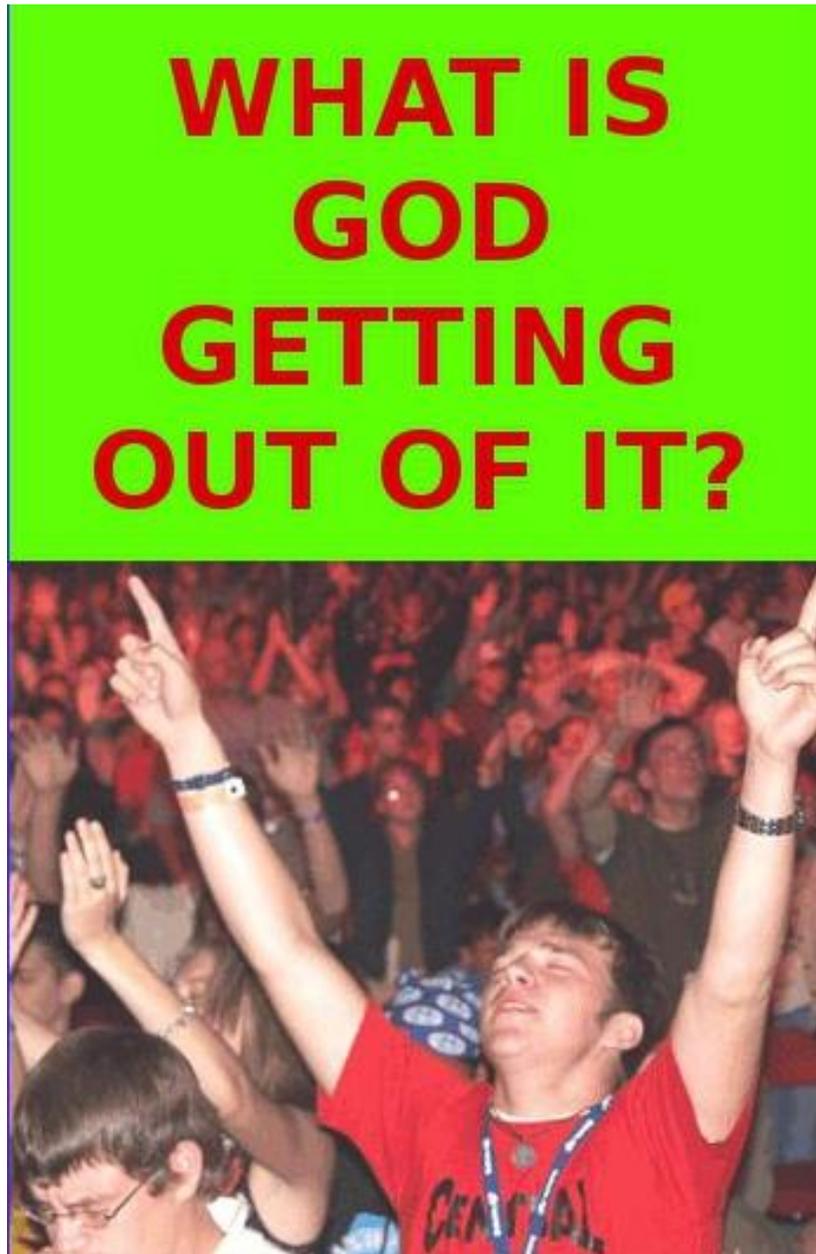

Feminist clothes (shirts, pants, suit jackets, etc.) were created to replace dresses on females in order to imitate male clothing and make females like males—all in the name of "equality."

The entire feminist movement, created over 170 years ago, was built with feminist clothing as its foundation—clothing designed to strip away their femininity. If girls and women everywhere would throw away ALL their feminist clothing, and return to DRESSES ONLY, loud-mouthed feminist activists would lose their power, and their entire movement would eventually crumble, because feminist clothing is a 24-hour-a-day continual reminder of their power, and symbolizes their total rejection of femininity. Whether they realize it or not, every born again Christian girl and woman who wears feminist clothing is helping to strengthen the feminist, unisex, and "transgender" movements, as well as the New World Order, and is weakening her testimony for our Lord Jesus Christ. Please stop.

"It is ironic that many women refuse to openly associate themselves with the radical feminist movement of our day, yet lend their support through the manner in which they dress."—Rev. Tim Hudson

Day 93

The message of the gospel used to be preached in this way: "Jesus Christ died on a cross for your sins, was buried, and rose from the dead. Repent of your sins, call upon the Lord, and you will receive God's free gift of eternal life." Once they did this, new Christians were expected to show their love for God by living a pure life, with absolute standards in place to keep them from stepping over the moral line into a carnal, worldly lifestyle. Christians were happy because they had the promise of heaven, and God was happy because He had obedient children whose lives reflected His holiness.

These days the gospel message is quite different. It goes something like this: "Jesus died for your sins. Ask Him to come into your heart and forgive your sins. Then you will go to heaven when you die." In typical fashion, Christ's resurrection from the dead is often left out, as if it were of little importance. And repentance, which is a genuine commitment to God to turn from one's sins, is very rarely ever mentioned. Is it any wonder our churches are overflowing with false converts?

Of those that actually do repent and become a part of the body of Christ, once saved, there is very little (if any) change in them. The reason for this is because our churches have followed the lead of the world, discarding virtually all of the absolute standards which we once clung to, that kept us from crossing over the line into moral ambiguity and carnal lifestyles which are typical of unbelievers who hold to a mere appearance of godliness. Our churches have made it abundantly clear to us that in their minds we no longer need to follow absolute standards, because we have liberty in Christ; and anybody who says otherwise is branded as "Pharisaical and judgmental." The problem with this is that the type of "liberty in Christ" that our born again churches push today is thoroughly saturated with carnality and is based on the values of the sinful culture around us—despite the fact that the Lord continually commands us throughout scripture (in both the Old and New Testaments) not to imitate the philosophies of the world.

It has been said that there are actually more commandments in the New Testament than there are in the Old Testament. This is very significant, considering the fact that the Old Testament is three times the size. Yet we hold this mentality that once we are saved, "liberty in Christ" grants every believer the right to do whatever is right in his own eyes because we are "free from the law." As long as we praise Jesus, we think that God requires nothing more of us. Let me ask you, "What is God getting out of this?" I mean, after all, He has given us eternal life; but think about this seriously. What is He getting out of it? If you ask me, He's getting next to nothing from us. He has millions of children who have been saved from eternal punishment in hell, and in return, they continue their lives as before, with virtually no change. Christians of today do their own thing—just like the world—and they expect God to be happy with them.

Christians of today and the churches that they belong to continually say that they don't have to follow the Old Testament, yet they ignore most of the New Testament commandments and principles as well. We see these commandments and principles every time we read the New Testament, but we ignore them. I'm not going to bother making a list. You probably already know where a lot of them are. It's enough to say that the gospels and the epistles are full of commandments and principles which God expects us to follow; but our church leaders have told us that we can disregard them. Then they provide us with a list of excuses as to why we don't need to obey such scriptures. Below are some of the typical church-approved excuses that Christians depend on throughout their lifetime, so that they can appease their conscience whenever they come across scriptures that they (and their churches) choose to ignore.

“WE DON’T HAVE TO OBEY THAT SCRIPTURE BECAUSE”:

- . “We have liberty in Christ; so as long as I’m sincere, I don’t need to follow every detail. We are not under the law. We are under grace, and God loves me as I am.”
- . “That was just for the old days.”
- . “That’s old fashioned. Nobody does that anymore.”
- . “That was just the apostle’s personal opinion.”
- . “It’s not practical. God knows my situation and doesn’t expect me to change my life over one unimportant scripture.”
- . “Other people will think I’m strange and will make fun of me [co-workers, family, friends, and even other Christians].”
- . “If I obey that scripture, I’ll have to look for another job.”
- . “We don’t live in the old Testament.”
- . “That was just cultural.”
- . “Christianity isn’t a set of rules. It’s a relationship. Leave the rules to the Pharisees. New Testament Christians don’t have any rules.”
- . “We have to interpret scripture based on modern times. God doesn’t expect us to behave like Puritans and stand out like freaks.”

As a Christian, you should respect the men who run your church; but keep in mind that when we stand before God, we will all stand alone, and we won’t be able to use our church leaders’ permissiveness and lack of restraint over their congregations as an excuse. I would strongly advise you to start opening your eyes, because most of what is promoted by our born again churches today is a direct result of 1) Christianizing most of the world’s philosophies and 2) stripping away virtually all of the absolute standards which God’s people once cherished, because of giving in to pressure from the world. These absolute standards are essential to holiness and must be fully restored to each and every one of our lives, if we expect to stand at the judgment seat of Christ with any degree of confidence. I would also strongly advise you to stop ignoring the scriptures that you routinely skip, and start obeying them, because even if they aren’t important to you or your church leaders, they are still important to God; and He expects us to follow them. He is not interested in our excuses—just our obedience. God is not getting nearly as much as He wants from us, because the body of Christ is in a state of lukewarm carnality, and I dare say apostasy. What is God getting from YOU? If you really want to show God that you love Him, then don’t just settle for praising Him with your lips. Do what the scriptures command—whether the rest of the church does it or not; because when you stand before Him, you will stand alone—just like the rest of us.

Day 94

“Does not even nature itself teach you...?”—1 Corinthians 11:14

Mankind is the crown of God’s creation. When He made us in the beginning, He made us perfect. His design was flawless—without error. God’s natural design is obvious. When He made man and woman, He made them completely different. That’s where the mutual attraction comes in. Through nature, God designed men to have short hair, and women to have long hair: “Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her [by God] for a covering." (1 Corinthians 11:14-15) God also designed men to have beards, while he designed women to have smooth faces. In addition, He gave men a significant amount of body hair, while He gave women minimal body hair. The Lord also designed men to have hard, muscular bodies, while He designed women to have soft, curvy bodies. Then, of course, there are the gender-specific body parts which are obviously different for male and female. When God made man and woman, every detail of His design was to make a clear, obvious distinction between male and female. "Then God saw everything that He had made, and indeed it was very good." (Genesis 1:31)

When those who belong to Christ think of that which is unnatural, the first thing that we think of is homosexuality, because the homosexual lifestyle obviously violates God's natural design. That is not the way that God designed us to be; and that is what makes it unnatural. But I am here to tell you that it is not only homosexuality that is unnatural in God's eyes, but everything that we do that violates God's natural design, blurring the clear distinction that God made between male and female. It is all unnatural, sinful, and makes God angry. He isn't interested in the endless excuses that our church leaders come up with to justify their apathetic attitude in this matter, or the millions upon millions of believers throughout the body of Christ, worldwide, who have fallen into the same basic mentality. God requires us to do that which is natural, and that means strictly conforming to His natural design, which makes a very clear distinction between male and female.

Men have a natural attraction towards long hair on women. That is the way God made us. Men who prefer short hair on women, or who don't care one way or another, are that way because they have allowed themselves to be conditioned throughout their life. Conversely, women have a natural attraction towards short hair on men. That is the way that God made them. Women who prefer long hair on men, or who don't care one way or another, are that way because they, too, have allowed themselves to be conditioned during their lifetime. Feminists, homosexuals, pagans, and everyone else who promotes the gender-ambiguous values of this world's system have always been prepared to offer "free advice" on how to "look better" and "improve yourself" by violating God's natural design. And God's people buy into their nonsense just as easily as the rest of the world. Women in Bible times knew that God naturally designed them to have long hair, so they grew their hair long. It is generally accepted that the women back then grew their hair down to the waist/hip area. Can you imagine Mary wiping Jesus' feet with her hair, if her hair length were the same as typical born again Bible-believing women of today? It would have been impossible! "Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her for a covering." (1 Corinthians 11:14-15) Every time a man grows his hair long, he is violating God's natural design, doing that which is unnatural. And every time a woman cuts her hair short, she is also violating God's natural design, doing that which is unnatural. God expects every girl and woman to grow her hair long, unless it is literally impossible. Women who claim that they can't grow their hair long, but keep cutting it, are clearly deceiving themselves and sinning against God.

Some years ago God put it in my heart to start questioning why, every day of my life, I was continually shaving off my beard—one of the things that He created to make a clear distinction between men and women. It never occurred to me that whenever God creates something, and His children destroy or ignore it, God gets really upset. And no amount of fine-sounding excuses are acceptable in His sight. He requires us all to behave like His children—and honor that which He has created—NOT destroy it like the world does. The whole issue of shaving off my beard started to bother my conscience, so I asked Him to reveal His truth—which He did; and I've been wearing a beard ever since.

The people of King David's day were so convinced that shaving one's beard off was unnatural in the sight of God, that a bloody war was started when the Ammonite nation disgraced David's men by shaving off half their beards (2 Samuel 10). Years ago, before liberty in Christ was used to excuse any and every sin under the sun as it is done today, born again Bible-believers were shocked when men shaved off their beards. These days they couldn't care less. However, God created beards on men to make a clear distinction between them and women; and whether we like it or not, we have absolutely no business shaving them off. They are God's natural design, and they are His gift. He isn't interested in our viewpoint when it conflicts with His natural creation.

Men of God who know these things, and yet adamantly refuse to allow God's natural creation to take over by growing their beards, refuse because other Christian men aren't doing it, and because their wives, who are accustomed to smooth-faced men, don't like it. It's all about peer pressure and pleasing others (including wives) before God—just like the world. God has no say in the matter. And they never even stop to think that the practice of men shaving off their beards comes straight from pagan Rome, "the mother of harlots and of the abominations of the earth." (Revelation 17:5)

With all the gender ambiguous filth being pushed on us by the feminists and the homosexuals, people are continually imitating the opposite sex. They even want their bodies to be like the opposite sex. The sad thing is, those who belong to Christ are doing the exact same thing. Once again, they have deceived themselves into believing that liberty in Christ covers every abomination under the sun, but they are sadly mistaken; and God will hold them accountable. God deliberately made a clear distinction between male and female by giving men a significant amount of body hair, while He gave women minimal body hair. But men are now shaving their bodies, from top to bottom, resulting in smooth-skinned bodies like women. They think that any excuse will do, as long as they can pacify their conscience.

At the same time, women want bodies like men—yes, even those who belong to Christ desire the same perversion. There are no limits to perversion when liberty in Christ is continually used as an idol to excuse any and every sin under the sun. And that is what our born again Bible churches do today—provide excuses for their congregations' sins—over and over and over again. God made it clear that “the glory of young men is their strength.” (Proverbs 20:29) But the feminists, whom “women of God” are continually condemning, while hypocritically imitating, have declared that women are the strong ones. So despite the fact that God designed men to have hard, muscular bodies, while He designed women to have soft, curvy bodies (Even doctors will acknowledge this, if they are honest)—and despite the fact that God designed His daughters to be “lovely and delicate” (Jeremiah 6:2), women of God are still pursuing masculinity by “building muscle in the name of Jesus.” Why, our churches even have exercise programs (which have no business being in the house of God in the first place) that encourage “women of God” to lift weights, under the delusion that they are edifying the temple of the Holy Spirit, when in fact they are violating God’s natural design in the process! Isn’t it wonderful how modern believers have distorted liberty in Christ (Please note the sarcasm.)?

God hates all of this, and He expects it to stop! He created certain qualities in males and females to be distinctly different; and every time we violate those differences, we violate God’s natural design, sinfully doing what is unnatural. We constantly imitate the world’s ways, even though the scriptures continuously warn us not to. We can continue following the twisted wisdom of this world, stubbornly refusing to follow the standards of God’s natural design, or we can start doing what God expects of us, and get one step closer in our walk with Christ. The choice is ours. If you haven’t done so already, God is waiting for you to make the right one. “Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.” (Hebrews 4:7)

Day 95

LONG HAIR ON WOMEN AND SHORT HAIR ON MEN HONOR GOD'S NATURAL DESIGN.

"Does not even NATURE itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor [KJV—"shame"] to him? But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given to her [by God] for a covering."—1 Cor. 11:14-15

SHORT HAIR ON WOMEN AND LONG HAIR ON MEN VIOLATE GOD'S NATURAL DESIGN.

Day 96

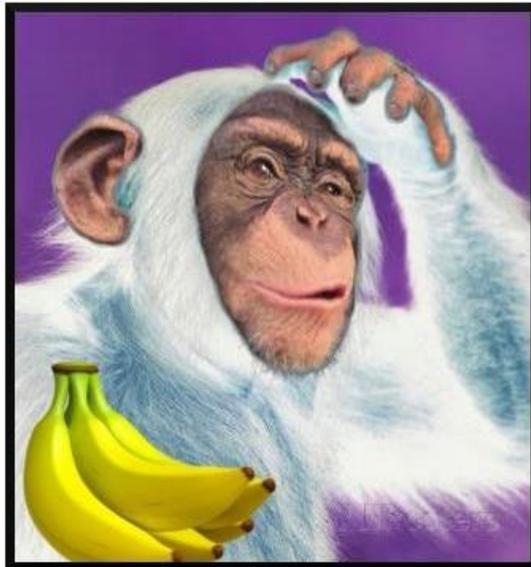

"The Lord sat enthroned at the Flood...

And the Lord sits as King forever."
—Psalm 29:10

Day 97

DUMB AND DUMBER

For 170+ years those who run the feminist movement have rejected the Bible because they know that it is opposed to all the teachings of feminism. In response, our born again Bible churches continually twist scripture to accommodate feminism. The resulting abomination has been labeled "Christian" feminism. Even silly old monkeys are scratching their heads over that one!

Day 98

ONLY PRINCESSES IN HEAVEN

There is no feminism in heaven—only princesses. If you really believe that you can serve Jesus Christ while living a Christian feminist lifestyle, which amounts to imitating men, and which is completely unscriptural, you are deceiving yourself. My advice? Renounce Christian feminism and return to femininity, ladies. That's God's natural design. Anything else is unnatural and a violation of God's creation.

Day 99

If Chivalry Is Dead...

then it is mainly due to girls and women imitating 170+ years of feminist clothing and feminist lifestyles, which were deliberately designed to make girls and women like boys and men. You must give up your feminist clothing in exchange for dresses, and give up your feminist lifestyle in exchange for a feminine lifestyle. Otherwise, DO NOT expect to be treated like a lady. If you continue to dress and behave like a guy, then expect to be treated like one. Feminism of ANY kind is 100% incompatible with femininity, and is an abomination to the Lord. "Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man [or woman] sows, that he [or she] will also reap." (Galatians 6:7) Pursue femininity, ladies. It's God's natural design. Honor it. And make sure that your daughters do the same.

Day 100

WHY DO PEOPLE TODAY CONTINUALLY SPEAK TO FEMALES AS IF THEY WERE MEN???

What is the reason that females are now spoken to as if they were men? One word: feminism. We've all been deceived. For over 170 years the feminists have had us believing their lies. And make no mistake—they have been liars from the very beginning. The filth that we see in so-called "radical" feminism today is nothing new; and it's no more radical now than it was over 170 years ago. All feminism is radical and has successfully turned God's female creation on its head. The only difference between feminists over 170 years ago and now is that the feminists of today now have ultimate power and are unstoppable, so they are no longer afraid to show their true colors. For over 170 years they have been telling us that they are the protectors of women, when in truth, they have always been the deceivers of women (and men, as well.). And God's people have been just as easily deceived as everyone else.

From the very beginning the feminists have had one all-consuming goal in mind—to make girls and women as masculine as possible. And they have done a bang-up job, too. Girls and women today are more masculine than ever. True femininity today is almost non-existent. Every area of life is contaminated by feminism, even in our born again Bible churches, and in the lives of those who belong to Christ.

I could literally write hundreds and hundreds of pages detailing the filth that has been adopted by God's people from feminism. This is literally a 24-hour-a-day, seven-day-a-week, 365-day-a-year problem. And it's worldwide. God's people are totally consumed with feminism, but they have been so accustomed to living the feminist lifestyle for so long that they are totally oblivious to it. But God despises it, and He expects us to fully repent—to renounce feminism completely and entirely in ALL of its details, without ANY reservations. But that is something which God's people as a whole are apparently unwilling to do.

I obviously don't have enough room here to detail all of the filth of feminism; however, I would like to address a few of the common male references which the feminists have deliberately twisted into common, vile "expressions" in order to condition us into thinking of females as males (Remember that the true goal of all feminism, even the so-called "milder" forms of feminism, is to subtly masculinize females.). These words have been successfully sneaked into the culture by the feminists, and are even used by God's people, to God's great disgust. Nobody who names the name of Christ should ever use these words in reference to females.

The five most common of these words which are abused on a daily basis by non-Christians and Christians alike are "guys," "man," "dude," "buddy," and "pal." All of these are male references which are continually used when speaking about, or speaking to, females. Years ago, when a girl's or woman's femininity was considered to be a precious gift from God, you would never ever hear these words in reference to girls or women. For a female to be called these words was rightfully considered the ultimate insult, and would instantly bring tears to their eyes. These days females couldn't care less, and even so-called "women of God" have very little (if any) concern for their femininity, and are actually proud to be considered like "one of the guys." ("♪♪ Anything he can do, I can do better! ♪♪ Woo hoo! Look at my muscles! Look at my muscles!")

I have news for you, my Christian friend. No girl or woman is a "guy," "man," "dude," "buddy," or "pal." So why do I continually hear this filth from the lips of God's people? Two teenage girls walk into church, and a boy greets them: "Hey, GUYS, how are you doing?" Two Christian girls greet each other in the hallway. One says, "Hey, MAN, what's up?" The other responds, "DUDE...it's soooo good to see you!" A Christian man proudly introduces his daughter and gives her a hug, saying, "This is my daughter, Mary. She's my BUDDY!" Mary responds, "That's right! We're PALS!" Even our church leaders are into these filthy feminist expressions. When addressing their congregations full of men and women, church leaders continually say things like, "You GUYS are the greatest congregation a pastor could have," referring to the females just as much as to the males. Whether we are willing to accept it or not, whenever God hears females spoken of in this way, He is extremely annoyed. Every time God's children speak like this, they are carelessly insulting His feminine creation. Remember that this is deliberate feminist indoctrination. If you think that God doesn't care, and that he'll overlook it, you are sadly mistaken, and you'd better think again. Jesus made it very clear when He said, "Every idle [careless] word men may speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment." (Matthew 12:36) Beware!

So how do we solve the problem of speaking to females as though they were men? The first thing you need to do is to refuse to allow the feminist expressions that you are so accustomed to using come out of your mouth. Simply don't say them. Then think hard until you come up with something appropriate. The most logical words to use are the normal, morally upright words that everyone used before the feminists replaced them with their filthy expressions (which are all designed to masculinize females). These are very easy, because they are common sense, and you should be able to master them with just a little practice:

- Instead of calling females "man" or "dude," just call them by their name, or simply say, "Hi."
- Instead of using the masculine words "buddy," or "pal" when referring to a female, simply use the word "friend."
- The most abused masculine reference to females is "guys." This one is a little more complicated, because it is used so much; however, once again, simply return to the normal, common sense, morally upright words that were used before the feminist contamination came. Here's the rule:

Any time a female or females are being spoken to or spoken about, regardless of the number of males that are present or spoken about, the word "guys" must never be used. The only time those words are appropriate is when speaking to or about males only. A crowd must never be addressed as "guys" when there is a female present. Any such usage is a direct insult to the girl's or woman's femininity, which God created and greatly values. If you want to say "guys and girls," "boys and girls," or "ladies and gentlemen" when both genders are present, that is perfectly acceptable, since it makes a clear distinction between the males and females.

Now to help you sort this out logically, here are some of the phrases which were used before the feminist contamination. Whenever one or more females is included in a conversation, whether being spoken to or about, never say "you guys." Instead, say phrases like, "you two," "you three," "the two of you," "the three of you," "all of you," "you all," etc. "Everyone" and "everybody" are also great words. For example, instead of saying, "Listen, you guys," say, "Listen, everyone," or "Listen, everybody." "People" or "You people" is also acceptable. Whenever addressing females, you can also say, "Girls," or "Ladies," instead of saying "You guys."

And ladies, anytime someone includes you in a group, calling you "guys," or whenever someone calls you "man," "dude," "buddy," or "pal," let them know that they are offending you. You can politely say something like, "Excuse me, sir (or ma'am), but I am a lady (or girl). I am not a guy (or man, dude, buddy, or pal)."

I think you have the idea. I'm sure you can take it from here. Keep in mind that this is not an advice column on etiquette, but is serious instruction on stripping away filthy feminist language and replacing it with pure words that are pleasing to God. It's not enough to simply praise Jesus all the time if our everyday words are offensive to Him. Be wary, and God be with you!

Day 101

"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves."— Matthew 7:15

"But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction."—2 Peter 2:1

THREE CHRISTIAN
LADIES WHO SWITCHED FROM WEARING
FEMINIST CLOTHING TO BEING "DRESSES ONLY LADIES"

READ THEIR TESTIMONIES HERE.

(NAMES WITHHELD FOR PRIVACY)

CHRISTIAN LADY 1:

"I have been wearing only dresses for about 2 years. The year or two before that I would wear them a lot when we left the house. I have always felt more comfortable in jumper style dresses than in jeans or slacks. I never did wear shorts in public as an adult. I grew up in the 70's and early 80's and can see now how wrong my motives were in wearing tight jeans. (I would never wear short dresses as a teen even when they were in style, but my jeans were just as bad!) Back then I wanted to catch men's eyes, now I know that is a sinful way to act. I started really looking at a lot of areas in my life and praying about where I needed to change. I have not been purposely immodest since I have been married, but the Lord showed me things in my life that could be seen by others differently than how I was perceiving myself. I needed to be different than the world. This has been true in other areas besides the way I dress. The Lord has been working in many new ways in my life.

Another reason for my wearing dresses has to do with an inward attitude. I have not been very submissive in our marriage. I was always head strong and my dh [dear husband] allowed me to be. I read about one woman's reason for wearing only dresses that really spoke to me (either on this site or in one of the magazines I get). She said that she wear dresses to remind her of who wears the pants in the family. I have to admit, I still struggle with this one, but I am getting better!

When I first started wearing dresses two years ago I asked my dh [dear husband] about it, he didn't care one way or the other. Now, he thinks that modest dresses are right because they are not revealing like jeans and T-shirts can be. I have also noticed that when I am out shopping with the dc [dear children] or alone that men treat me with more respect.

The only problem I have had with wearing dresses only is the wind here can create some quite difficult situations. Dress past my knees could cause some embarrassing moments. But I solved that problem this year when I made myself some new jumpers by making them even longer, down to my ankles. Now even on the windiest day I don't have to hold my dress down.

I hope this has been some help for you. I pray that the Lord will show you what is right for your family."

CHRISTIAN LADY 2:

"Well, I have slowly been making this switch. I have to say that until I started coming to this site, I was dresses at church events only. I loved my jeans. My dh [dear husband] loved me in my jeans.

However, over the past year we would discuss something that one of you here would post. While I was on bed rest this past spring I ordered Dr. Davis' tape on modest clothing. INSIGHTFUL! I then became dresses only outside of the house.

This fall, I had started feeling as though I am a bad testimony to God when I check the mail (across the street) or answer the door in jeans. I actually stopped checking the mail & coming to the door if I was wearing pants. Funny though it may seem I would verbally beat myself up over wearing pants & what kind of message I was sending.

I had decided that when the last of my jeans got a hole that needed to be dealt with then the pants would get tossed. That was the day I read the post by a lady on the message board. When I had sat down I couldn't even feel the hole. When I stood up it was more than an inch across. That was it, I got up & tossed all the pants I had.

BTW, I started my dd [dear daughter] out as dresses only from the day she was born. She won't have the same issues with her attire that I do. AT least that is my goal.

As a side note, those who are thinking about changing your wardrobe to dresses only here are some interesting things I have noticed.

.Men look at my face, NOT my chest

.My Dh [dear husband] & my DS [dear son] tell me how pretty I look (so did an elderly guy at church)

.I have more room to maneuver while being modest doing so

.I feel like a Lady, not just a woman, but an old fashioned LADY

.People are more willing to help me when I am in a dress

.People take me more seriously in a dress

Those are all reasons enough that I would not want my dd [dear daughter] to wear pants. The most important reason of all is that dresses please God!"

CHRISTIAN LADY 3:

"I will share my story with you.

Preface: I grew up in a Christian home & came to Christ very early but everything seemed to come from a view through world colored glasses.

Well, the Lord gave me all girls - I have three & they are now three. After the first year of many, many, many diapers & scheduling & the like I came up for air to the terrifying reality that God has given me daughters to raise to be godly women!!! There I began my quest. I searched the Word over to find just what God would have me do.

I began asking a few chosen Titus 2 friends who I knew to be modeling biblical womanhood to their daughters.

An issue I never expected to be apart of this quest was my outward appearance. Except for a few years of total rebellion & running from God, I have always thought myself to be a modest dresser (albeit very stylish). I have always been a tomboy so I had never embraced my femininity. I have always been proud (& always encouraged) to be able to keep up with the men in just about everything from climbing trees for fun to climbing the roof for repairs to climbing the corporate ladder. I have actually been proud of my figure & it has always gotten me attention.

Then, I stumbled across an article that astounded me! I dug & dug into the word & studied it like never before (plus listened to the SM Davis tape w/dh & he, too was astounded). I could not believe that I had never fully understood this subject before! I was mortified to think how I felt I had grieved the Lord on this for so long. The decision to follow the Word with my outward appearance was very, very simple. I just wanted to please my Heavenly Father! So, out went every pair of pants & on went the few dresses that I owned (I had worn them occasionally), cold turkey (my girls wardrobe, too). It has been six months & I now look at how I dress as a joyful act of worship (& way to honor my dh). Dresses are actually far more comfortable than any waist binding, bottom pinching, constricting pants ever can be. Not that I wore skin tight pants, mind you, but, lets face facts, jeans just snug you in all over. I feel pretty liberated by this, as silly as that may sound.

So, needless to say, my trek & this issue, in particular, have brought to light some subtle, but very ungodly areas in my life. I am pressing into the Lord more strongly each day, seeking His forgiveness & His help to press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. Hallelujah, what a Savior!

Has anyone asked me about wearing only dresses? Only one person - my SIL & I wasn't clever enough to say anything but the truth that God has been calling me to give some tough answers to things I have never thought were questions before. Do I care what anyone thinks about me wearing only dresses? Not a chance. Not now.

I pray the Lord reveals what He has for you from His word & that you delight in following after Him in the process."

Day 103

THE BLIND HYPOCRISY OF SO-CALLED "CHRISTIAN FEMINISM"

Excuse me, sir— but why are you dressed like a woman?

I don't know...Why are you dressed like a man?

I'm a pagan. What's your excuse?

Well... ah... um... er... Christian feminism (gulp!)

When Christian women (and men) in our born again churches see guys dress like women, they get infuriated; but Christian women hypocritically use so-called "Christian feminism" as an excuse to dress like guys every day of their lives, and expect God to hold them blameless. HE WILL NOT. 170+ years of feminism has brainwashed and conditioned God's people so badly that our pastors actually defend this behavior.

Christian women continually use Deuteronomy 22:5 to condemn men who dress like women, but they conveniently ignore the part of the verse which addresses WOMEN FIRST: "A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man,... for all who do so are an abomination to the Lord your God." The excuse that "all the other women are doing it," and "my pastor says it's alright" will not justify you when you stand before Christ. This generation of Christians is going to be in deep shock on that day, because they believe that God is going to shower apathetic Christians with great heavenly rewards just for being saved. They are gravely mistaken. He will NOT be pleased. It's time to renounce feminism, ladies, and get back to dresses only.

WHY DO FEMINISTS HATE THE WORD OF GOD?

The reason that those who run the feminist movement hate the Bible is because they know that the Bible is 100% incompatible with feminism. Despite the fact that their entire movement is based on lies and deception, at least they are honest on that point. So why have God's people spent over 170 years incorporating feminist principles into every area of their lives, while our churches have tried to excuse it by taking scripture out of context, in an attempt to make it compatible with feminism, when even the feminist leaders themselves acknowledge that the Bible and feminism don't mix?

The concept of "Christian feminism" is just as much a myth as the belief in "radical feminism." All feminism is radical; and despite the propaganda, the real purpose of feminism has always been to make girls and women like men, in the name of so-called "equality." 2 Peter 2:19 is a perfect description of those who have been running the feminist movement from the very beginning: "While they promise them liberty, they themselves are slaves of corruption..." This has been going on for over 170 years, folks!

Jesus said, "No one can serve two masters." (Matthew 6:24) You cannot serve God and the goddess of feminism. You are either a Christian or a feminist. You cannot be both. It's time to choose. "Choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve..." (Joshua 24:15)

We love to sing "Give Me That Old Time Religion," because it makes us feel good. But as a whole, God's people refuse to actually go back to that old time religion which they claim to love; and we can never get back to "that old time religion" until men take up their God-ordained role of authority again, and women (along with their daughters) return to the feminine standards that they had before they started listening to the feminist movement's doctrines of demons (1 Timothy 4:1), urging girls and women to strip away their femininity... little by little... step by step... day after day...year after year, and decade after decade... until all that is left is a vague memory of what it truly means to be feminine. Return, and pursue femininity with all your heart and all your soul, ladies. It's the way that God designed you to be, so it's the only way that you can be truly happy.

Day 105

"Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of heaven."—Jesus Christ (Matthew 19:14)

Day 106

"Feminism...masquerades as a movement for women's rights.... Feminism is elite social engineering designed to destroy gender identity by making women masculine...."
—Henry Makow, Ph.D.

The Christian Model (Practiced by Christian Females of the Past)

—Honors scripture, nature, conscience, and common sense by maintaining a clear distinction from males

•God designed females to be feminine ("lovely and delicate"—Jeremiah 6:2).

•God's word says that "The glory of young men is their strength." (Proverbs 20:29)

Long hair on females honors God's natural design. (1 Cor. 11:14-15)

Female clothing (dresses) are a sharp contrast between male clothing. Honors God's commandment in Deut. 22:5.

The Feminist Model (Practiced by Christian Females of Today)

—Ignores scripture, nature, conscience, and common sense by imitating males, and is constantly justified with fine sounding excuses

•Feminism despises femininity in females, and strives to make them masculine.

•Feminism says that the glory of young women is their strength.

Short hair on females violates God's natural design. (1 Cor. 11:14-15)

Feminist clothing (shirts and pants) violates God's commandment for females not to imitate male clothing (Deut. 22:5).

"It is ironic that many women refuse to openly associate themselves with the radical feminist movement of our day, yet lend their support through the manner in which they dress." —Rev. Tim Hudson

Day 107

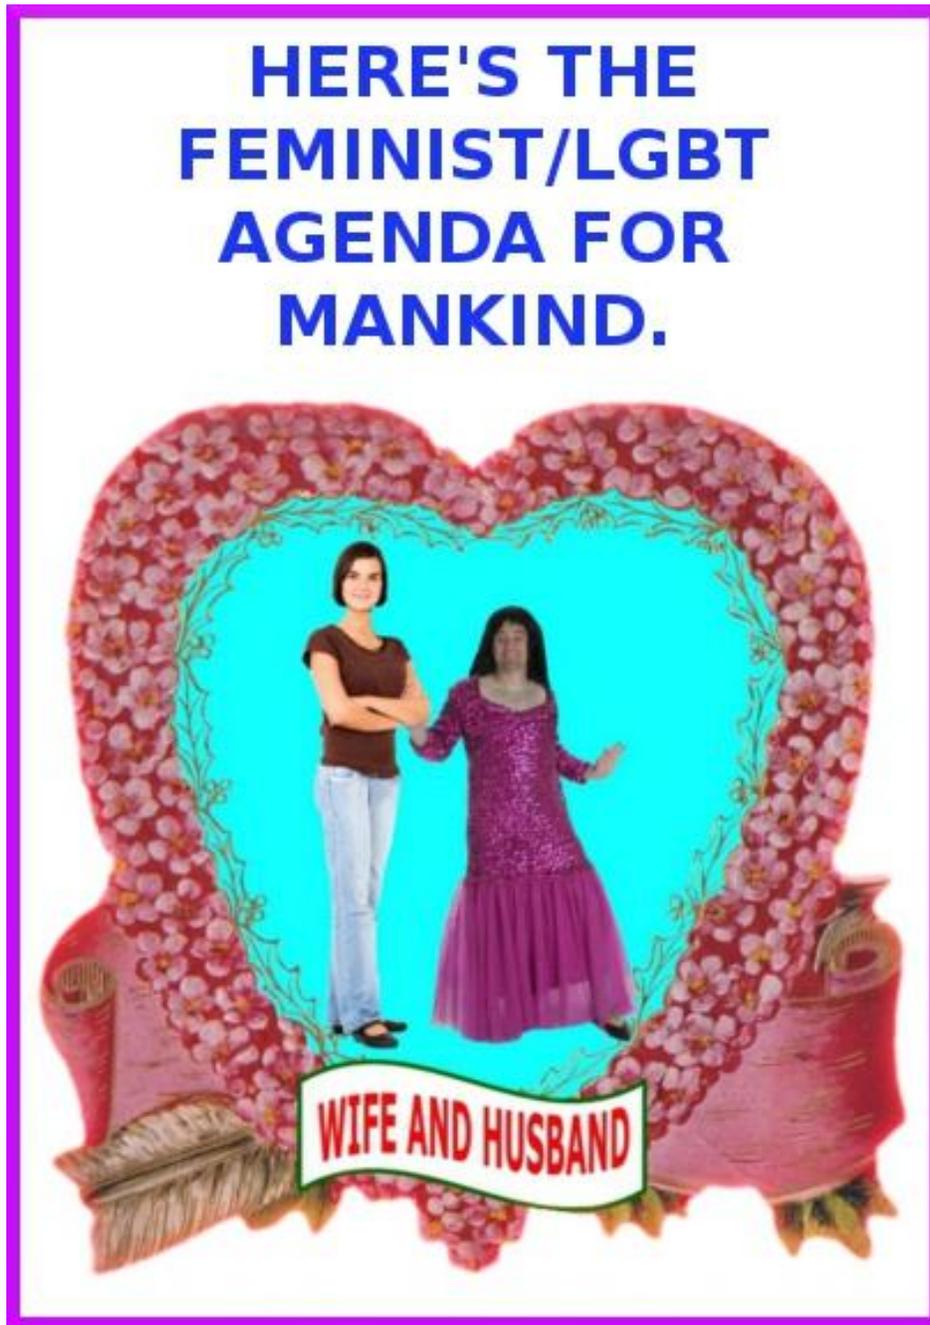

ROMANS 8:28

One of the most misquoted passages in the Bible today is Romans 8:28: "And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose."

Our churches use this verse to teach us that simply being saved is a guarantee that everything will work out for good for us. However, this scripture says "TO THOSE WHO LOVE GOD...." Jesus said, "He who has My commandments and keeps them, it is he who loves Me." (John 14:21) Don't expect all things to work together for good for you if you continually ignore the commandments of scripture. "And whatever we ask we receive from Him, BECAUSE WE KEEP HIS COMMANDMENTS AND DO THOSE THINGS THAT ARE PLEASING IN HIS SIGHT." (1 John 3:22) Think about it!

Day 108

The image shown above is the feminist/LGBT agenda for mankind. Examine it carefully. As you can see by the clothing, girls and women (including those who belong to Christ) already gave in to their agenda long ago. The feminist/LGBT movement is simply waiting for boys and men to fully go along with their plan; and they are already getting in line!

Because God's people bowed to feminism a long time ago, and Christianized it, virtually every born again Bible church of today routinely twists scripture to accommodate feminism, and ignores passages of scripture which contradict their adopted feminist ideals. This is why men are branded as perverts when they dress like women; but every single day of their lives Christian girls and women are free to wear feminist clothing, which was expressly created to imitate men's clothing. As a result, here is how the typical born again Bible church of today basically approaches and practices Deuteronomy 22:5:

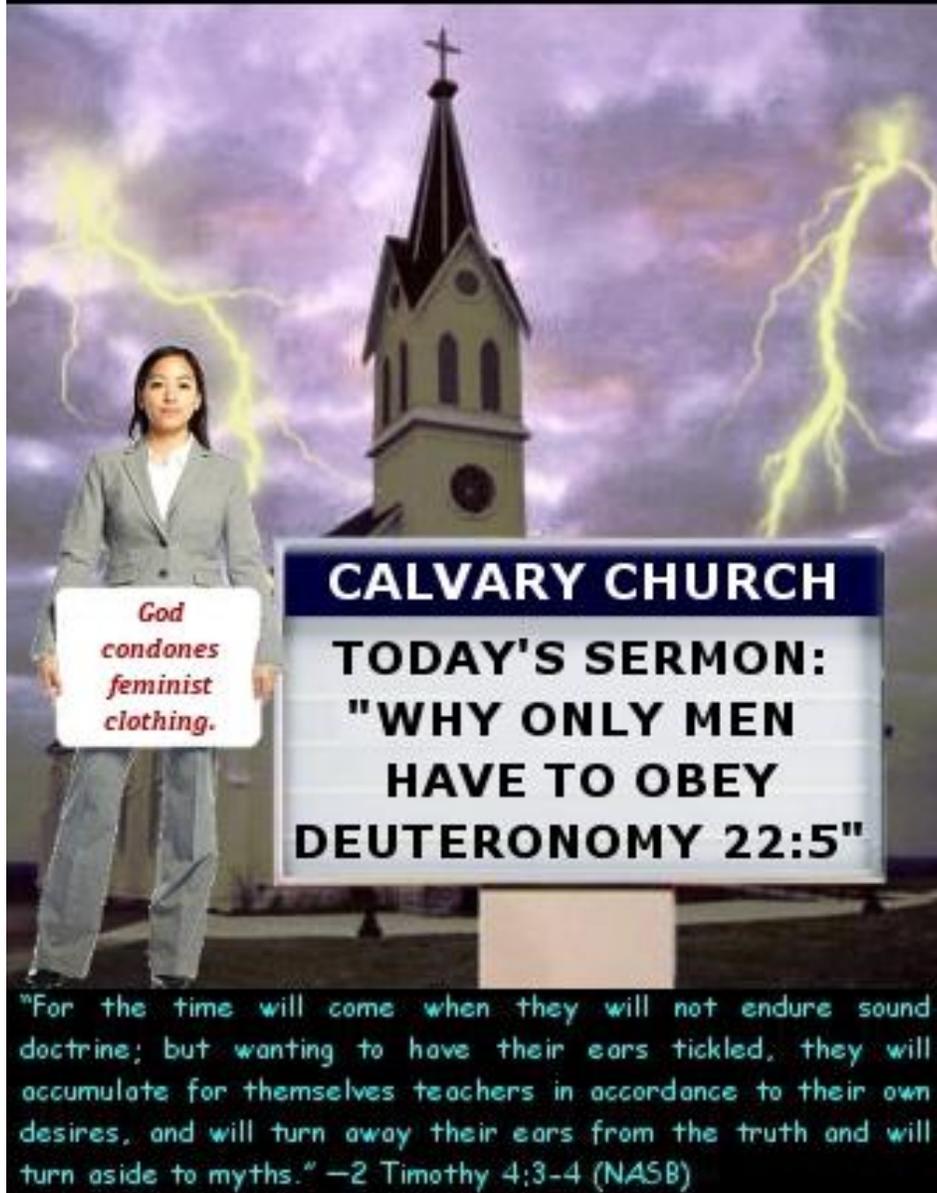

~~"A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man,~~ NOR SHALL A MAN PUT ON A WOMAN'S GARMENT, for all who do so are an abomination to the Lord your God."

Typical feminist hypocrisy adopted by our born again churches! If you can't see it, child of God, I truly pity you! Feminism continually demands restrictions upon men, but condemns restrictions of any kind on a woman, and expects zero accountability from her (This is the same mentality which is now blindly supported by our born again churches.). A woman's only duty as a feminist (whether unbeliever or believer) is to spend her entire lifetime pursuing "equality with man," even though God puts equal value on us all. What the feminists won't tell you is that when they say that they want women to be equal with men, what they really mean is that they want women to become masculine like men. And, sadly, that is exactly what girls and women (both unbeliever and believer alike) have been becoming—especially over the last several decades.

If you seriously believe that feminism can be Christian, and that God is pleased with it, you are gravely mistaken. It's time to repent and renounce feminism completely, woman of God. I advise you to get started by replacing your feminist clothing (shirts and pants) with dresses (or a skirt with a blouse of ruffles or lace). My wife did it.... So can you!

Day 109

1 TIMOTHY 4:1—
"DOCTRINES OF DEMONS":

*God
condones feminist
clothing.*

CALVARY CHURCH
TODAY'S SERMON:
"WHY ONLY MEN
HAVE TO OBEY
DEUTERONOMY 22:5"

"For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires, and will turn away their ears from the truth and will turn aside to myths." —2 Timothy 4:3-4 (NASB)

Day 110

IT'S CALLED "DISOBEDIENCE," CHILD OF GOD...WHETHER WE LIKE IT OR NOT.

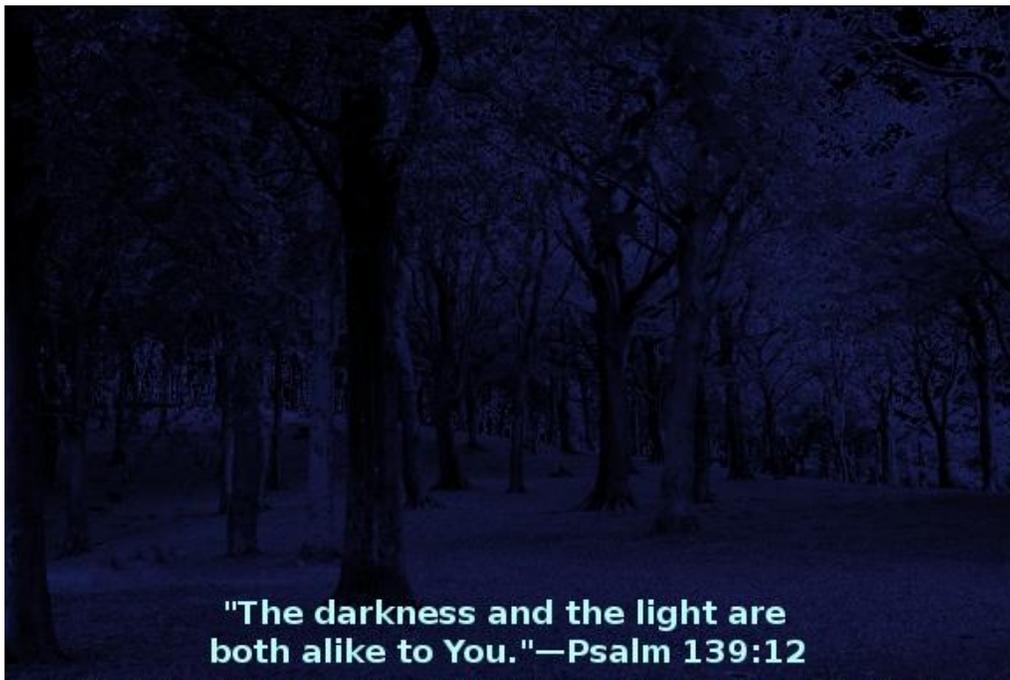

So-called "Christian feminism" (Satan's big lie) allows women to teach and preach the Bible to children and women. This is permitted by our born again churches as a result of giving in to years of feminist pressure; but you will NOT find this ANYWHERE in scripture! It is strictly FORBIDDEN:

"Let your women keep silent in the churches, for they are not permitted to speak; but they are to be submissive, as the law also says. And if they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is shameful for women to speak in church." (1 Cor. 14:34-35) I'm sure you know what the word "silent" means—don't you?

Even those who created the feminist movement 170+ years ago, and those who run the movement today, know EXACTLY what that scripture means. That's one of the main reasons they reject the Bible!

God's people need to strip away the traditions that have been imported into our churches to accommodate feminism, and get back to doing what the scriptures command. 1 CORINTHIANS 14:34-35, ladies and gentlemen. Don't forget it! That includes being silent during church Bible discussions, ladies. It's God's command. If that offends you, take it up with Him. Start obeying God rather than your pastor (Acts 5:29).

Day 111

Day 112

STUPID AND STUPIDER

The Bible says: "The glory of young MEN is their strength."—Proverbs 20:29

Feminism says: The glory of young WOMEN is their strength. They deceive themselves and defile their bodies, as much as their souls.

Since the beginning of the feminist movement (over 170 years ago), those who run the movement have rejected the Bible because they know that it is opposed to all the teachings of feminism. Ironically, from the very beginning, our born again churches, which claim to follow the Bible, have continually walked one step behind the feminists, approving and practicing all but their most recent abominations. Is it any wonder God's daughters are consumed with feminism? Even those who run the feminist movement are scratching their heads over that one!

Day 113

MEDIOCRE CHRISTIANITY

THE CARNAL STATE OF THE BODY OF CHRIST TODAY

If I were to use one word to describe the vast majority of those who belong to Christ today, it would be "mediocre." Nearly everything that we approve of as born again Bible Christians today is not designed to bring about righteous change in our lives (which we refuse), but only to make us feel righteous simply because we have been given the free gift of eternal life by our Lord Jesus Christ. We have deluded ourselves into believing that God expects nothing more from us, when the truth is that He is waiting for each and every one of us as individuals to abandon the filthy traditions that our families and churches have been importing from the world and Christianizing for hundreds of years out of ignorance. Instead, we have done quite the opposite by adding more sin: For more than 170 years (since the feminist movement began), with the full approval of our church leaders, God's people have been actively stripping away (just like the world) the traditional absolute standards which kept us from crossing over the moral line. This has been done mainly to keep up with the latest worldly ideas and to avoid ridicule; because God's people are more concerned with pleasing man than they are in pleasing Him.

Jesus' command for all believers to be perfectionists ("Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."—Matthew 5:48) is an idea that is rejected by our modern born again Bible churches, because they have chosen rather to listen to the worldly advice of "expert psychiatrists," who have deluded us into believing that being a perfectionist is only unique to certain personality types. As a result, most believers think that God is satisfied with the mediocre way that they live out their faith. While most churches use the Old Testament for little more than a glorified history book (except for the constant preaching about tithes), even strict adherence to obeying the commandments of New Testament scripture is now considered "unnecessary," outdated, "legalistic," and optional by those who belong to Christ today, since the rest of the church isn't doing it. One of today's favorite church-approved excuses for disregarding scripture which promotes clear, old-fashioned values is: "Am I going to hell if I don't follow this scripture?" That's not the point. The point is that God requires us to obey His word, and all disobedience to God is sin; and we will give an account for it when we stand before Him. Counterfeit liberty in Christ is continually used by our churches to sanctify and excuse every sin under the sun, and even to nullify the very commandments of New Testament scripture, while men of God who condemn this carnal attitude are branded as "judgmental." It's time for every born again believer to repent and stop following the crowd. And by that I mean stop imitating the world, and stop following the carnal advice of our modern born again Bible churches, which are basically in a state of lukewarm apostasy. Instead, start obeying the scriptures wholeheartedly—without compromise; and regardless of whether "Pastor Angel Face" tells you it's unnecessary. Tough words? You bet! But consider this: Our Lord Jesus Christ will not reward us for our mediocrity when we stand before Him. It's time to wake up!

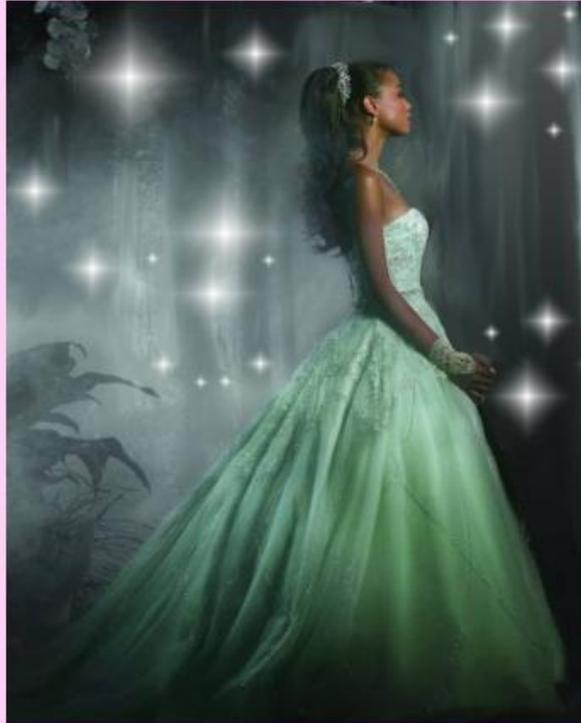

"For God will bring every work into judgment, including every secret thing, whether good or evil." —Ecclesiastes 12:14

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad." —2 Corinthians 5:10

"For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is. If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire." —1 Corinthians 3:11-15

ONLY PRINCESSES IN HEAVEN

There is no feminism in heaven—only princesses. If you really believe that you can serve Jesus Christ while living a Christian feminist lifestyle, which amounts to imitating men, and which is completely unscriptural, you are deceiving yourself. My advice? Renounce Christian feminism and return to femininity, ladies. That's God's natural design. Anything else is unnatural and a violation of God's creation.

Day 115

CHRISTIAN WOMEN DO NOT BELONG IN THE MILITARY.

Feminism has no bounds. God's people just don't seem to get that. We have deceived ourselves into believing that the "new," so-called "radical" feminism of today is far worse than feminism was when it was created over 170 years ago. Not so! They are one and the same. I'm here to tell you that the only difference between feminism of over 170 years ago and feminism today is that their true motives (to make women become like men) were disguised back then, but today these motives are no longer hidden. And they have succeeded greatly in their quest to masculinize women. Most girls and women today (including those who belong to Christ) live, breathe, behave, dress, and think like boys and men on a daily basis. Every once in a while they do something feminine to appease their conscience and fool themselves into believing that they haven't already allowed feminism to turn them into freaks who continually violate their God-given femininity. I am not only talking about unbelievers, but also the vast majority of girls and women who actually belong to Christ. Their blindness is shared by our born again church leaders, who continually defend and support them in the name of liberty in Christ and so-called "Christian" feminism. And dozens of scriptures which tell women how to behave are continually ignored, trivialized, or modified by our church leaders, while other scriptures are twisted to lead everyone into believing that the Bible supports "Christian feminism"—which it does not. All this is done so that Christian girls and women can continue to feel comfortable with their feminist lifestyles and clothing, which God despises. The problem is that for over 170 years our born again Bible churches have continually walked one step behind the feminist movement, condemning and rejecting the newest feminist teachings and practices, while continually importing into the body of Christ the feminist teachings and practices that they rejected in the past. As a result, there is now little difference between the lifestyles of women who belong to Christ and the lifestyles of those who run the feminist movement, whom our churches hypocritically condemn, since they are doing the same things. They are virtually identical in almost every way. Consequently, true femininity today is almost non-existent—not only in the world, but in the body of Christ, as well.

One of the feminists' abominable practices (among hundreds) is women joining the military. This has been going on for way too long. In the scriptures you will find that when God had Israel set up their military, He only had men enroll—NOT women:

“Take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel, by their families, by their fathers' houses, according to the number of names, every male individually, from twenty years old and above—all who are able to go to war in Israel. You and Aaron shall number them by their armies.”

—The LORD, Numbers 1:2-3

As a matter of fact, you will not find even one woman in the military on any level in the entirety of scripture! Despite the loud-mouthed protests of the women who run the feminist movement, God did not design women to be the protectors. That is the role that God has given to men, and only men. For women to desire or pursue a military career or lifestyle on any level (even just sitting behind a desk) is unnatural, perverted, and a slap in the face of our Creator, because it is a direct violation of God's natural design, which drives the feminine nature in girls and women.

Here are just a few of the ways that women are required to violate God's natural design (their God-given femininity) when they are in the military:

.They must have their hair shaved when they begin their training, in violation of 1 Corinthians 11:14-15, which makes it clear that God designed women to have long hair.

.They must dress in uniforms which reflect the typical feminist fashions of today, patterned after men's clothing (shirts and pants, rather than dresses or traditional ruffled blouses with skirts), in violation of Deuteronomy 22:5.

.As they move up in rank (even in office jobs), they will be given authority over others, which is the role which God has given exclusively to men.

.They are forced to suppress and fight against their God-given feminine nature by learning to think, behave, and function like men.

.They are required to be aggressive, build muscle, and perform like men, contrary to God's natural design of women.

.They must take on the role of soldiers and protectors, the role given by God exclusively to men (as mentioned in the paragraph above).

.And the list goes on....

Bottom line: Women have no business being in the military (even in an office job)—especially those who profess Jesus Christ as Lord. It is a feminist pursuit. Ironically, TV stations, radio stations, newspapers, and the internet are continually using the phrase “our brave men and women in the military.” You expect this mentality from the world, but the same phrase is continually on the lips of our Christian leaders, as well! And whenever a holiday comes around in honor of those in the military, our born again Bible churches are always very careful to give honor to both men and women in the military. Hear this! A woman in the military is only considered an honor in the eyes of sinful mankind—not in the eyes of God. “[W]hat is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God.” (Our Lord Jesus Christ, Luke 16:15) It is a disgrace for women to be in the military—especially those who profess Christ as their Lord. They should know better. Their very presence in the military is a clear violation of their God-given femininity. Such women should not be honored and praised by our church leaders, but exhorted and rebuked instead. Get your head on straight, Christian.

Day 116

6 FEMALE FASHIONS (AMONG MANY) THAT MEN HAVE ALLOWED HOMOSEXUALS TO ENTICE THEM INTO WEARING:

EARRINGS

TIGHTS

HAIR

CLOTHING

CLOTHING

While Christians have learned to expect this type of repulsive behavior from the world, it's even more shocking when God's people do it. When I see born again pastors wearing pink shirts and ties, "men of God" wearing hair buns and other effeminate fashions adopted from women by homosexuals, I have to ask myself what is wrong with the body of Christ. And not only that, but Christian parents are even dressing their sons like this! Have we gone mad? God's people need to repent along with the rest of the world, because "The Lord will judge His people"! (Heb. 10:30) And "if we would judge ourselves, we would not be judged." (1 Cor. 11:31)

Day 117

Dresses were created for females many centuries ago to make a clear distinction between male and female.

Feminist clothes (shirts, pants, suit jackets, etc.) were created to replace dresses on females in order to imitate male clothing and make females like males—all in the name of "equality."

The entire feminist movement, created over 170 years ago, was built with feminist clothing as its foundation—clothing designed to strip away their femininity. If girls and women everywhere would throw away ALL their feminist clothing, and return to DRESSES ONLY, loud-mouthed feminist activists would lose their power, and their entire movement would eventually crumble, because feminist clothing is a 24-hour-a-day continual reminder of their power, and symbolizes their total rejection of femininity. Whether they realize it or not, every born again Christian girl and woman who wears feminist clothing is helping to strengthen the feminist, unisex, and "transgender" movements, as well as the New World Order, and is weakening her testimony for our Lord Jesus Christ. Please stop.

"It is ironic that many women refuse to openly associate themselves with the radical feminist movement of our day, yet lend their support through the manner in which they dress."—Rev. Tim Hudson

Day 118

Ruffled blouse

Lace blouse

In spite of what the feminist-friendly fashion designers say, if it's not made of ruffles or lace, then it's NOT a blouse. It's a SHIRT—a product of MEN's clothing.

Dress Shirt

T shirt

For over 170 years, in order to strip girls and women of their feminine appearance, the demonic leaders of the feminist movement have been telling them that they have the "right" to dress like guys. But God says "A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man,...for all who do so are an abomination to the Lord your God." (Deuteronomy 22:5) Repent, women of God! You cannot serve God and feminism. Obey the scriptures. Dress like women. Get rid of your shirts and get back to blouses. You are not men!

Day 119

Feminism is a rejection of GOD'S NATURAL DESIGN of femininity in girls and women.

RENOUNCE FEMINISM:

Day 121

Day 122

AGAINST FEMINISM

IS THIS CONFUSING?

IT SHOULD BE!

Most women who belong to Christ claim that they REJECT feminism. But they still refuse to give up their feminist clothing, which is the foundation that the 170 year old+ feminist movement was built upon, and was created for the express purpose of stripping away their feminine appearance and making them dress like men. They also refuse to give up their feminist lifestyles, which were created to make them manly in every way. All this is done in the name of "Christian" feminism—Satan's big lie. It kind of makes you wonder if Christians know what it means to REJECT feminism—'cause that ain't it!

"A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man, ...for all who do so are an abomination to the LORD your God."—Deuteronomy 22:5

Day 123

THE END OF PERSONAL MIRACLES?

KNOWING THE FUTURE, JESUS ASKED, "WHEN THE SON OF MAN COMES, WILL HE REALLY FIND FAITH ON THE EARTH?" (LUKE 18:8) THE GREAT LACK OF FAITH OF MODERN BORN AGAIN BIBLE BELIEVERS WHICH WAS IMPLIED BY JESUS SHOULD NOT COME AS A SHOCK, CONSIDERING WHAT OUR BORN AGAIN BIBLE SEMINARIES ARE TEACHING OUR CHURCH LEADERS THESE DAYS:

So you see, now that the Bible has been completed, there is no longer any need for the individual spiritual gifts of prophesy, visions, or healing. All those were done away at the death of the apostles.

“When the Son of man comes, will He really find faith
on the earth?”—Luke 18:8

Jesus clearly foresaw the last days when He asked that question. As a whole, we modern born again Bible Christians have very little of God’s miracle power in our lives. We claim to believe the Bible, but we are continually ignoring and twisting it to come up with teachings that accommodate our modern lifestyles. As a result, we have inadvertently robbed ourselves of God's promises.

Before I continue, you should be aware that I am not a member of any "tongues-speaking" church congregation. I have never spoken in tongues, never had a vision, and never seen a supernatural miracle of any kind. That does not mean that they never happen, just because I have never experienced them. And while it is very clear that many of the so-called "miracles" that take place in some of our churches today are counterfeit, the fact remains that miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit are indeed given by God to individual believers who are washed in the blood of Christ: "But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all: for to one is given the word of wisdom through the Spirit, to another the word of knowledge through the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healings by the same Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another discerning of spirits, to another different kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues." (1 Corinthians 12:7-10)

The problem is that most of our born again Bible churches today are teaching that these gifts were discontinued by God when the Bible was completed and the apostles died. This teaching is commonly referred to as "the doctrine of cessation." Those who hold to this view base their entire argument on one passage of scripture, and they completely ignore the context of the scripture. Let me go ahead and quote it:

8 Love never fails. But whether there are prophecies, they will fail; whether there are tongues, they will cease; whether there is knowledge, it will vanish away. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part. 10 But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away. 11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. 12 For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known.
—1 Corinthians 13:8-12

If you read this passage carefully, you'll see that it refers to the end of the miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit being given to individuals in the body of Christ. The main question is: When will this happen? The answer is given in verse 10: "But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part will be done away." We are continually told that "when that which is perfect is come" is a reference to the completion of the Bible and the death of the apostles. However, there is no indication, implication, or logic to this reasoning. This interpretation is simply "grasping at straws," and a distortion of scripture in a weak attempt to justify the so-called doctrine of cessation.

"When that which is perfect is come" is actually a reference to our perfect sanctification when we stand face-to-face with Jesus Christ in heaven, as indicated in verse 12: "For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I am also known." This same idea is shown in 1 John 3:2: "[W]hen He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is." When we see Him, we shall no longer have need of miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit. We will be in heaven, having everything that we need, and we will know everything that we need to know. That is when the gifts of the Holy Spirit will cease—not before. They have not ceased yet. They are just very rare. And one of the main reasons for that is lack of faith. God will not bless unbelief. We are continually told by our church leaders that the gifts of the Holy Spirit have ceased. This does not promote faith, but unbelief, based on their faulty doctrine of cessation.

Now if you still refuse to accept what I am saying, please allow me to direct you to the book of Revelation for the ultimate proof that the doctrine of cessation is a man-made doctrine that contradicts scripture. Once again, according to the doctrine of cessation, the miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit ceased being given to believers with the completion of the Bible and the death of the apostles. If this is the case, how do you explain the two witnesses of Revelation 11? The miraculous power given to them by the Lord demonstrates a major hole in the doctrine of cessation theory—a hole about as deep as the Grand Canyon.

Let me quote Revelation 11:3-8, so that you can see what I'm talking about:

3 And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if anyone wants to harm them, fire proceeds from their mouth and devours their enemies. And if anyone wants to harm them, he must be killed in this manner.

6 These have power to shut heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy; and they have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the earth with all plagues, as often as they desire.

7 When they finish their testimony, the beast that ascends out of the bottomless pit will make war against them, overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

If the miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit ceased being given to believers at the completion of the Bible and the death of the apostles, then it would be impossible for the two witnesses to do the miraculous things that they do (recorded in the scripture passage above) during the Tribulation. They will do these things for a full 3-1/2 years, and their God-given miracles will directly affect the entire world. This is phenomenal, and it totally blows away any possibility for "the doctrine of cessation" to be valid.

The convenient response of those who hold the cessation view say, "Well, the two witnesses are Elijah, Enoch, Moses, or some other men from heaven. That's why they have miraculous powers from God." Excuse me, gentlemen, but once again, you are in extreme error. The two witnesses will not be coming from heaven. They are mortal men just like you and me. If you look at verses 7 and 8, you can clearly see that they will die. People who come from heaven are immortal. They cannot die. Jesus made this very clear: “[N]or can they die anymore...being sons of the resurrection.” (Luke 20:36) You cannot argue with Jesus Christ. God does not pull people out of heaven, make them mortal again and make them subject to death again. The two witnesses die at the hand of the antichrist; therefore they are mortal just like us, and they will clearly be demonstrating the miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit, which cessationists claim ended with the completion of the Bible and the death of the apostles.

Now that I have proven from scripture that God still does give the miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit to those who belong to Christ, then why aren't we seeing these miraculous gifts in action today? I think there are three main reasons: 1) Unbelief—We have been told for so long that God no longer gives miraculous spiritual gifts to His children. Therefore, we no longer believe; and God does not honor unbelief. 2) Carnality—Most of those who belong to Christ see no need for returning to old fashioned biblical values; and of those that do, they make no effort to actually do anything to end the traditions in their lives which have been imported from the world by our born again Bible churches. As a result, their carnality continues and they simply deny and excuse it—the typical attitude today which consumes the entire body of Christ on a worldwide scale. 3) Failure to follow biblical instructions and biblical examples which lead to the outpouring of God's miracles. For example, James 5:14-15 says, “Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.” Why don't our churches do this? Jesus also said that sometimes we have to fast when we pray: “This kind can come out by nothing but prayer and fasting.” (Mark 9:29) How many Christians do this? How about bowing in prayer? When was the last time you bowed when you prayed to the Lord?—a long time ago, right? Why? Although we are not required by God to bow in prayer, it pleases Him; and bowing to Him shows Him that you are serious about your relationship with Him. Believers who are recorded in the scriptures bowed to the Lord regularly. How about you?

God does indeed still give spiritual gifts to His children. If you want him to manifest them in your life, then you need to believe that He does. You also must remove all the carnality from your life, which our born again churches continually and ignorantly excuse through liberty in Christ. Remove all the modern traditions from your life that virtually all believers today are practicing. Then ask God to reveal Himself to you, and see what happens!

In the world, compromise is considered a good thing. They value it so much that they have coined the term "the art of compromise." But in God's kingdom, it is quite the opposite. God despises compromise, because in God's kingdom compromise usually has to do with compromising our faith by modifying demonic, worldly ideas for Christian use. The body of Christ today is continually adopting the world's vomit and blessing it in Jesus' name, and then it is excused through today's counterfeit liberty in Christ. Our born again churches are continually run this way. Sorry for being so crude, but I think it is the best way to get across to you what God is feeling. This is what God's people are doing to Him, and this is exactly how He sees it (See Revelation 3:15-16). We are sanctifying the world's filth and offering it to our Lord Jesus Christ! And we are proud of ourselves, because we have actually deluded ourselves into believing that He is pleased with this.

Halloween is a perfect example. Most born again Christians know that Halloween is a demonic holiday. However, there are some who are now saying that it is a Christian holiday because it was popularized by the Catholic church. Let me tell you something about the Catholic church. The Catholic church is simply a Roman version of Baal worship (which God continually condemns in the Bible) which masquerades as Christian. Most of their holidays come straight from Baal worship, and are now ignorantly celebrated by those who belong to Christ. Halloween is the exception—for now. However, even though God's people condemn Halloween as demonic, they just can't seem to help themselves. They don't want to miss out on all the fun that the world is having.

God's people know that Halloween is evil, but as I said, they don't want to miss out on the fun, so they invented their own version of Halloween and sanctified it in Jesus' name. And that's exactly what church harvest festivals are—a modified version of Halloween. Or to be more precise—a Christianized Halloween party. Church harvest festivals have the same basic elements as a Halloween party: 1) fun and games, 2) costumes/face painting, and 3) candy. Our church once sent an email to their members telling us that they had an urgent need for candy for their harvest celebration. Can you imagine that? Since when is candy an urgent need? Answer: only when you want to make sure that the little children can make up for missing Halloween.

Church harvest festivals always occur as close to Halloween as possible, except they are generally on the weekend for convenience. The excuse of having a church harvest festival so that the children have a safe place to go on Halloween (instead of going door-to-door "trick-or-treating") might seem logical to some, except for the fact that the odds that their harvest festival will even be on Halloween are very small, since these festivals are generally only on Saturdays or Sundays. So much for that excuse!

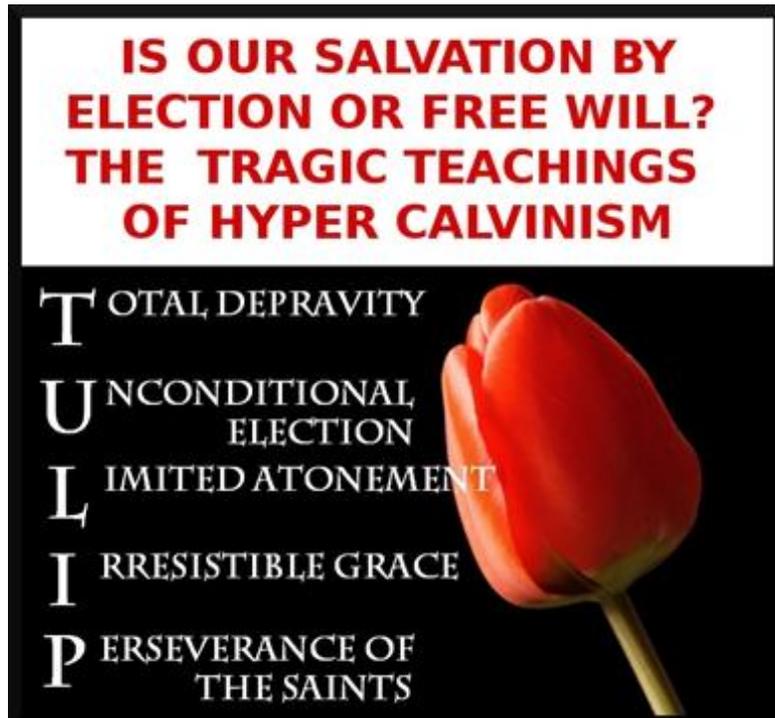

The ultimate excuse for having a church harvest festival is "to glorify God by giving thanks to His name." That doesn't change the fact that church harvest festivals are basically glorified Halloween parties, which contain all the elements of a Halloween party, and take place as close to Halloween as possible. None of this is changed by giving thanks to Jesus. This is simply an excuse to justify the celebration. It is simply a pagan celebration in Jesus' name. It's obvious that the reason these celebrations are so close to Halloween is because they revolve around Halloween. I dare say that if Halloween did not exist, they wouldn't even have these celebrations. Halloween is the entire reason for their creation.

Lastly, the fact that these church harvest festivals even exist (under the guise of giving thanks to God) is totally absurd. Americans already have a harvest celebration dedicated to thanking God. We have been celebrating it for some 400 years. It's called "Thanksgiving." It's only three or four weeks after Halloween. There is absolutely no logical reason to have another harvest celebration right before Thanksgiving—except that the real reason these church harvest festivals were added was to have a Christianized celebration of Halloween, so that the children could have some Halloween fun like the rest of the world, so that they wouldn't feel deprived.

There have been many harvest celebrations all over the world throughout history. Most of them are pagan in design. But Thanksgiving was specifically dedicated to the God of the Bible by the Pilgrims, giving thanks to Him for their abundant harvest. They were born again Christians who worshipped God out of a pure heart, and they vehemently denounced the pagan holidays which were disguised as Christian by the Catholic "church" and which are celebrated by the majority of born again Christians today. It's time to get Halloween out of the church. That means to stay away from all of these so-called church harvest festivals. If you really want a special day to give thanks to God for “a bountiful harvest,” just wait a few weeks more for Thanksgiving, so that you can keep it pure. The Lord does not delight in compromise.

Day 125

The Tragic Teachings of Hyper Calvinism and How It Affects the Gospel Message

When I was in high school, right after I got saved, I was witnessing to one guy whose sadness I could clearly see in his eyes, because he believed that only certain people were chosen by God to be saved, and therefore he had no say in the matter. In his mind he was doomed to hell, and there was no escape. Tragic.

My two main purposes in this study are 1) to get as many born again Christians as possible to stop using their fatalistic versions of God's election as an excuse to not witness to unbelievers, and 2) to make it clear to unbelievers that they are not "fated" by God to go to hell. The decision is theirs.

I know a woman who used to share the gospel with unbelievers; but no more. She stopped. Why? Because she has returned to the teachings of her former church from years ago. Here's a basic summary of what she (and too many others like her) believes: God has chosen who is going to be saved, and who is going to hell. Furthermore, she says, Jesus only died for those who are going to be saved. He didn't die for anyone else. She often "attacks" me with these beliefs at any given moment, and whenever I offer to show her what the scriptures really say, she refuses, and tells me, "I believe what I believe, and I know that it is true." In other words, forget what the scriptures say. She can believe whatever she wants, as far as she's concerned.

Now with beliefs like that, who in the world is going to be motivated to witness? If God already has it all mapped out, and we have no say in the matter, then why not just sit back and wait for whoever is going to be saved to actually get saved? There are at least three problems with that: 1) Jesus commanded us to share the gospel message (Matt. 28: 19-20; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:47; Acts 1:8), 2) the gospel message must be shared in order for someone to be saved (Rom. 10:13-14), and 3) the common people of the early church recognized that it was their duty to share the gospel (Acts 8:4).

For sure, God's election does exist. It cannot be denied, because it is mentioned several times throughout the New Testament. However, man's responsibility to respond to the gospel is also in scripture, and I'm guessing that it's in there a lot more times than God's election is mentioned. Bottom line: God does His part, and we do ours. There is a logical balance. God does not force anyone to be saved, or to go to hell. We have a responsibility to respond to the gospel message. It is our choice. We have a free will. That's what the whole message of the Bible is all about—whether we will do what God tells us to do, or whether we will refuse, and pay the consequences. God isn't forcing anyone to do anything against their will.

Furthermore, if Jesus only died for those who are going to be saved, and we don't know who they are, how on earth can we possibly witness to anyone, telling them that Jesus died for their sins? It would be literally impossible, and we would be continually violating our conscience, since we wouldn't actually know who He actually died for. By the way, most of us are very aware that there are many scriptures that tell us that Jesus died for the sins of the entire world. To say that Jesus only died for those who He knows is going to be saved is to just ignore scripture. I challenge any one of my readers to show me any scripture that says that Jesus only died for those who are going to be saved. It doesn't exist! The only way to come up with this kind of teaching is to distort scripture and rationalize. God's love and grace for mankind is so great that Jesus Christ died for the vilest human beings on the planet—including those who curse God's name with their last dying breath, and end up in hell by their choice alone!

For those who are still insistent that Christ died only for those who surrender their lives to Him, I would like to direct your attention to 2 Peter 2:1, which proves quite clearly that Christ did indeed die for all, even those who end up in hell: "But there were also false prophets among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Lord who bought them, and bring on themselves swift destruction." The phrase "denying the Lord who bought them" makes it very clear that Christ died even for those that reject Him! Be assured that Christ died for all, and therefore all have the undeserved opportunity of calling upon His name to receive forgiveness and the free gift of eternal life! Don't let anyone tell you otherwise! What an awesome God!

Day 127

What Feminism Is REALLY About

"Feminism...masquerades as a movement for women's rights....Feminism is elite social engineering designed to destroy gender identity by making women masculine...." —Henry Makow, Ph.D.

Feminism is one of the biggest scams in the history of the world. It is firmly rooted in witchcraft and female dominance, which can be traced all the way back to the tower of Babel. Here's a quote from the feminist elite: "We must go back to ancient female religions like witchcraft."—from "The Declaration of Feminism," November 1971

Here's what Pat Robertson said about feminism: "The feminist agenda is not about equal rights for women. It is about a socialist, anti-family political movement that encourages women to leave their husbands, kill their children, practice witchcraft, destroy capitalism and become lesbians."

One of the biggest compromises in the history of our born again churches is when God's people decided to start reinterpreting scripture in light of feminist doctrine and began incorporating feminist ideals into the body of Christ—all in the name of phony feminist compassion, counterfeit liberty in Christ, and so-called "Christian" feminism. "Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?"—1 Corinthians 5:6

You cannot serve the God of the Bible and the goddess of feminism. It's one or the other. God is an "all or nothing God." There is no such thing as "Christian feminism." There is no scriptural basis for it. If you insist that you are a "Christian feminist," you are deceiving yourself. You are simply a feminist woman. If you want to be a Christian, that means giving up ALL your worldly philosophies for Christ, including feminism, which is a rejection of your God-given feminine nature, and a path to masculinity.

Do not pretend that feminism of today is worse than it was when it was created 170+ years ago, so that you can continue justifying your feminist lifestyle. The ONLY difference is that feminists are bolder today. Their goal has ALWAYS been to make women just like men. And Christian women have helped them achieve this sick goal. Renounce Christian feminism, ladies, and return to the clothing and lifestyle of your Christian ancestors. The Lord is waiting. Stop making excuses.

Day 128

NATURAL BEHAVIOR

The greatest sin in the body of Christ today is "Christian feminism," a euphemism created by the apostate church which allows born again Christian girls and women to practice virtually all the abominations of feminism, teaching them that it is perfectly acceptable for them to dress, behave, and be treated like boys and men, thus suppressing and stripping away their natural God-given femininity, and destroying His creation.

UNNATURAL, CONDITIONED BEHAVIOR

Day 129

If Christians don't need to bow down when they pray to God, then why do it at all?

DO IT BECAUSE HE LIKES IT !

"that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father."—Philippians 2:10-11

Day 131

What's Wrong with Valentine's Day?

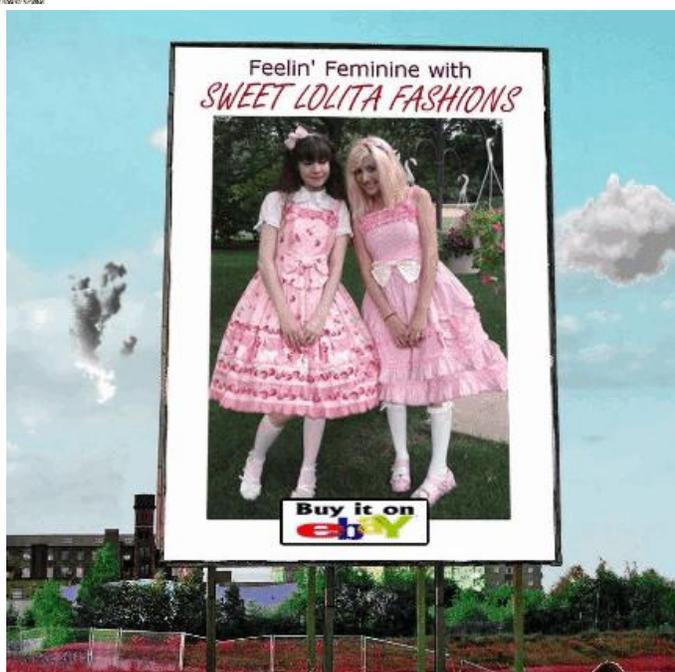

The origin of Valentine's Day comes from the festival of Lupercalia, which was created as a sex festival.

The name was changed to Saint Valentine's Day by the Catholic "church" in honor of one of their "saints," who in the Catholic religion are objects of worship.

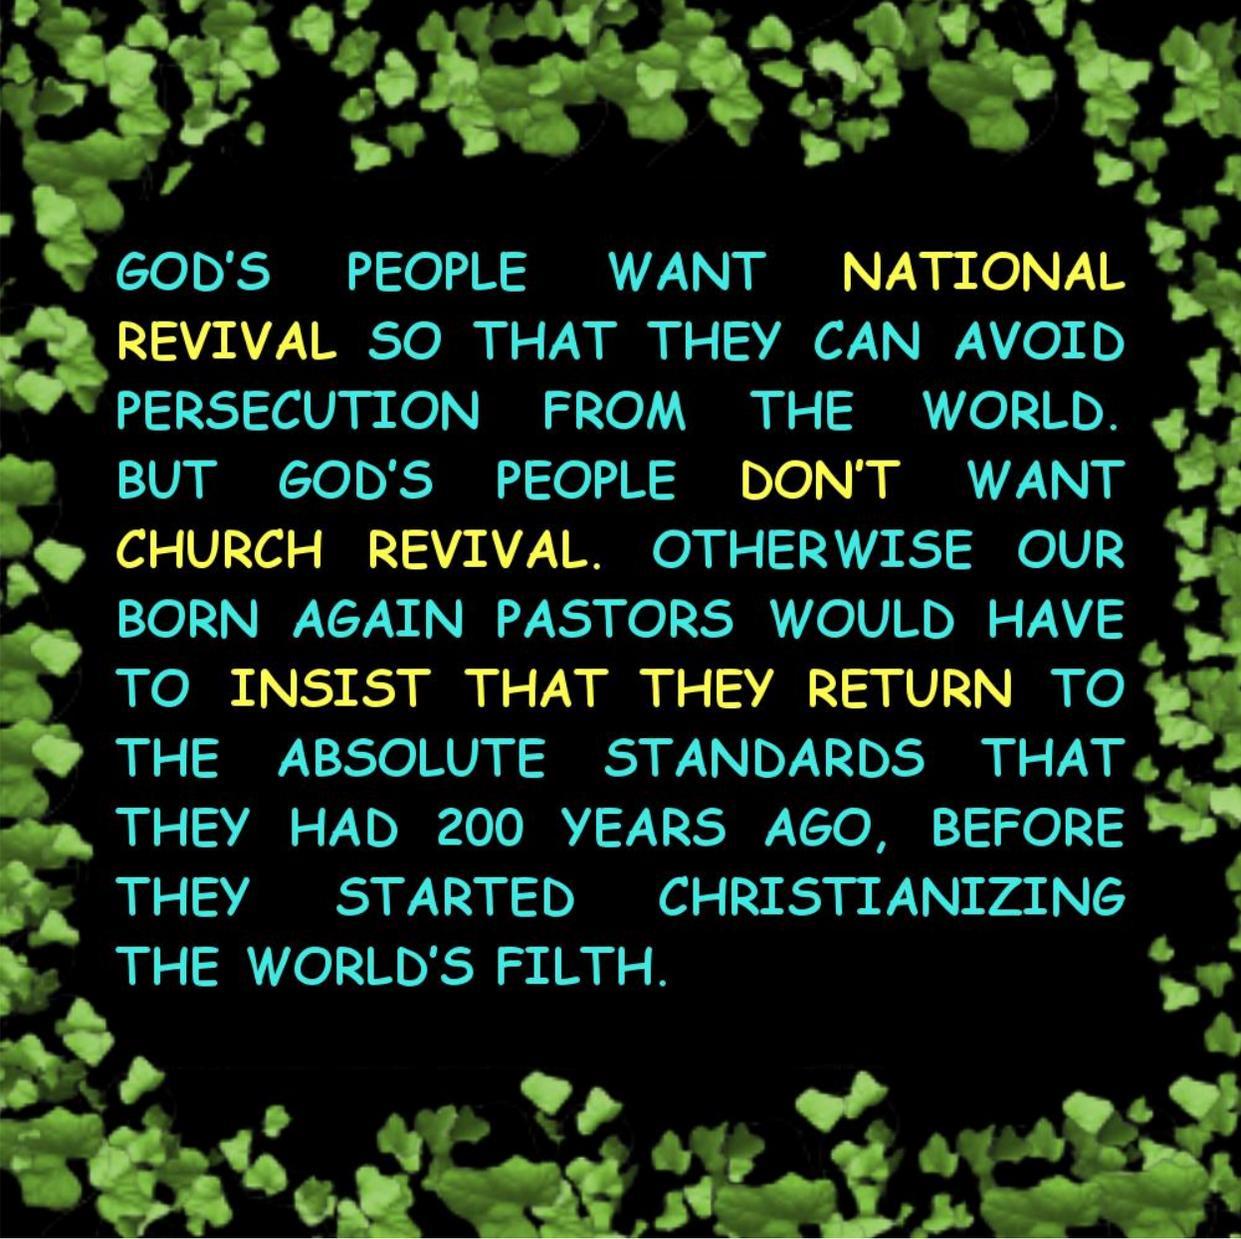

EVERYTHING'S wrong with Valentine's Day. Have nothing to do with it, Christian.

The reason atheists curse God is because deep down they know He exists. Otherwise they wouldn't bother cursing Him.

After all, it doesn't make sense to curse somebody who doesn't exist.

Day 135

Day 136

Feminist women wear shirts, not ruffled blouses, because they despise their God-given femininity. They want to imitate men.

Feminist women also wear pants, not skirts, because they reject their God-given femininity, and want to imitate men.

Christian women wear ruffled blouses, not shirts, because they value their God-given femininity. They do NOT want to imitate men like the feminists do.

Christian women wear skirts, not pants, because they value their God-given femininity. They do NOT want to imitate feminists, who imitate men.

“A woman shall not wear anything that pertains to a man...for all who do so are an abomination to the LORD your God.”— Deuteronomy 22:5

Day 141

St. Patrick's Day

MARCH 17TH: ST. PATRICK'S DAY

The official story for this holiday was that St. Patrick drove all of the snakes out of Ireland with the help of God. He is mostly known because he tried to bring Catholic "Christianity" to the British Isles. However, the occult powers that be transformed this into one of leprechauns, shamrocks, and rainbows.

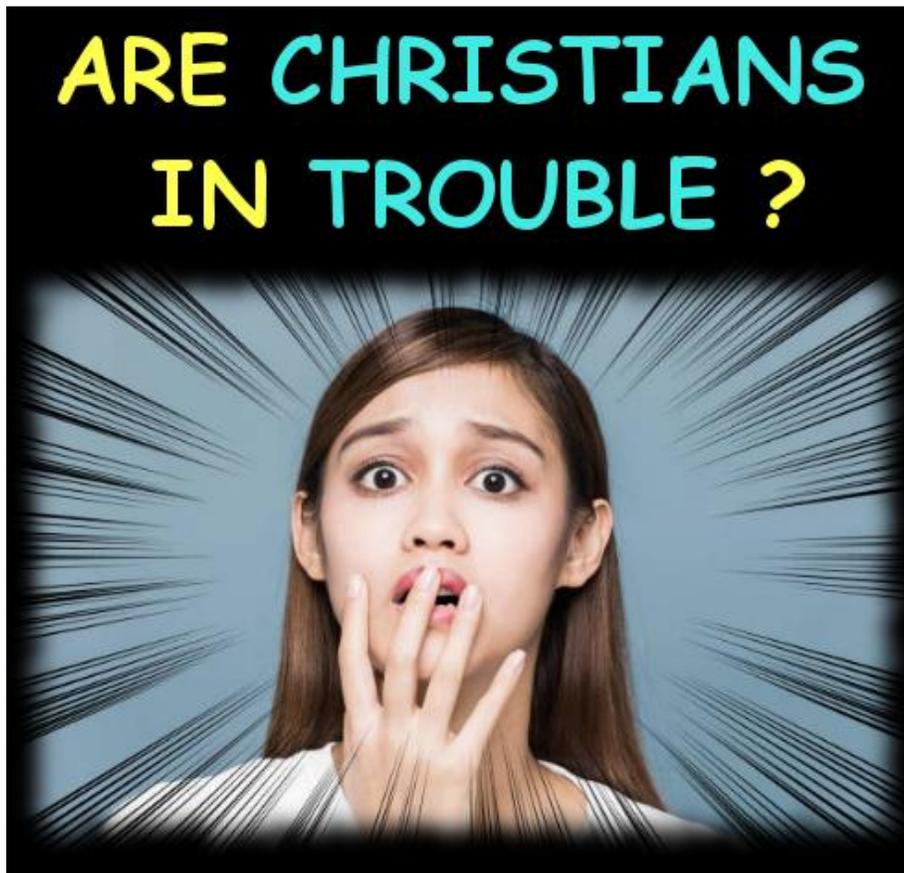

Leprechauns were originally brought into the St. Patrick's Day festivities by none other than the occult master Walt Disney. He had a film called Darby O'Gill & the Little People which put a family friendly face on what was historically a fairy of magical powers.

Leprechauns were originally evil, demonic creatures that could wreak havoc on everything in their path (like in the film of the same name). Their power was held in their shillelagh rod/staff, which is a perversion of Aaron's rod that had powers from God. The shillelagh is also believed to be a symbol for Moloch, the horned god. The Hanging Gardens of Babylon had a temple of Nimrod (with the single or double horns; represented as aka Moloch) where sacrifices were given, as referred to in 2nd Kings 23:10:

"He also defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter pass through the fire for Molech."

Day 142

Are Christians in trouble?

John 3:16:

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

Revelation 3:16:

"So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth."

Both of these verses were spoken by Jesus Christ, the Son of God. And both verses are referenced as "3:16." It seems that God may very well have orchestrated this as an extra warning to believers. John 3:16 speaks of God's love to a sinful world, offering the free gift of eternal life through Christ's sacrificial death on the cross for their sins, while Revelation 3:16 speaks of God's disgust towards those who have accepted this gift by grace, and yet use this grace to justify the typical carnal, lukewarm Christian lifestyles, which are characterized by a do-what's-right-in-my-own-eyes attitude towards sin, as well as an indifferent attitude towards strict obedience to the scriptures. By contrasting the theme of these two verses, one can easily see a similarity to the warning directed at Christians in Romans 11:22:

"Therefore consider the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in His goodness. Otherwise you also will be cut off."

The vast majority of those today who are born again ignore this strict warning, so open your eyes, because chances are you are probably one of them. God's people believe that as long as they are friendly with everyone and praise Jesus, that they can disobey whichever scriptures they feel don't fit into their modern lifestyle, because today pastors everywhere are telling everyone that we don't have to follow the old fashioned Christian standards and values of long ago, so "we can just ignore those scriptures." Such pastors will give a strict account when they stand before Christ, as will also every believer who continues to follow such foolish advice. It's time to reexamine your lifestyle, Christian, and return to the old fashioned Christian standards, values, and lifestyles of the past. That means full obedience to the scriptures, without the typical excuses that Christians use today. If you refuse, and insist on continuing to imitate the lifestyles of today's typical born again Christians, be prepared, along with the rest of them, to see a disapproving frown from the Lord Jesus Christ and suffer great shame, when you stand before His throne, and experience a great loss of eternal rewards as you enter heaven's gates:

"And now, little children, abide in Him, that when He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming." —1 John 2:28

"For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad."— 2 Corinthians 5:10

"For no other foundation can anyone lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is. If anyone's work which he has built on it endures, he will receive a reward. If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire." —1 Corinthians 3:11-15

"CHRISTIAN" FEMINISM? DON'T BE DECEIVED!

FEMININE Christian Women

FEMINIST Christian Women

"A feminist...doesn't need anything from a man; she has the mental disposition of a man already. She is a mental homosexual at a minimum. She thinks like a man. This is why so many women wear men's clothing and business suits...."

—Feminism Versus Femininity, www.jesus-is-savior.com

It's time for girls and women who belong to Christ to give up their FEMINIST VALUES and return to the CHRISTIAN VALUES of the past. That means DRESSES ONLY, ladies. You are NOT men!
